CORRESPONDING BODIES.

General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church—A. G. Vermilye, D.D.(3.)
General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.
General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America.
Associate Reformed Synod of New York.
General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church now sitting in the First Presbyterian Church of St. Louis, Missouri—Henry A. Nelson, D.D.(3.)

The Rev. A. O. Patterson, D.D., the Rev. Thomas W. Hynes, and ruling elder J. K. Duncan, were appointed a Committee on Elections, to whom persons present with informal commissions, or without commissions, were referred.

The Assembly then adjourned to four o'clock P. M., after prayer by the Rev. M. J. Hickok, D.D.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 4 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. W. L. Breckinridge, D.D.

Dr. A. O. Patterson, from the Committee on Elections, reported the following Commissioners as present with defective commissions, or without commissions, and recommended that their names be enrolled, they having furnished satisfactory evidence of their appointment:

Ministers—J. P. Forman, from the Presbytery of Upper Missouri; R. F. Patterson, from the Presbytery of Whitewater; Joel Stoneroad, from the Presbytery of Redstone; J. M. Pryse, from the Presbytery of Topeka; John Giffin, from the Presbytery of South West Missouri. Ruling Elders—G. S. Ormsby, from the Presbytery of Miami; Thomas Muir, from the Presbytery of Warren; J. B. McKinley, from the Presbytery of Bloomington; R. P. Davidson, from the Presbytery of Logansport; Lincoln Clark, from the Presbytery of Chicago.

The report was adopted.

The Assembly proceeded to the election of officers, when, on motion of Dr. Breckinridge, it was Resolved, That in all elections by this Assembly a majority of all the votes cast be necessary to an election.

The Rev. Robert L. Stanton, D. D., of the Presbytery of Chillicothe, was elected Moderator, and the Rev. Milo J. Hickok, D. D., of the Presbytery of Luzerne, was elected Temporary Clerk.

Dr. John C. Lowrie, from a Committee appointed by the last Assembly to consider the method now in use of receiving and considering the Reports of the several Boards and Permanent Committees, presented a report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee appointed by the last General Assembly, (see Minutes, p. 574,) "to consider the method now in use for receiving and considering the Reports of the several Boards and Permanent Committees," and to propose "a briefer and more direct method of disposing of the business of the Boards and Permanent Committees, if, in their judgment, this can be done without detriment to these great interests," respectfully report:

That they understand their appointment as having reference only to the method of considering the business of the Boards in the Assembly.

Inasmuch as these Boards were created by the General Assembly to subserve objects of the greatest importance, and as they are, and from the nature of the case must be, responsible only to the Assembly itself, it is the duty of this body to give whatever time and care may be necessary to the proper supervision of their proceedings. It is obvious, also, that questions of policy, and that practical measures which affect deeply the spiritual welfare of men in our own country and in foreign lands, and which affect also the Christian duty of all the members of the churches under the care of the Assembly, should not be allowed to give place to matters of comparatively little importance. It would be better, in making changes in the subjects which come before the Assembly, or in the method of disposing of them, so to order the matter as to exclude many things of minor interest, allowing them to be finally disposed of by the Synods or otherwise, rather than to lessen the time given to the Church's institutions for the spread of the gospel at home and abroad. It is believed that no business is more becoming to the character of a court of Christ than that of these Missionary Committees of the General Assembly, none better worthy of a body which finds the first example of its existence and of its duties connected with the missionary proceedings in the Council held in Jerusalem, and none better fitted to bring the members of the Assembly into personal communion with our Lord himself as to the great object of the conversion of the world. It should be borne in mind further, that the present method of receiving and disposing of the Reports of the Boards was adopted after various other plans had been tried, and after careful consideration in several meetings of the General Assembly, under the influence of noble men who have mostly entered into their rest. These considerations seem to be unfavourable to any material change in the method now and for a long time in use.

At the same time it should be noted that the number of the Boards and Permanent Committees has been increased from four to seven, thus making claims upon the Assembly for longer time than was formerly required. It is also to be noted that much time is often consumed in the Assembly by needless hortatory remarks, or by speeches giving minute details which might better be spread before the public in some other way. The Committee do not question the usefulness to a certain extent of these hortatory addresses and speeches, but they consider them to be often unnecessary as a part of the proceedings of the Assembly, especially when they are greatly prolonged. They would suggest, that if one or more public meetings were held in the evening during the sessions of the Assembly, on behalf of these Boards, such as might seem to be required by the exigencies of their affairs, by the direction of the Assembly, under its presiding officer, and open for remarks from any of its members, highly desirable opportunities would thus be given for popular impression.

Returning to the subject directly referred to the Committee, all its members, except the Chairman, have agreed to recommend to the Assembly, that it continue the usage of fixing, on the first afternoon of its sessions, an order of the day for considering the subject of each Board and Permanent Committee, as brought before the house on the report of its Standing Committee.

The Committee close their report with an expression of their earnest hope, that the great subjects herein referred to may find a deeper place in the hearts of the people of God, and a larger place in the proceedings of all our church courts, as objects for the promotion of which chiefly these courts are divinely appointed, and the redeemed are spared on the earth as witnesses unto Christ.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN C. LOWRIE, Chairman.
T. L. JANEWAY,
W. E. SCHENCK,
W. P. BREED,
THOMAS MCCAULEY.

On motion of Dr. Schenck it was

Resolved, That it be the order of the day, for to-morrow (Friday), at 10 o'clock, A. M., to receive the Reports of the Boards and Theological Seminaries and refer them to the appropriate Committees. Also that it be the order of the day: for Saturday next to hear the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Church Extension; for Monday next to hear that on the Board of Publication; for Tuesday next on the Board of Foreign Missions; for Wednesday next on the Board of Domestic Missions; for Thursday next on the Board of Education; for Friday of next week, that on the Disabled Ministers' Fund; for Saturday of next week, on the Freedmen's Committee; at 10, A. M., on each day.

Dr. D. V. McLean offered the following resolution:

Whereas, It is understood that the Presbytery of Louisville, has openly defied the General Assembly, and refused to submit to its orders, in a pamphlet adopted by it, of which the following is a specimen, viz., "We will not sustain or execute, or in any manner assist in the execution of the orders passed at the last two Assemblies, on the subject of slavery and loyalty, and with reference to the conducting of missions in the Southern States, and with regard to the ministers, members, and churches in the seceded and Border States;" and

Whereas, Said Presbytery has commissioned, and sent to this Assembly, at least one Commissioner, who, if the order of the last Assembly had been faithfully executed by said Presbytery, there is the strongest ground for believing would have been suspended from the functions of the gospel ministry: Therefore,

Resolved, That until the Assembly shall have examined and decided upon the conduct of said Presbytery, the Commissioners therefrom shall not be entitled to seats in this body.

Dr. W. L. Breckinridge moved to lay this resolution on the table, upon which motion the ayes and noes were called for, with the following result:

AYES.—Ministers—David Lyon, John P. Carter, L. P. Bowen, R. W. Allen, J. E. Spilman, R. K. Smoot, J. T. Hendricks, William L. Breckinridge, E. P. Humphrey, T. A. Bracken, J. M. Travis, J. L. The Rev. A. O. Patterson, D. D., from the Committee on Elections, reported as follows:

The difficulty in the case of the Rev. J. Giffin and the Rev. R. L. The Rev. J. Giffin is regularly commissioned from the new Presbytery of Southwest Missouri, and the Rev. R. L. McAfee from the Presbytery of Missouri. The Committee recommend that the name of the Presbytery of Southwest Missouri, and the names of these commissioners, be enrolled.

The report was adopted.

On motion of Rev. E. Kempshall, the report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Church Extension was taken from the docket and adopted. The report is as follows:

The Committee appointed to examine the Eleventh Annual Report of the Board of Church Extension have attended to that duty, and would respectfully recommend the following for the adoption of the Assembly.

1. Resolved, That the minutes of the Board be approved, and that the Report be also approved and published.

2. Resolved, That the Assembly rejoices to learn that the aggregate number of churches which contributed to the funds of the Board during the last year was twenty-eight more than during the previous year, making the present number of contributing churches seven hundred and seventy-nine; while, at the same time, it is a subject of lamentation, that eighteen hundred and fifty churches have made no direct contributions to this important arm of the Church during the year that is past.

3. Resolved, That in order to secure, if possible, more general collections in the churches for this Board, the Presbyteries be enjoined to inquire, at their regular spring meetings, of all their pastors and stated supplies whether each has taken a collection during the year for the Board, and that the stated clerks of the Presbyteries be requested to notify the pastors and stated supplies, at least one month prior to the meeting of Presbytery, that such inquiry will be made.

4. Resolved, That it is recommended to the Board to persevere in the course they have adopted in extending aid to needy churches in the States lately in rebellion, which adhere to this General Assembly, and for providing places of worship for the freedmen, as far as their funds may enable them.

An invitation was received from the Mercantile Library Association of St. Louis, tendering the courtesies of the library and reading-room to the members of the Assembly during their stay in the city. On motion, the Assembly voted an acknowledgment of the courtesy, and its thanks therefor.

On motion, the invitation was referred to the Rev. Dr. Hickok, Rev. George F. Cain, and ruling elder L. B. Wells, to make arrangements in regard to the matter.

The Rev. J. P. Safford, D. D., Chairman of the Standing Committee on the Board of Publication, offered the report of that Committee.

The Rev. W. E. Schenck, D. D., Secretary of the Board, briefly addressed the Assembly, after which the report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee to whom were referred the documents of the Board of Publication, report that they have examined them, and would offer the following resolutions as their judgment respecting the interests of this Board.

Resolved, 1. That the growing value of the press as a power in the world claims the attention of the Church, and that this element of her strength as a witness, should in no whit fail of keeping fully abreast of the times.

Resolved, 2. That, to this end, the increased skill, art, taste, excellence, soundness, and withal, economy, in the issues of the Board of Publication, and the entire management of its interests, manifested in the Annual Report and the Minutes of the Board and its Executive Committee during the last year, be approved and specially commended.

Resolved, 3. That the aim of the Board to reach the children of the Church and the children of the street, by judicious and sprightly publications, is fitly appreciated, and their successful efforts in this direction call for the coöperation of all interested in Sabbath-schools and children, to sustain the Board by using and distributing its books in preference to all others.

Resolved, 4. That as soon as the Board can find it financially prudent to publish the Sabbath-School Visitor twice a month, instead of once, the importance of that paper requires that it shall be done.

Resolved, 5. That the right arm of the Board, its system of colportage, ought to be more directly presented to their churches by pastors and ruling elders, as the chief claim of this department of Church enterprise for their liberal help.

Dr. Schenck offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That it be the order of the day for twelve o'clock to-day to receive Synodical Records, and put them in the hands of the several Committees thereon. And further, that it be made the second order of the day for Thursday next, to receive the reports of the Committees on the Synodical Records.

A memorial was received from a convention of ministers and ruling elders, held last week in this city, which was read, and on motion of ruling elder Lincoln Clarke, was accepted.

On motion of Dr. W. L. Breckinridge, the memorial was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Dr. H. J. Van Dyke presented and read a paper relating to the Southern Presbyterian Church, and the past action of this Assembly in regard thereto. He moved that it be referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures, and the motion was carried.

The Moderator presented a paper, signed by Dr. Stuart Robinson, Dr. S. R. Wilson, and ruling elders C. A. Wickliffe and Mark Hardin, commissioners from the Presbytery of Louisville, which was read.

Dr. Boardman moved that the paper be referred to the Committee of seven appointed to make inquiries in the matter of the Presbytery of Louisville, and that the Committee be instructed to inquire and report, with the least practicable delay, as to the expediency of readmitting that delegation to their seats in this General Assembly, until their case and that of their Presbytery shall have been finally disposed of.

The resolution was left as unfinished business.

Dr. P. D. Gurley, Chairman of the Judicial Committee, reported,

Judicial Case No. 1—being an appeal and complaint of Dr. Robert J. Breckinridge and others, against the several acts of the Synod of Kentucky on the matters appearing on the Records of the Presbytery of Louisville, &c. The Judicial Committee also reported, in connection with this, a second appeal and complaint of Dr. R. J. Breckinridge and others, against certain acts of the same Synod in the matter of the Appeal and Complaint of J. T. McMillan against the Presbytery of Louisville.

The report was accepted and put upon the docket.

The same Committee also reported

Judicial Case No. 2—being the complaint of S. J. Niccolls and others, against the action of the Synod of Missouri, passed at its sessions in October, 1865, whereby it declared the previous meeting of its own body "not a free court of Christ, and its entire acts null and void, and of no binding force."

The report on this case was also accepted and put upon the docket.

Dr. Boardman, from the Committee on Correspondence, moved that it be the order of the day for Wednesday next, at 11 o'clock, A. M., to hear the Rev. Dr. James McCosh, of the Free Church of Scotland. Carried.

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Dr. J. T. Hendricks, till to-morrow morning.

TUESDAY Morning, May 22.

The Assembly met at 9. A. M., and spent a half-hour in devotional exercises. Opened with prayer by Dr. J. C. Lowrie.

The Minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The Committee on Commissions reported that J. W. Scott, a ruling elder from the Presbytery of Topeka, had presented his commission and been enrolled.

On motion of Dr. Schenck it was Resolved, That it be the first order of the day for next Wednesday afternoon, to receive, both from Standing Committees and from individual members of the Assembly, nominations to fill vacancies in the several Boards and Theological Seminaries; and that all nominations then made be printed by the Stated Clerk for the use of the members in voting. And further, that it be the first order of the day for Friday afternoon next, to go into the election to fill said vacancies.

Dr. Hickok, from the Committee on that subject, reported arrangements with reference to an excursion to Iron Mountain and Pilot Knob.

His report was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee recommend that the Assembly accept the invitation of the Iron Mountain Railroad Company, for Saturday next.

On motion, the Synodical Records were called for, and referred to the several Committees thereon.

Dr. Boardman, from the Committee on Correspondence, nominated to the Assembly the Rev. P. D. Gurley, D. D., and the Hon. Lincoln Clark, to convey to the General Assembly of the sister Church, now in session in this city, the Christian salutations of this body.

The nominations were approved by the Assembly.

Dr. J. C. Lowrie, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 1, papers relating to the formation of the Presbytery of Shantung, at Tungchow, China, January 24, 1866, by the Rev. Messrs. Charles R. Mills, of the Presbytery of Shanghai; Calvin W. Mateer, of the Presbytery of Marion; and Hunter Corbett, of the Presbytery of Clarion—the said Presbytery to be connected with the Synod of New York.

The Committee find that these brethren followed the order prescribed by the General Assembly of 1848, concerning the forming of Presbyteries in our foreign missionary fields, and recommend that the Presbytery of Shantung be recognized as duly organized, and its name be entered on the roll of the General Assembly.

The report and recommendation were adopted.

Overture No. 2, a memorial from the Presbytery of Canton, asking the General Assembly to adopt regulations making the Presbytery the last court of appeal in certain cases which might occur in the foreign missionary Presbyteries where there is no local Synod; referring to the difficulty of such Presbyteries being represented in the meetings of the General Assembly; and requesting leave to transmit transcripts of their minutes to the Assembly.

The Committee regard the first of these subjects as worthy of continued consideration, but recommend that the Assembly take no action concerning it at present; and also recommend that the Assembly approve of the missionary Presbyteries sending commissioners to its meetings as providential circumstances permit, as well as of their sending transcripts of their minutes to the Assembly; and in general recommend that the act of the General Assembly of 1846, concerning Presbyteries in India, be extended to all the foreign missionary Presbyteries.

The report and recommendation were adopted.

Overture No. 3, from the Presbytery of Philadelphia, asking the Assembly to provide a form for the organization of new churches, and also an additional form for the solemnization of marriage.

The Committee recommend the following answer:

First: That the action of the Assembly of 1831, p. 177, on the subject of organizing churches, is deemed sufficient, and the memorialists are referred to that action as found in the Assembly's Digest, pp. 54, 55.

Second: No further action is deemed necessary on the second point in this overture.

The report was adopted.

Overture No. 4, being a request of the Presbytery of Passaic, to restore the geographical arrangement of Synods and Presbyteries in the printing of the Minutes.

The Committee recommend that no change be made.

The report was accepted and put upon the docket.

Overture No. 5, from the Presbytery of Leavenworth, asking the General Assembly to place the church of Denver City, Colorado Territory, now reporting to that Presbytery, "together with the other churches of that Territory, under the supervision and control of some Presbytery which they in their wisdom think may best promote the interest of the Master in that wide and interesting field."

The Committee find that there are but two ministers belonging to our Church within the Territory of Colorado, and although the organization of a Presbytery there is desirable as soon as practicable, yet at present it seems impossible, and the Committee would therefore recommend that the Assembly take no action upon the subject.

The report was adopted.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures also reported back a paper from the Synod of Wheeling, on the subject of Systematic Benevolence, and recommended that it be referred to the Standing Committee on that subject.

The recommendation was adopted.

The Rev. A. W. Loomis, from the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, offered the report of that Committee, which was read.

Dr. J. C. Lowrie, Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, addressed the Assembly.

The report was accepted, and a recommendation for a meeting at a quarter to 8 o'clock this evening was adopted, to which meeting the further consideration of the report was referred.

The Rev. Charles J. Jones offered a paper as an amendment to the report. On motion, his paper was referred to the meeting to be held this evening.

On motion of Mr. Symmes, it was made the second order of the day for Friday forenoon, to hear the Report of the Standing Committee on the Religious Education of the Freedmen.

Mr. Farquhar offered resolutions designed to secure uniformity in the Statistical Tables of the General Assembly.

The resolutions were placed upon the docket.

Dr. H. J. Van Dyke and others presented a protest against the action of the Assembly in excluding the Commissioners of Louisville Presbytery, pending the consideration of their case.

It was read, and on motion of Dr. West, was admitted to record, and a special Committee appointed to answer it, as follows: N. West, D. D., W. T. Findley, F. T. Brown, D. D., H. K. Clarke, and J. C. Maxwell.

The unfinished business of yesterday was taken up, viz., the resolution offered by Dr. Boardman. The Hon. Samuel Galloway had the floor, and before he had finished his remarks the time fixed for an order of the day having arrived, the Rev. Ashbel Green Vermilye, D. D., delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church, addressed the Assembly, and was responded to by the Moderator.

Dr. Thomas, from the Committee on Union Devotional Exercises, reported a recommendation, which was adopted, that the Lord's Supper be administered in connection with the other General Assembly now sitting in the First Presbyterian Church in this city, on Wednesday evening, at the First Presbyterian Church. Also, that the Moderator preside, aided by the Rev. Drs. Gurley and West of this Assembly.

The Assembly adjourned with prayer by the Rev. A. Shiland.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, 3½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. William T. Findley.

The Committee on Commissions reported that W. T. Cushing, ruling elder of the Presbytery of Rochester City, had presented his commission and been enrolled.

On motion of the Rev. Joel Stoneroad it was Resolved, That the person having in charge the manuscript Minutes of the Synod of Missouri be directed to produce them and place them in the hands of the chairman of the Assembly's Committee on those records.

The unfinished business of this forenoon was taken up, viz., the consideration of the resolution yesterday offered by Dr. Boardman.

The Assembly adjourned after prayer by the Rev. Dr. Krebs.

TUESDAY EVENING, 7¾ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. Thomas W. Hynes.

The unfinished business of this morning was taken up, being a motion to adopt the report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions.

The report, and an accompanying paper offered this morning by the Rev. C. J. Jones as an amendment thereto, were read.

The paper of Mr. Jones was adopted, and, on motion, was ordered to be recorded as a separate paper. It is as follows:

Whereas, By the Redeemer's last command to his disciples, he has laid the Church under obligation to carry the gospel to every creature; and,

Whereas, The difficulties in the way of obedience to that command are so many and so great, and the labourers so few, as imperiously to demand that every agency adapted to the accomplishment of this work should be employed; and,

Whereas, The providence of God, his revealed word, and the example of our Lord Jesus Christ, point most emphatically to the employment of the men both of the seas and the rivers in this good work; therefore,

Resolved, That this General Assembly urge upon the pastors and stated supplies of the churches within its bounds, the importance of calling the attention of their people to the religious claims of this interesting and useful class of our fellow-men, and of exhorting them to labour and pray that the abundance of the sea may be converted, in order that the forces of the Gentiles may be brought into the Church.

The fourth resolution of the report was then referred to the Board of Foreign Missions. It is as follows:

Resolved, That this Assembly regards the whole Church as a missionary society, whose main work is to spread the knowledge of salvation; that individual Christians are not merely to enjoy religion themselves, but to be actively engaged in efforts to lead others to Christ; also, that this Assembly recognizes the right to be vested in Presbyteries to select and appoint to the foreign as to the domestic missionary work, any and all such of their number as they believe to be fitted for and needed in the foreign field; and that the persons so designated and called may not refuse to obey, unless God by his providence clearly shows his will to be that they remain at home; and that until we come up to this standard we cannot be satisfied that we can with entire sincerity ask, "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?"

The remainder of the report was then adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions respectfully report to the General Assembly that they have carefully examined the Annual Report of this Board, which contains a brief but clear statement of the condition of the missions under its care, together with the report of the Treasurer. We recommend its approval and publication, as a document worthy to be studied by all the members of our Church.

From it we learn that our Church sustains missions in nine different countries, and at forty-six stations; that we have employed seventy-five ordained missionaries, nine of whom are natives, together with eight native licentiate preachers; we have seventeen lay-labourers from this country, and seventy-four female assistants; one hundred and forty-five native teachers, with other native helpers; four hundred and twenty-seven scholars are taught in boarding schools, and six thousand four hundred and thirty-eight in day schools; the mission churches have a membership of eleven hundred and ninety-three, of which about one hundred and seventy-six have been added during the year. Three deaths of missionaries have occurred during the year. The number of missionaries now employed is three more than were reported a year ago.

From the Report it appears that the receipts of the Board, from contributions and from legacies, is less by more than $46,000 than the receipts from the same sources last year. The total receipts of the Board are $207,526.65, the expenditures $210,376.93, leaving a balance against the treasury of $2849.93. The whole number of churches contributing is thirteen hundred and eighty against fifteen hundred last year, being a falling off of one hundred and twenty in the contributing churches.

The whole number of churches in our communion is twenty-six hundred and twenty-nine; of these, twelve hundred and forty-nine appear as having done nothing during the past year towards sending the gospel to the heathen.

We find that all the missions reported last year have been sustained, but with the exception of a few out-stations, no new ground has been occupied. The missionaries in nearly all these fields are calling, as they long have been, for ministers and teachers to be sent to their assistance as well as to enter into other and needy fields, and in some of the missions new buildings are greatly needed, but cannot be furnished until the Church increases its contributions.

During the time in which our Board has been in operation, the Bible has been translated into many languages, and a great amount and variety of religious books have been printed, and thus the way has been prepared for the more rapid diffusion of religious truth in the future than in the past, if the men were ready to take these Scriptures and religious publications, and preach and distribute them among the people for whom they were designed.

In all this we find reason both for thankfulness and for sorrow; thankfulness that as a Church we have been able to hold the ground previously acquired, but great grief that our people have not, by largely increased contributions, enabled the Board both to enlarge its operations in the older missions, and to establish new stations in districts and countries which are accessible, and where they have long desired, as servants of the Church, to plant the standard of the cross.

In view of these facts, and in view further of the claims of the heathen upon us, and the command of our Lord to preach his gospel to every creature, we recommend the following action, viz.

Resolved, 1*st*. That this Assembly gratefully recognize the continued prosperity which the great Head of the Church has vouchsafed to the work of this Board during the past year, which favour has been especially manifested in the goodly number of converts gathered into the mission churches, and in the increase of native ministers and assistants.

Resolved, 2*d*. That the members of the Board of Foreign Missions, and especially its Executive Committee, are deserving the thanks of this Assembly for the wisdom, zeal, and untiring perseverance with which they have, from the beginning, conducted its affairs, and particularly during the past years of trial and perplexity.

Resolved, 3*d*. That in view of the lands yet to be evangelized, the many hundreds of millions of people yet in darkness, also in view of the low state of the missionary spirit in our churches, the small number of candidates for the foreign field, and the immediate necessity for a great army of native assistants, we will cry mightily unto God, till he revives pure religion in our hearts and among our people, and till he so bless the word preached among the gentiles as to give us our desire in raising up very many from among the heathen who shall soon be qualified to preach the gospel to their countrymen; nevertheless, the Assembly does not mean by this to be understood to say, that the Church at home may sit still until such converts are brought into the Church and educated for the ministry; it believes, rather, that no good reason can be shown for so unequal a division of the ministerial force as exists at present—two thousand four hundred and eighty-four ministers remaining here among a population of only five or six millions, nearly all of whom already know what they should do to be saved, while we give but eighty-three ministers, seventeen of whom are natives, to the many hundreds of millions who have never yet heard of Jesus and his salvation. The Assembly therefore recommends all its young ministers, as well as candidates for the ministry, to give a new hearing to the calls which are coming in for labourers for this wide-spread harvest field.

Resolved, 4*th*. That the falling off in the contributions to this Board during the past year, the present indebtedness of the Board, and the fact that so large a portion of the Church has given nothing at all, while the ability to contribute has been greater, owing to the return of peace and general prosperity to the land, and the discontinuance of those calls for the gifts of the people which were so numerous during the war, are cause for deep humility and for searching of heart; therefore, the General Assembly commends this subject to the prayerful consideration of the churches, and reminds them again of her oft-repeated injunctions, that each church shall take up annual collections for the Boards, and where there is a failure to comply with this injunction, Presbyteries are directed to inquire into the cause of such delinquency.

Resolved, 5*th*. That we hold in tender regard those brethren and sisters who, instead of us, have left home and kindred, and are now labouring and suffering in unhealthy climes that they may win souls to Christ; and in order that they may be free from anxiety about the future provision for the support and education of their children, we call the attention of the churches to the statement in the Annual Report of the Board, that "The Fund for the Children of Missionaries should be largely increased;" and in order that all our members may be brought into closer sympathy with our missionary brethren, we urge upon all ministers and church officers the duty of spreading missionary intelligence, maintaining monthly concerts of prayer for missions, accompanying such prayers with contributions for the cause for which they have been praying.

Among the papers submitted to this Committee, was a copy of the records of the annual meeting of the Board of Foreign Missions, in which we find a resolution which was designed for this General Assembly, a copy of which we here present, hoping that the Assembly will entertain it. It is as follows, viz.

"On motion of the Rev. J. C. Rankin, it was

"Resolved, That inasmuch as a large increase in the funds is demanded for the necessary operations of the Board of Foreign Missions for the ensuing year, it be recommended to the General Assembly to solicit the churches to increase the donations to this Board by a sum not less than fifty thousand dollars."

In addition to the foregoing, there were referred to your Committee certain overtures from Northern India. No. 1, being an overture respecting the provision to be made for the support of the widows of missionaries; No. 2, an overture touching the subject of inadequate provision for the support and education of the children of foreign missionaries; and No. 3, an overture touching the sustentation and enlargement of the missionary work in India. Respecting these overtures, we recommend that inasmuch as the Board of Foreign Missions has long had these subjects under consideration, and has already made partial provision to meet the wants specified in Overtures 1 and 2, and inasmuch as Overture No. 3 refers to matters which peculiarly belong to the Board of Foreign Missions, therefore the General Assembly refer all these papers to said Board, with instruction to give them that attention which in their judgment the cases may require.

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by the Rev. A. W. Loomis.

Also, Overture No. 7, respecting an enlargement of the boundaries of the Presbytery of Upper Missouri. After some discussion, this overture was recommitted.

The order of the day was taken up, viz., to hear the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Education. The Report was presented by Dr. Joseph T. Smith and was accepted. Pending a motion to adopt,

The Rev. Wm. Speer, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Education, by invitation, addressed the Assembly.

The Report was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Board of Education beg leave respectfully to report to the General Assembly, that the Annual Report of the Board, together with the books and minutes of proceedings, have been placed in their hands, and every opportunity has been afforded them for making a thorough investigation of its affairs. The Committee have great pleasure in reporting, as they do unanimously, that from the best attention they have been able to give the subject, the affairs of the Board have been faithfully and judiciously administered, and nothing has occurred to them as deserving of correction or censure.

The Report opens with the department of Ministerial Education, and shows, from a careful survey of the history of our country, and from the statistics of the Board since 1819, that periods of great national trial have been uniformly the Divine preparation for revivals of religion and enlarged spiritual prosperity, and calls upon the churches to recognize this fact, and to desire and expect great things for our Zion in the revival of God's work.

The statistics of the Board for the past ecclesiastical year are given as follows:

Number of new candidates received,		83
Whole number on the roll,
in their Theological course,	168
in their Collegiate,	84
in their Academic,	44

Entire number received from the beginning, in 1819, 3400.

The state of the treasury is reported to be gratifying; that is, that enough probably of a balance from the collections of the months of March and April remains to meet the demands of the rest of the year. There has been received during the past year—I. For general education, $43,616; paid out, $41,027. In 1865, there was a balance of $18,313; now of $20,902. II. For schools and colleges, receipts, $3,135; payments, $3,807. Balance in 1865, $3,498; now, $2,826. III. For the African fund, receipts, none; payments, $445. Balance in 1865, $1,039; now, $594. These balances, it is urged upon the attention of the church, are not an annual surplus of money not required, but are simply occasioned temporarily by the collections taking place, so far as the appointments of the Assembly are obeyed, just previous to the making out of the Report.

A table of Presbyterial Statistics is furnished, from which it is shown that large amounts of money are given to the work of education outside of the Board.

Special attention is directed to the two "Appointments of the General Assembly," in behalf of the youth of the church, and its work of education; namely,

I. "The Day of Prayer" on the last Thursday of February. It is said of the last observance of it: "The interest felt among the instructors and friends of the young from year to year has seemed this year to express itself more intensely than ever in entreaties to God for their salvation. And surely it must have filled the hearts of multitudes of believers with gratitude, to witness the extraordinary answers sent to their petitions. It would fill a volume to recount them. And it may be said, we think, without exaggeration, that never before in the history of the observance of the Day of Prayer, has it been so generally and so abundantly blessed and followed by revivals of religion among the young, as it has been this year. We anxiously hope for its renewed appointment by the Assembly, and for still more earnest efforts to secure the gifts promised in answer to united prayer, that the next year may be one of still greater blessing from on high."

II. "The Sabbath for the annual presentation of the objects of the Board;" the first Sabbath of March. It is stated that: "The Board desires here solemnly to declare to the Church, its ministry and people, its conviction that a faithful and general observance of these two great appointments of the General Assembly—the seizing by the whole Church of an occasion, at a suitable season of the year, when the youth of the Church and its institutions of learning may be the subjects of special and earnest prayer, and the use then of means appropriate to the ends desired—is vitally important to the future progress of the Church's grand purpose in this Board, to raise up and qualify a gospel ministry, for the redemption of a lost world."

In the work of General Education it is stated that but twenty-one, about one-fifth of the former number of parochial schools remain in connection with the Board. But it is remarked: "still it is evident, first, that there are particular localities, there are sober and Christian communities, there are openings for aggression upon the strongholds of error and vice, which specially call for the establishment of these primary schools. Second, the difficulties in the way of the parochial school are peculiar to that level, and do not interfere with the more elevated sphere of the academy and the college. Indeed, where the parochial school cannot be sustained, it is the duty of the faithful pastor and intelligent layman, to give his influence towards casting the salt of a Christian influence into the fountains of juvenile education, and to labour to turn their converts into the larger channels of sanctified instruction."

Many interesting reports are given from academies and colleges, of which the most remarkable feature is the universal revivals in them.

Finally, under this head, special attention is called to the missionary work of the Board, in maintaining schools among the foreign population of the country, "a vast field which can be reached neither by the Board of Domestic Missions, nor by that of Foreign Missions." The earnest attention of the Church is directed towards the German, French, Portuguese, Norwegians, Swedes, Spaniards, &c., whose youth, in various parts of the land, lie within the reach of pastors, and congregations, and faithful individual effort. From the Germans there are now collected six parochial schools; and there has been put into our hands, at Dubuque, Iowa, most providentially, a work which has grown up into a Theological Seminary, which has already sent out quite a number of preachers to the vast and most influential German population of the West, and has now sixteen students. There is a most interesting missionary school among the French Belgians in Wisconsin. Yet these are but the beginnings of what might be done in various sections of the country to establish schools, &c., and thus reach those of whom it is said, "should our labours but raise up one Martin Luther, or one August Francke, or one Friedrich Krummacher, for the benefit of their countrymen in America, they would be all far more than repaid."

In conclusion, the Board seeks to encourage and stimulate the Church, "by reminding it of its historic character and obligations." Its eminent educational and missionary position in various countries and in the centuries past, is summoned to view. It is then reminded of the gigantic efforts now being made by other denominations. The Church, and individuals of wealth and piety in it, are besought to rise to the level of the occasion. The Church is called to "learn the meaning of her Lord in our chastisements," and address herself in earnest to those labours which tend towards "the conversion of the world." And individuals are urged to build "worthy and enduring monuments," like those of Leyden and Basle; institutions which shall stand like light-houses to many a storm-tossed soul, and be also an honour to their own coasts. And as so many thousands of the young men have given life for the liberties of our land, we are called to bring forward those who shall be "baptized for the dead," and fight in a holier war, for a kingdom which is not of this world, and its rewards on high. "Would that coming ages might point to us as the first nation of the world that truly fulfilled the prophecies of the word of God, and set up the standard of Christ to the people, and brought their sons in their arms and carried their daughters upon their shoulders, to bow down and serve Him as the Saviour and Redeemer, the Mighty King!"

The Committee also recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we see reasons for deep concern in the fact, that the number of candidates under the care of the Board and of the Presbyteries for the past year, and for several preceding years, has been so small (not more than half of the number of some past periods), yet are filled with gratitude and hope for the future, in view of the wide-spread revivals of religion, and the conversion of multitudes of young men.

2. Resolved, That in consideration of these revivals, Presbyteries are required to be specially careful in the examination of candidates, as to their character, motives, and general suitableness for the work of the ministry.

3. Resolved, That the attention of the ministry and churches is earnestly called to the great importance of the observance of the Day of Prayer for youth, schools, and colleges, on the last Thursday of February; and to the first Sabbath in March as a period for solemnly addressing parents and children as to their duties, and for offering petitions to God for the outpouring of his Spirit upon these several objects; and the Assembly urges a substantial remembrance of the wants of the Board, by taking up collections for its funds in its departments of general and of ministerial education.

4. Resolved, That in the present dispersed condition of Presbyteries in some portions of the land, aid may be granted by the Board to institutions and candidates requiring it on satisfactory recommendations from ministers known to it, and that no extra aid be given to any young man unless the same is reported to the Presbytery, and to the faculty of the institution in which the candidate is pursuing his studies.

5. Resolved, That the General Assembly desires the Board of Education to give all the encouragement and aid possible towards the permanent endowment of institutions of learning, centrally located, promising in results and under ecclesiastical supervision.

6. Resolved, That the objects of this fundamental Board are commended to the prayers as well as the contributions of the Church, having, as the final end in view, a general revival of religion, and the preaching of the gospel to all the world.

7. Resolved, That copies of the Report be sent to the sessions of churches, with a view to its facts and principles being brought more fully before parents and those interested in the young.

Dr. Gurley moved that the appeal of the Rev. Samuel Boyd, being Judicial Case No. 3, be taken from the docket, and made the first order of the day for this afternoon. Carried.

Dr. Gurley further moved, that it be a standing rule of this Assembly that all Judicial Cases be continued without interruption during the sessions of the day, after the Assembly shall have entered upon them.

The order of the day was taken up, viz., the calling for the reports of Committees on Synodical Records. The list of Synods was called with the following result.

The records of the Synods of Albany, Allegheny, Baltimore, Chicago, New Jersey, New York, Northern Indiana, Ohio, Philadelphia, and Southern Iowa, were approved.

The several committees upon the records of the Synods of Iowa, Kansas, Nashville, Pacific, and St. Paul, reported that no minutes from those Synods were present, and, on motion, these several committees were discharged.

From the Committees on the Synods of Buffalo, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri, Northern India, Wheeling, and Wisconsin, no reports were received.

From the Committees on the Synods of Cincinnati, Illinois, and Pittsburgh, reports were received, which were recommitted to the same committees.

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by the Rev. Robert Herron.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 3½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. J. L. Nevius.

On motion, the order of the day was postponed in order to hear the report of the Committee of seven, appointed to make inquiries respecting alleged acts of the Louisville Presbytery, and to report what action should be taken in relation thereto. The report was presented and read by Dr. D. V. McLean, chairman of the committee. It is as follows:

The committee to whom was referred the case of the Presbytery of Louisville beg leave to report as follows:

Three subjects were committed to our consideration, viz.

First. To examine and report the acts and proceedings of the said Presbytery.

Second. To inquire whether said Presbytery, in view of its action referred to, is entitled to a seat in this General Assembly; and Third. To recommend what action, if any, the General Assembly should take in the premises.

As to the first point your committee remark, that the acts of the Presbytery of Louisville come before this court in the way of review and control. We have not, indeed, before us, the original records of the Presbytery, yet our Book of Discipline provides (Chap. vii. Sec. i. v.) that if the superior judicatory be well advised by common fame, that irregularities have occurred on the part of the inferior judicatory, it is incumbent on them to take cognizance of the same, and to examine, deliberate, and judge in the whole matter as completely as if it had been recorded, and thus brought up by the review of the records.

We have before us a printed paper, entitled "Declaration and Testimony against the erroneous and heretical doctrines and practices which have obtained and been propagated in the Presbyterian Church in the United States, during the last five years," a copy of which is hereto appended. It is subscribed by three of the four Commissioners who represent the Presbytery of Louisville, and is further subscribed, as "adopted by the Presbytery of Louisville, at Bardstown, Sept. 2d, A. D. 1865," with the name of W. W. Duncan, Moderator, and Robert Morrison, Stated Clerk. This paper is widely circulated, and is acknowledged as authentic by the Commissioners referred to; your committee have no reason to doubt that it is a genuine transcript of the paper adopted by said Presbytery at the date above-mentioned. It will be readily admitted that such a document furnishes far more substantial grounds of proceeding than mere common fame.

This paper, considered as the declaration and testimony of the said Presbytery, furnishes the following facts: That Presbytery herein affirms that "for several years past" our "Church has been departing farther and farther from both the spirit and the plain letter of her commission to preach the gospel, and her charter as a kingdom not of this world." (p. 3.) It declares that "by the decisions of the supreme judicatory of the Church, at its recent meeting in Pittsburgh, the consummation seems to have been reached, and the seal finally set upon all previous unconstitutional and unscriptural acts of the body." (p. 4.) It describes these acts of the General Assembly as a "subversion of the law of Christ's kingdom, and surrendering the crown rights of Zion's King, on account of which the name and honour of our Lord are everywhere blasphemed." (p. 4.) It charges an "assumption, on the part of the courts of the Church, of the right to decide questions of state policy." (p. 5.) It characterizes the deliverances of the late Assemblies as a "sanction given by the Church to the perversion of the teachings of Christ and his apostles upon the subject of the duty of Christians as citizens." (p. 7.) It asserts that the Assemblies of 1864 and 1865 have "laid down a new doctrine upon the subject of slavery, unknown to the apostolic and primitive Church, a doctrine which has its origin in infidelity and fanaticism." (p. 8.) It represents certain language of the Assemblies of 1864 and 1865 as "an unjust and scandalous contradiction of their own recorded testimony, and of well-known facts." (p. 8.) It teaches that the General Assemblies of 1861 and 1864, "countenanced the doctrine" that before a court of Christ ought to take action on important questions brought before them, it is right and fitting that they should inquire "what the Cabinet at Washington may wish them to do; and ascertain what effect their action may be likely to have upon the mind of the President and the army, or upon the price of the Government stocks abroad." (p. 10.) Of the Assembly's reference to the lessons of Providence it says, "A more total abandonment of God's written word for the uncertain light of dark and mysterious and yet undeveloped providences, and these to be expounded by men it may be having their understandings darkened and for not obeying the truth perchance given up to believe a lie, can scarcely be conceived of." (p. 10.)

It proclaims that "the usurpation by the secular and military power, of authority in and over the worship and government of the Church, has been sanctioned by Sessions, Presbyteries, Synods, and the General Assembly, directly, by various acts which are fully known to the world." And adds that the Theological Seminaries of Princeton and Danville have "endorsed in word and act such usurpation." (p. 11.)

It testifies that an "alliance has been virtually formed by the Church with the State, by which the State has been encouraged, and even invited to use the Church as an instrument for giving effect to its various schemes of a political character." (p. 11.)

It denounces the last five Assemblies as having practised "a relentless and malignant persecution," which "is sought to be justified by false statements and misrepresentations." (p. 12.) It charges the Assembly of 1865 with "basing an action upon an assertion of what the Assembly had the clearest evidence was not true." (p. 13.)

It declares that the deliverances of the late Assemblies "are contrary to the word of God, and subversive of its inspiration and supreme authority." (p. 15.) It assures the world that "our Synods and Assemblies have ceased to command even ordinary respect." (p. 19.) That the General Assembly has become the supporter of heresy, the abetter of injustice and despotism, the fomenter of discord, and the prime leader in promoting a great and destructive schism in the body of Christ. (p. 21.) It charges that "the infallible oracles of God have been abandoned" for "a shallow humanitarian philanthropy." (p. 21.) That "the plainest teachings of the holy Scriptures respecting the relation and duty of masters and servants, have been pronounced cruel and unjust." (p. 22.) That "the whole mediatorial glory and dignity of the Messiah has thus been tarnished, and all the offices of Prophet, Priest, and King, which he executes for the salvation of his people, are subverted and surrendered." (p. 23.) Finally, it sums up these weighty and serious charges with the declaration, that "if this be not an apostacy, surely it needs but little to make it so, clearly, unmistakably, fatally." (p. 25.)

In view of this alleged position of the Presbyterian Church, represented in this Assembly, within a hair's breadth, as they affirm, of utter and final apostacy from Christ, the Presbytery of Louisville adopt ten resolutions, of which the following are a specimen:

First. "That we refuse to give our support to ministers, elders, agents, editors, teachers, or to those who are in any other capacity engaged in religious instruction or effort, who hold the preceding or similar heresies;" that is, to all such as agree with our late Assemblies.

Sixth. "That we will not sustain or execute, or in any manner assist in the execution of the orders passed at the last two Assemblies on the subject of slavery and loyalty, and with reference to the conducting of missions in the Southern States; and with regard to the ministers, members, and churches, in the seceded and border States."

Seventh. "That we will withhold our contributions from the Boards of the Church (with the exception of the Board of Foreign Missions), and from the Theological Seminaries, until these institutions are rescued from the hands of those who are perverting them to the teaching and promulgation of principles subversive of the system which they were founded and organized to uphold and disseminate. And we will appropriate the moneys thus withheld, in aid of those instrumentalities which may be employed for maintaining and defending the principles affirmed in this declaration, against the errors herein rejected, and in assisting the impoverished ministers and churches anywhere throughout the country, who agree with us in these essential doctrines, in restoring and building up their congregations and houses of worship."

Eighth. "We recommend that all ministers, elders, church sessions, Presbyteries and Synods, who approve of this Declaration and Testimony, give their public adherence thereto, in such manner as they shall prefer; and communicate their names, and when a church court, a copy of their adhering act."

To this document are appended forty-one names of ministers, and seventy-eight names of ruling elders—in all one hundred and nineteen; of whom eleven are ministers and members of the Louisville Presbytery.

Such is the tenor and spirit of the act which has been adopted, as we have no reason to doubt, by a majority of the said Presbytery, and which has been published and extensively circulated for months past. Its character lies upon its surface. It is not simply an expression of disagreement, with the vast majority of the Church to which this Presbytery belongs, on the subject of loyalty and slavery; nor a public protest against what they might regard as seriously erroneous or unconstitutional, in the teachings or decisions of the General Assembly. Such a right of protest, public or private, by individuals or ecclesiastical bodies, is the birth-right of Presbyterians. It is not even a refusal to sustain the General Assembly, and a renunciation of all obligation to support the organizations by which our Church seeks to maintain and extend the gospel among men. Nor is it an act of rebellion, simply, against the constituted ecclesiastical authorities, to which, in his ordination vow, every Presbyterian minister has solemnly "promised obedience in the Lord."

It is an organized conspiracy against the honour, the peace, and the unity of that part of the body of Christ in which they still claim the rights and privileges of membership. It is a violent and studied disruption of the Christian bonds which they desire to be yet unbroken; a bold denial of mutual obligations, by men who demand for themselves the full enjoyment of covenanted engagements, without the poor merit of a rebellion which scorns obedience, proudly defies power, and challenges authority to meet it in the field of deadly conflict; this is the act of men who wear the garb of friends that they may more efficiently do the work of enemies.

While claiming membership in the Presbyterian Church, and representation in this Assembly, they denounce that Church as apostate; its highest court as the support of heresy, the abettor of despotism, the fomentor of discord, the prime leader in a destructive schism! Under the form of refusing to support, they set themselves to undermine every living instrumentality of the Church in harmony with the Assembly, from the minister to the common-school teacher. They withhold their contributions from the Boards and Seminaries, that they may expend them in advancing the ends of this conspiracy—in sustaining such ministers and churches as will coöperate in their conspiracy! Sitting as a court of our Church in connection with our Assembly, they organize themselves into a head-centre of treason to the Church, and invite other courts to send in their "adhering acts."

The second subject submitted to the consideration of your Committee, is the bearing of this action of the Presbytery of Louisville upon its right to representation in this body.

Our Constitution prescribes (see Discipline, chap. v. ix), that "when a member of a church judicatory is under process, it shall be discretionary with the judicatory whether his privileges of deliberating and voting, as a member, in other matters, shall be suspended until the process is finally issued, or not." The principle of this rule has been applied by former Assemblies to such cases as that now before your body.

Thus the Assembly of 1837 resolved, "That agreeably to a principle laid down, book ii. chap. v. sec. ix. of the Form of Government, the members of said judicatories be excluded from a seat in the next Assembly, until their case shall be decided." (See Assembly's Digest, 2d ed., book vii., title 3, page 726.) A protest against this was entered on the records as follows: "This Assembly has no power, by their vote, to deprive commissioners duly elected, from a seat in the next Assembly, because that Assembly has the exclusive right of judging of the qualifications of its own members, &c." Even this protest admits the right to exclude in the case in hand.

To this protest, (with reference to "the next Assembly,") our supreme judicatory replied as follows: "The General Assembly, by its very constitution, is regarded as having a general control of the whole Church, and in its conservative character shall superintend all of its concerns. It is believed that the initiatory steps contemplated by the resolutions authorizing a committee to designate inferior judicatories who may have been guilty of irregularities, to cite them, and report as soon as practicable to this Assembly, do not infringe the spirit or letter of the inherent powers of the General Assembly. And the great principles of analogy would obviously dictate, that the members of the inferior judicatories upon whom these preparatory measures are supposed to operate, should not be permitted to sit in the next General Assembly until their cases should be decided. If there be any sound principle contained in the clause, and the uniform practice which excludes an interested judicatory from voting, that principle and that practice should be applied to the members of such inferior judicatories as may be affected by these resolutions. This view of the subject is exceedingly strengthened by the fact, that express power is vested in our judicatories to exclude at will their own members when on trial before them." (See answer to protest, Assembly's Digest, sec. 127, p. 728.)

In all cases of appeal and complaint, it is a common-sense principle, as well as a constitutional law of our Church, that none of the members of the judicatory, whose act is complained of or appealed from, can vote in the superior judicatory on any question connected with their own case. (See Discipline, chap. vii. sec. iii., xii., and sec. iv. vii.) In cases of review and control, our Book prescribes no rule on this subject; commonly, perhaps, the question of right is not thought of; the exercise or neglect of it is immaterial. "But it may be," as remarked in Discipline, chap. vii. sec. i. iii. "that, in the course of review, cases of irregular proceedings may be found so disreputable and injurious as to demand the interference of the superior judicatory." In such circumstances, the principle adopted in cases of appeal and complaint must obviously be applied. The gravest questions, involving not merely constitutionality of proceedings, but the doctrinal soundness or moral character of the body whose records are reviewed, may arise in the course of such review by a superior judicatory. In such cases, "it is incumbent on them," as our Discipline declares, "to examine, deliberate, and judge, in the whole matter."

The members of such subordinate judicatory are then "on trial" upon their records, or upon common fame. This judicatory, with its representatives, is "under process" from the moment the superior court has taken a step tending to the exercise of discipline. For what is "process" but that course of action, from beginning to end, which aims to secure the ends of discipline? Where citation is issued, the citation is, as the Assembly has said, "the commencement of a process involving the right of membership in the Assembly." (Digest, book vii., title 3, page 726.) But there may arise contingencies of such a character as to forbid citation.

The judicatory alleged to have offended is cited "to show what it has done, or failed to do." (Discipline, chap. vii., sec. i. vi.) But the records themselves may sufficiently "show what it has done," and the circumstances of the case may require the earliest decision compatible with our constitution.

As a matter of course, a judicatory under process of trial retains unimpaired its right to be heard through its representatives, or otherwise, in self-defence. Though it cannot and should not claim a seat on the bench as an associate judge, it may and must be heard at the bar, in person or by counsel.

Third. This Committee is directed to "recommend what course of action, if any, the General Assembly should take with regard to the said Presbytery of Louisville."

Were the case before us one of ordinary character, the proper course of proceeding would be that prescribed in our Book of Discipline. (chap. vii. sec. i. vi.) "The judicatory next above," that which has offended (in this instance the Synod of Kentucky) should have cited the Presbytery to appear and answer; and should have issued the case. But it appears from an appeal and complaint against this Synod, now in the possession of this house, in reference to the very transactions of the Louisville Presbytery in question, that the Synod of Kentucky refused or declined to take action in the premises; or at least that it failed to "cite" the Presbytery before its bar.

There is reason to fear, that besides the injury to the churches in the infected region, resulting from undue delay in the settlement of so grave a question, additional complications might arise, and the leaven of rebellion become far more widely diffused. "A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump"—"purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened."

"To the General Assembly belongs the power," by the express provisions of our constitution, (chap. xii. v.) "of deciding in all controversies respecting doctrine and discipline," and "of suppressing schismatical contentions and disputations." In the General Assembly, "the whole Church is called to sit in judgment on the acts of a part." (Discipline, chap. vii. i.)

It possesses, therefore, whatever power belongs to the Church, being the highest instrumentality through which the Church acts. Its methods of action are conditioned only by such express limitations as the Church has imposed on herself in her constitution.

Hence, as our supreme court has decided, "any supposed restriction of the right of the General Assembly to cite any other inferior judicatories but Synods," for example, "is explained by the comprehensive character of the fifth part, (chap. vii. sec. i. v.) "which assigns to the superior judicatory power to examine, deliberate, and judge in the whole matter as completely as if it had been recorded, and thus brought up by the review of the records." (Assembly's Digest, 2d edition, book vii. § 127, page 728.)

The power of the Assembly, then, to act directly and conclusively in the case before them, is clear and unquestionable. The necessity for prompt and decisive action is apparent in view of the position assumed by the Presbytery of Louisville in the paper under consideration, as well as in view of the fact that the Synod of Kentucky has failed to act in the premises. Your Committee therefore recommend the adoption of the following measures, viz.,

Be it Resolved by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

First. That the Presbytery of Louisville be, and hereby is, dissolved; and that the custody of its records, papers, and other property, be transferred as hereinafter ordered.

Second. That a new Presbytery be and is hereby constituted, to be known by the same name, occupy the same territory, and have watch and care of the same churches; said Presbytery to be composed of the following ministers, (together with so many elders as may appear,) viz., Rev. D. T. Stuart, W. W. Hill, S. Williams, W. C. Matthews, R. Valentine, B. H. McCown, J. H. Dinsmore, H. C. Sachse, T. A. Hoyt, J. L. McKee, J. P. McMillan, J. McCrae, H. T. Morton, J. C. Young, or so many of them, whether ministers or ruling elders, as shall, before their organization, subscribe the following formula, viz., "I do hereby profess my disapproval of the Declaration and Testimony adopted by the late Presbytery of Louisville, and my obedience in the Lord to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States." which formula, together with the subscribers' names, shall be subsequently entered upon these records. The said Presbytery shall meet in the Chestnut Street church in the city of Louisville, Kentucky, on the 20th day of June, 1866, at the hour of 11 o'clock, A. M., and shall be opened with a sermon by the Rev. J. P. McMillan, or in his absence the oldest minister present, who shall preside until a Moderator is chosen.

Third. That so many ministers belonging to the late Presbytery of Louisville as are not herein named, are hereby directed to apply for admission to the Presbytery now constituted, as soon after its organization as practicable, and they shall be received only on condition of acknowledging before the Presbytery their error in adopting or signing the Declaration and Testimony, and of subscribing the aforesaid formula on its records. If at the expiration of two months from the organization of the new Presbytery, these ministers shall not have made such application, or shall not have been received, their pastoral relations, so far as any may exist with the churches under our care, shall thenceforth be ipso facto dissolved.

Fourth. That the licentiates and candidates under the care of the dissolved Presbytery are hereby transferred to that now constituted, and the Stated Clerk of the late Presbytery is hereby directed to place the records and other papers of the said Presbytery in the hands of the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery now constituted, as soon as such clerk shall be chosen.

Fifth. That this General Assembly, in thus dealing with a recusant and rebellious Presbytery, by virtue of the plenary authority existing in it for "suppressing schismatical contentions and disputations," has no intention or disposition to disturb the existing relation of churches, ruling elders, or private members; but rather to protect them in the enjoyment of their rights and privileges in the Church of their choice, against men who would seduce them into an abandonment of the heritage of their fathers.

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following order:

That on the hearing of the matters presented by this report, the commissioners to this Assembly from the Presbytery of Louisville be heard, subject to the rules of order which govern this house.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That when the Assembly adjourns this afternoon, it be to meet at 7¾ o'clock this evening.

The report just read by Dr. McLean was accepted, and, on motion of Mr. Waller, the consideration of it was made the first order of the day for this evening.

On motion, the above recommendation from the Committee of seven on the Louisville Presbytery was adopted, viz.,

That on the hearing of the matters presented by this report, the Commissioners from the Presbytery of Louisville to this Assembly be heard, subject to the rules of order which govern this house.

On motion, the Rev. Dr. Brookes was requested to inform the commissioners from the Presbytery of Louisville of the above action of this body.

On the Records of the Synod of Sandusky, the following Report was adopted:

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Sandusky report as follows:

At the sessions of the last Assembly, the Stated Clerk of that Synod informed the Assembly that their Records had been lost, and asked direction. He was directed to procure a new book, and "to use his utmost diligence to restore the lost Records as far as possible, marking the place where they begin again in regular order." This he has done, and now presents to the Assembly a most beautiful book, with the Records restored complete from printed copies of each year's proceedings which have been preserved, except for the year 1861.

At the last meeting of Synod, a committee was appointed to reproduce the lost minutes of that year, as accurately as possible, and report at the next meeting. Blank pages are left for the insertion of those records in their proper place, after having been adopted by the Synod.

But as the reproduced minutes of that year cannot be examined and approved by the Assembly, until after their adoption by the Synod itself, the committee recommend that the book be returned to the Stated Clerk of that Synod, with directions to finish the copying that is still incomplete, and present it to the next Assembly, with a duly certified statement that the whole is correct. On that statement the signature of the Moderator of the Assembly, following the recommendation of its committee, can be properly based, as giving validity to all the preceding copied minutes. As they are, they are only copies, lacking all evidence of ever having been approved by any Assembly from the beginning in 1860. This evidence should be supplied as soon as the book is prepared for it.

Judicial Case No. 4 was taken up, when the Moderator announced to the Assembly that it was about to proceed to judicial business, and enjoined upon its members to remember their high character as a court of Jesus Christ.

The Assembly proceeded to take the first and second steps, as prescribed in the Book of Discipline, chap. vii. sec. iii. 8, and had entered upon the third, when the reading of the records of the inferior judicatory was interrupted by Dr. Boardman, who offered the following:

Resolved, That the further reading of the papers relating to this case be arrested, and the case be remitted to the Presbytery of St. Clairsville, on the ground that its proceedings in this case were (as appears from the documents already submitted to the General Assembly) irregular and unconstitutional.

This resolution being yet under discussion, the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by elder Samuel Galloway.

THURSDAY Evening, 7¾ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. W. M. Ferguson.

On motion, the standing rule to-day adopted, was suspended for this evening, in order to consider the report of the Committee of seven on the Presbytery of Louisville.

A communication was received and read, as follows:

The undersigned, Commissioners from the Presbytery of Louisville, who happen not yet to have left the city—overlooking, in the spirit of Christian forbearance, the insult and seeming mockery of the Presbytery and themselves, in a proposition to appear and be heard before a court which has already condemned them unheard—in response to the resolution of this afternoon, transmitted to them by the Permanent Clerk of the General Assembly, most respectfully refer the Assembly to their letter of May 19th, as containing very obvious and sufficient reasons why they could not, without further special instructions from their Presbytery, appear before the present Assembly in any capacity.

Samuel R. Wilson,
Stuart Robinson,
C. A. Wickliffe,
by James H. Brookes.

St. Louis, Mo., May 24th, 1866.

The Report was then taken up and considered on a motion to adopt. While this motion was still pending, the Assembly adjourned with prayer by the Rev. Charles E. Robinson.

FRIDAY Morning, May 25, 9 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and after spending half an hour in devotional exercises, was opened with prayer by ruling elder James Andrews.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that leave had been granted to the following ruling elders, viz., Charles W. Smith, after the sessions of yesterday; R. P. Davidson, and James Snyder, after the sessions of to-day; and Henry Hammond, during the sessions of Monday next.

The Rev. E. B. Raffensperger offered a resolution requesting the Presbytery of Toledo to change its name to the Presbytery of Jasper, which was, on motion, referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Dr. J. C. Lowrie, Chairman of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported back Overture No. 7, from the Presbytery of Missouri River, asking this General Assembly, 1st. To extend the boundaries of said Presbytery northward so far as to include Woodbury county, Iowa, which county is at present included in the territory of the former "Sioux City Presbytery;" and 2d. To detach the Presbytery of Missouri River from the Synod of Southern Iowa, and unite it with the Synod of Kansas.

The Committee recommend that these requests be granted.

The report was adopted.

Overture No. 8. Memorials have been presented to the Committee from the Synods of New York and New Jersey, and from the Presbyteries of Lake, Elizabethtown, and Logansport, requesting this Assembly to devise measures for the more competent and uniform sustentation of those who are able and willing to engage in the work of the ministry; and also an overture from the Presbytery of Allegheny City concerning unemployed ministers and vacant churches.

The Committee recommend that in view of the highly important and closely related nature of these subjects, this Assembly appoint a special committee, consisting of the Rev. David Elliott, D.D., Rev. C. C. Beatty, D.D., Rev. J. I. Brownson, D.D., Rev. Loyal Young, D.D., Hon. William M. Francis, Hon. Robert McKnight, and D. C. Robinson, Esq., to prepare a special report on this subject, which so intimately concerns the growth and prosperity of our Church, to the next General Assembly, and that all the papers now before the Committee on Bills and Overtures on these subjects, be passed over to this special committee.

The report was adopted.

Overture No. 9, being a paper from the Rev. W. P. Carson, on the subject of licensing teachers or catechists.

The Committee recommend that, inasmuch as the subject is new and of great importance, and in order to its adoption may require some constitutional legislation; therefore,

Resolved, That the attention of the Presbyteries be called to it, and that a committee, consisting of the Rev. W. T. Findley, the Rev. T. E. Thomas, and ruling elder Samuel Galloway, be appointed to make a report on the whole subject to the next General Assembly.

The report was adopted.

Dr. J. C. Lowrie moved that a paper, signed by R. Morrison, Stated Clerk of Louisville Presbytery, having reference to a column in the Statistical Tables, be referred to the Committee yesterday appointed on that subject; which was done.

On motion of Dr. J. P. Safford, a committee of two ministers and one ruling elder was appointed to solicit from Dr. McCosh a copy of his sermon preached in this church on Sabbath morning last, so that it may be published in the pamphlet proposed to be issued by a publisher of this city, with the proceedings of this Assembly. The Committee are Dr. J. P. Safford, Dr. J. T. Backus, and ruling elder Henry Day.

The Assembly took up the first order of the day, viz: to hear the report of the Standing Committee on the Disabled Ministers' Fund. The report was presented and read by Dr. R. C. Matthews, Chairman of that Standing Committee.

Dr. Joseph H. Jones, Secretary of the Disabled Ministers' Fund, not being present, on account of sickness in his family, Dr. Boardman addressed the Assembly at Dr. Jones' request.

On motion, the report was recommitted.

The Judicial Committee also reported Case No. 5, being the Complaint of Alexander Guy against the Synod of Cincinnati. This case originated in the Presbytery of Oxford, and cannot be properly adjudicated without the records of that Presbytery, or a certified copy of its proceedings in the case, neither of which has been sent to the Assembly. The Committee recommend that it be referred to the next Assembly, and that the Synod of Cincinnati be directed to send to that Assembly all the records required for adjudicating the case.

The report was accepted, and put upon the docket.

The same Committee reported

Judicial Case No. 6. The Judicial Committee to whom was referred the complaint of Messrs. Mack and Crozier against the Synod of Illinois, which was referred by the last Assembly to this Assembly, report that the parties in this case have appeared before the Committee and agreed upon a statement and presentation of all the facts which the Committee deem essential to the adjudication of the case, and on these facts they rest the case, and ask the decision of the Assembly. They recommend that this statement be read, and the case thereon decided.

The report was accepted, and put upon the docket.

Dr. Gurley moved that Judicial Case No. 1 be made the first order of the day for Monday next. Carried.

The second order of the day, viz., to hear the report of the Standing Committee on the Freedmen's Committee, was taken up, and, on motion, was postponed.

The unfinished business of yesterday, viz., the consideration of the report of the Committee of seven on the Louisville Presbytery, was taken up, Dr. T. E. Thomas having the floor.

On motion of Dr. J. T. Smith, the first order of the day for this afternoon was postponed, and it was made the first order of the day for the afternoon, to hear statements from the Rev. Dr. McCosh in reference to the Sustentation Fund of the Free Church of Scotland.

Rev. J. G. Symmes, from the Committee on Devotional Exercises, reported arrangements for religious exercises on the coming Sabbath, which were approved.

The Assembly adjourned with prayer, by the Rev. William M. Grimes.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, 3½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. B. L. Agnew.

The Assembly took up the order of the day, and was addressed by Dr. James McCosh in reference to the Sustentation Fund of the Free Church of Scotland.

Dr. Boardman, from the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, offered the following paper, which was unanimously adopted:

1. The General Assembly records the high satisfaction it has experienced in receiving the Rev. James McCosh, LL.D., who, although not officially accredited to us by the Free Church of Scotland, bears credentials having the signatures of many of the prominent and influential ministers of that Church, assuring us that their General Assembly, if in session, would unquestionably, in their judgment, have given him a formal commission to meet this body.

2. Appreciating the valuable services our distinguished brother has rendered to the cause of revealed religion, by his learned and able disquisitions in moral philosophy and theology, we tender to him personally the tribute of our cordial respect and gratitude.

3. We welcome Dr. McCosh as the honoured representative of the Free Church of Scotland, and heartily reciprocate every sentiment of kindness and sympathy to which he has given utterance on behalf of that Church, and other sister churches abroad.

4. We share in the hope so eloquently expressed by our esteemed brother, that the various evangelical Presbyterian bodies of Europe and America may soon be brought into a closer and more beneficent fellowship.

5. Responding to the invitation now presented to us, we are prepared to enter into an arrangement with the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland for an annual interchange of delegates. On the assurance of our brother that such a measure will, as he believes, receive the prompt approval of that venerable body, we will send a representative to meet them at their next annual sessions, as we will welcome any delegate whom they may appoint to meet the Assembly of our own Church,—leaving all matters of detail pertaining to this correspondence to be adjusted hereafter.

6. This General Assembly again expresses the pleasure it has derived from the visit of the Rev. Dr. McCosh. We thank him for his fraternal and instructive addresses, and we affectionately commend him to the care of a gracious Providence, that he may be shielded from all peril on the land and on the sea, and that his life may long be spared to the Church of Christ.

Resolved, That a copy of this minute be furnished to the Rev. Dr. McCosh.

Dr. J. C. Lowrie, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported Overture No. 10.

Pending a motion to adopt the report, Dr. H. J. Van Dyke moved that the report be so amended as to include the eight hundred and fifty ministers in the Southern States.

The amendment was laid upon the table, and the report was adopted. It is as follows:

The Committee of Bills and Overtures report Overture No. 10, on the subject of the reunion of the two branches of the Presbyterian Church, from the Presbyteries of Leavenworth, Muncie, New Lisbon, Madison, Erie, and Oxford. These Presbyteries ask the Assembly to take measures at this session to secure, at an early day, the organic union of the two bodies whose General Assemblies are now in session in this city.

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly expresses its fraternal affection for the other branch of the Presbyterian Church, and its earnest desire for reunion at the earliest time consistent with agreement in doctrine, order, and polity, on the basis of our common standards, and the prevalence of mutual confidence and love which are necessary to a happy union, and to the permanent peace and prosperity of the united Church.

Resolved, 2. That it be recommended to all our churches and church courts, and to all our ministers, ruling elders, and communicants, to cherish fraternal feelings, to cultivate Christian intercourse, in the worship of God and in the promotion of the cause of Christ, and to avoid all needless controversies and competitions adapted to perpetuate division and strife.

Resolved, 3. That a Committee of nine ministers and six ruling elders be appointed, provided that a similar Committee shall be appointed by the other Assembly now in session in this city, for the purpose of conferring in regard to the desirableness and practicability of reunion, and if, after conference and inquiry, such reunion shall seem to be desirable and practicable, to suggest suitable measures for its accomplishment, and report to the next General Assembly.

Dr. Van Dyke gave notice of a protest against the vote laying his amendment on the table.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries presented its report, by the Rev. D. J. Waller, its chairman.

Dr. J. T. Backus moved to amend, by inserting in the last paragraph the words, "not impairing the three years' course as heretofore pursued," instead of "not including any portion of the branches heretofore taught in the three years' course."

The report was thus amended, and then adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Theological Seminaries would respectfully report to the General Assembly, that full reports from the Trustees and Boards of Directors of the four Seminaries under the care of the General Assembly have been placed in their hands, and found in order, and are recommended to be read and published in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Miscellaneous papers have also been placed in the hands of the Committee, and received appropriate consideration. The financial affairs of each of these institutions appear to have been carefully administered, and to be in a prosperous condition.

The Danville Seminary has been injuriously affected by the great national convulsion of the last five years, to such an extent as to awaken deep solicitude for its continued prosperity and usefulness. The number of students has become so small that three of the four Professors have resigned. The resignations of the Rev. Dr. E. P. Humphrey and the Rev. Dr. S. Yerkes have been accepted, and that of the Rev. Dr. R. L. Stanton has been tendered, and your Committee recommend its acceptance by the Assembly, while the Rev. Dr. R. J. Breckinridge has signified his readiness and wish to resign. Thus the question of the temporary suspension of the Seminary has become one of serious import. But after mature deliberation, and in view of possible litigation and loss, your Committee recommend to the Assembly that Dr. Breckinridge be requested to retain his Professorship, and look after the interests of the Seminary, and endeavour to prosecute its more perfect endowment. He is also authorized to confer with the Trustees of the College, and with the Synod of Kentucky, as to the conditions upon which they will agree to the removal of the Seminary from Danville, and report to the next General Assembly.

In view of the provision in the charter of this institution which empowers the General Assembly to elect Trustees, when sitting within the limits of the State of Kentucky, your Committee would call the attention of the Assembly to the importance of holding a session within that State, at the earliest practicable period.

The report of the Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary shows the reception of twenty-nine new students, and a total attendance during the year of eighty-four. Nineteen candidates have passed the required examinations, and received the diploma of the institution.

The request of this Board for a revision and reissue of "the plan of the Seminary," "under which all our Theological Seminaries have been organized," is commended to the consideration of the Assembly.

The report of the Trustees, that the sum of thirty thousand dollars has been added to the endowment fund of the Seminary, and two scholarships have been endowed, by the gross sum of five thousand dollars, deserves the grateful acknowledgment of the Assembly.

The Trustees of Princeton Seminary report, "the net sum of sixty-six thousand four hundred and five dollars and fifteen cents," as raised within the year for payment of debt and endowment. This cheering token of favour to this, the oldest Seminary of our Church, will be hailed with gratitude by the Assembly.

The Board of Directors report fifty-four new students within the year, and an attendance of one hundred and fifty-seven. Of these, fifty-four sustained the usual examinations and received certificates of having completed the three years' course.

The Faculty of the Seminary afford the gratifying information that the Seminary has shared with the college and the churches in the town, in a special baptism of the Holy Spirit, while, at the same time, the regular studies have been prosecuted with increased punctuality and diligence.

The Directors of the Theological Seminary of the Northwest report the reception of fifteen new students during the past session, and the conferring of the usual certificate upon four young gentlemen who have completed their course in the institution. No return is made of the total number of students now in the Seminary.

The large addition to the library of the institution, through the liberality of the widow of the late Rev. W. W. Phillips, D. D., of New York City, consisting of his library, to the number of 854 volumes, is deserving of the special and grateful notice of this Assembly.

The Board of Directors resolved by a vote of eleven to nine, to request the Assembly to transfer Dr. Lord to the Cyrus H. McCormick professorship of Didactic and Polemic Theology, and also to fill the fourth professorship by an election. The Board, however, inform the Assembly that the opposition to these acts is very firm and weighty.

The friends of the Seminary present in St. Louis, from all parts of the Northwest, including a large number of the Directors of the Seminary, have had frequent conferences on this subject, and have arrived at a good degree of unanimity. Their views having been communicated to your committee, it has been our unanimous conclusion that both the comfort and usefulness of Dr. Lord will be best secured by retaining his valuable services in his present department.

Your Committee, therefore, recommend that this Assembly proceed to the election of a Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology. And we would respectfully ask leave to nominate for this chair the Rev. E. D. MacMaster, D. D.

The term of service of ten members of the Board expires during the sessions of the present Assembly.

The subject of an additional year to the course in Princeton Seminary, which has been brought to the notice of your Committee, by the reference of the last Assembly, and by a modification of the request from the Faculty this year, and also by remonstrances from several Presbyteries, has been deliberately considered, and the committee recommend that the Assembly sanction the adoption by any or all of our seminaries, of a course of studies to be pursued, purely at the option of students, during a fourth year, not impairing the three years' course as heretofore pursued; provided no increase of the number of teachers shall be asked on this account. And no distinctive degree or title shall be conferred on those electing to pursue the fourth year's course, save a certificate similar to that now authorized for the three years' course.

Additional nominations to fill vacancies in the Boards of Directors of the several Theological Seminaries, and also nominations for the vacant chair of Theology in the Seminary of the Northwest were called for and made; after which the Moderator called upon Dr. Gurley to offer prayer for Divine guidance in the election of a theological Professor, which was done.

The Rev. J. G. Symmes offered a report in reference to devotional exercises on the coming Sabbath.

The report was approved.

It was made the order of the day for Monday next, at 12 o'clock, to attend to all elections to fill vacancies in the several Boards and Theological Seminaries, and elect a Professor in the Seminary of the Northwest, or as soon thereafter as the Judicial Case, which has been made the order of the day for Monday forenoon, be finished.

The Assembly, after prayer by Dr. A. Gosman, adjourned till Monday morning next at nine o'clock.

MONDAY Morning, May 28, 9 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and after spending half an hour in devotional exercises, was opened with prayer by the Rev. James Allison.

The minutes of Friday last were read and approved.

Dr. J. C. Lowrie, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 11, from the Synod of New Jersey, proposing the following query: "Is it the intent of chapter 17th, Form of Government, that a minister, desiring to resign his pastoral charge, shall in all cases first make his request known to the Presbytery?"

The Committee recommend that it be answered in the negative, for the reason that chapter 16, section 2, provides that where the parties are prepared for the dissolution of a pastoral relation it may be dissolved at the first meeting of Presbytery.

The report was adopted.

Overture No. 12.

Resolved, That in order to avoid the errors and misunderstanding constantly occurring by confounding the Presbytery of Toledo, in the Synod of Iowa, with the Presbytery of Maumee, in Ohio, this General Assembly, in accordance with the suggestion of the Commissioners from the Synod of Iowa and many others, hereby change the name of the Presbytery of Toledo to that of the Presbytery of Jasper.

This report was, on motion, referred to the next General Assembly. [Afterwards reconsidered.]

Overture No. 13, being a request of the Rev. Samuel C. McCune that the Assembly would answer various questions connected with judicial processes in the lower courts.

The Committee recommend the following answer. These questions pertain either to supposed, or to actual judicial processes. In either case it is not deemed proper that the Assembly should give specific answers to them.

The report was adopted.

The Rev. R. C. Matthews, D. D., Chairman of the Standing Committee on the Disabled Ministers' Fund, again presented that report with amendments. Other amendments were offered by Dr. C. C. Riggs, pending the discussion of which, the whole subject was placed upon the docket.

The order of the day, viz., to hear the report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions, was, on motion, postponed.

It was made an order of the day to hear the report of the Committee on the Narrative to-morrow morning, in connection with the devotional exercises.

The Moderator announced the Committee of fifteen, to be appointed under Overture No. 10, on union with the other branch of the Presbyterian Church, as follows:

Ministers—J. M. Krebs, D. D., of the Synod of New York, C. C. Beatty, D. D., of the Synod of Wheeling, J. T. Backus, D. D., of the Synod of Albany, P. D. Gurley, D. D., of the Synod of Baltimore, J. G. Monfort, D. D., of the Synod of Cincinnati, W. D. Howard, D. D., of the Synod of Pittsburg, W. E. Schenck, D. D., of the Synod of Philadelphia, Villeroy D. Reed, D. D., of the Synod of New Jersey, F. T. Brown, D. D., of the Synod of Chicago. Ruling Elders—James M. Ray, of the Synod of Northern Indiana, Robert McKnight, of the Synod of Allegheny, Samuel Galloway, of the Synod of Ohio, H. K. Clarke, of the Synod of Sandusky, George P. Strong, of the Synod of Missouri, Ormond Beatty, of the Synod of Kentucky.

Judicial Case No. 1 was taken up. The Moderator being a party in the case, vacated the chair, and on motion, Dr. Krebs was requested to act as Moderator during the trial of the case.

The report of the Judicial Committee on the case was taken from the docket, and on motion adopted, as follows:

The Judicial Committee report to the Assembly Case No. 1, being an appeal and complaint of the Rev. Robert J. Breckinridge and others, against the several acts of the Synod of Kentucky, in the matters appearing on the records of the Presbytery of Louisville at its recent sessions, and in matters contained in a certain printed and published paper entitled, "Declaration and Testimony, &c." They also report in connection with this, a second appeal and complaint of R. J. Breckinridge and others, against certain acts of the same Synod in the matter of the appeal and complaint of J. P. McMillan against the Presbytery of Louisville. In these two cases the parties appealing and defending are the same, the subject matter involved in them is substantially the same, and three of the appellants and complainants, viz., Messrs. R. J. Breckinridge, Robert W. Landis, and R. L. Stanton, request that the Assembly will unite them and try them together. The Committee recommend that their request be granted, and that the two cases be taken up and considered together in the order prescribed in chap. vii. section iii., sub-section viii. of the Book of Discipline.

Dr. D. V. McLean moved that, 1st. Dr. R. J. Breckinridge and others, and 2d. the Synod of Kentucky, be regarded by this Assembly as the original parties in this case. Pending this resolution,

The Assembly adjourned, with prayer by the Rev. W. H. Hornblower, D. D.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, 3½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. J. W. Wightman.

Dr. Gurley presented the following report, which was approved:

The Committee appointed to convey the salutations of this body to the Assembly holding its sessions in the First Presbyterian Church, report that they have discharged the duty assigned them, that their reception by that Assembly was eminently kind and fraternal, and that the response made to the salutations of this Assembly was of a character suited greatly to encourage the hope that, at no very distant day, these two branches of the great Presbyterian family will become organically one.

Reports were presented from the Committees on the Records of the Synods of Illinois, Indiana, Northern Indiana, and Buffalo, and all those records were approved.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Wisconsin reported a recommendation that the Records of that Synod be approved, with the exception that on pages 181, 186, and 195, there are three several adjournments noted without any record of prayer. The report was adopted.

The Assembly again took up Judicial Case No. 1, and Dr. McLean's resolution, offered this forenoon, was adopted.

The Assembly then proceeded with the trial of the case, according to the Book of Discipline, chap. vii., sec. iii., sub-section viii. The sentence appealed from was read; secondly, the reasons assigned by the appellants for their appeal, and thirdly, the record of the proceedings of the inferior judicatory in the case. The Assembly then called for the original parties in the case, when Dr. R. J. Breckinridge appeared to make a personal explanation, but declined to plead. (See subsequent minute.)

The Assembly adjourned, with prayer by the Rev. John Crozier.

TUESDAY Morning, May 29th, 9 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and after spending half an hour in devotional exercises, in the progress of which the Narrative of the State of Religion was read by Dr. F. T. Brown, Chairman of the Committee on the Narrative, the Assembly was opened with prayer by the Rev. S. R. House, M. D.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The Narrative of the State of Religion was accepted and adopted, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Dr. J. C. Lowrie, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported Overture No. 14, being papers from the Synod of Ohio, the Presbyteries of Richland, Madison, and Chicago, and the Rev. Messrs. F. D. Harris, and S. J. Baird, D. D., relating to the general subject of Judicial Cases.

The Committee recommend,

1. That the General Assembly appoint a Committee of three ministers and three ruling elders, to whom shall be entrusted the duty of preparing a new Book of Discipline, to be submitted to the General Assembly at such time as its careful and thorough preparation may require. The reports of former Committees of the General Assembly on this subject, to be placed in the hands of this Committee for their consideration.

2. That in the mean time, until this new Book of Discipline shall have received the approval of the Presbyteries, provision be made for the adjudication of judicial cases by the General Assembly, by sending to the Presbyteries for their approval or otherwise, the following Overtures, viz.,

(1.) The General Assembly, on the nomination of its Standing Judicial Committee, may appoint from the members of the Assembly a Judicial Commission, or Judicial Commissions, as may be required, to try during its sessions the judicial cases which may come before the Assembly—their proceedings and decisions to be subject to the approval of the Assembly.

(2.) These Judicial Commissions shall, in their proceedings, be governed by the constitutional provisions respecting judicial process, in so far as these may apply.

(3.) The change in the method of trying judicial cases heretofore in use, which this overture proposes, if adopted by a sufficient number of the Presbyteries, shall govern the General Assembly of 1867, and its successors.

The report was adopted, and the Moderator appointed the following as the Committee:

Ministers—A. T. McGill, D. D., David Elliott, D. D., John M. Krebs, D. D. Ruling Elders—Hovey K. Clarke, Esq., Hon. H. H. Leavitt, Hon. George Sharswood.

Overture No. 15, from the Presbytery of Lake, asking

"What is the duty of a church session in a case where a member of the church has married and continues to live with a person who has been divorced from a husband, or wife, on grounds other than adultery or wilful desertion?"

The Assembly cannot give any other answer to this question than that contained in chap. xxiv. sect. vi. of the Confession of Faith, and chap. xix. 9, of the Gospel of Matthew, nor does it think any further answer necessary.

The report was adopted.

Also Overture No. 16, from a Committee of Church Extension within the bounds of the Presbytery of Potomac, asking the General Assembly to transfer the property of the proposed Metropolitan Church in that city to the Presbytery of Potomac, to be by said Presbytery applied to the purposes of Church Extension in the city of Washington.

The Committee recommend that this matter be referred to a committee of three members, to report to the next General Assembly.

The report was adopted.

The Moderator appointed as the Committee, the Rev. P. D. Gurley, D. D., the Rev. John Chester, M. D., and ruling elder Edward Myers.

Dr. Thomas, from the Standing Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions, read its report, which was accepted and placed upon the docket.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Pittsburg reported thereon, and the Records were approved.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Cincinnati reported as follows:

That they have examined the records, and move they be approved as far as written, with the following exceptions, that on page 36, the minute is defective in that a complaint was received, referred, and decided, without any statement with regard to the subject matter of said complaint.

2d. This defect in the record disables this Assembly from deciding as to the validity of the recorded reasons given for the decision of the Synod in the case on page 37.

3d. This defect in the minutes is the more to be excepted against, inasmuch as it records the implied censure of the complainant, while the Assembly is deprived of the opportunity to pass upon the case.

And whereas the complaint on pages 36 and 37, reported by the Judicial Committee, was put upon the docket, to be referred to the next General Assembly, this Committee recommend that this report take the same course.

The report was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Herron, it was Resolved, That the action of this Assembly fixing the hour of adjournment at 5½ o'clock, P. M., be reconsidered, and that 6½ o'clock, P. M., be fixed as the hour for afternoon adjournment during the remaining sessions of the Assembly; also that the Assembly meet daily at 8½ instead of 9 o'clock every morning.

Mr. Jagger, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that leave had been granted to the following, viz., Ministers—Robert A. Davison, after the sessions of yesterday; J. C. Caldwell, after the sessions of to-day. Ruling Elders—Robert Lyle, Lincoln Clark, A. G. Brown, L. B. Wells, William L. Orr, after the sessions of yesterday; S. T. Brown, J. K. Duncan, after the sessions of to-day; W. H. Pierson and Moses Coe, after this morning's session; H. Hammond, after the sessions of Wednesday; and Robert Porter, optional attendance during the remaining sessions of the Assembly

The report was approved.

Dr. Thomas moved to postpone the further consideration of Judicial Case No. 1, in order to take up the report of the Committee of seven on the Louisville Presbytery.

The motion was carried, and the consideration of the report was taken up, Dr. W. L. Breckinridge having the floor.

The Assembly adjourned, with prayer by the Rev. R. K. Smoot.

TUESDAY Afternoon, 3½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Dr. M. J. Hickok.

Dr. H. J. Van Dyke presented a protest against the vote, laying on the table his amendment to the report on Overture No. 10, on Friday afternoon last.

The protest was admitted to record, and, on motion, it was declared to be the sense of the House that no answer is necessary. It is as follows:

PROTEST.

The undersigned respectfully protest against the action of the General Assembly in rejecting a proposal to extend to the Presbyterian ministers and churches in the Southern States the same expressions of fraternal affection, and of desire for organic union, which have been so freely extended to that other branch of the Presbyterian Church commonly known as the New-school. Without expressing any opinion as to the practicability of consummating the proposed re-union with the last-named body, "upon the basis of a common standard," the undersigned desire to declare their solemn conviction that the commands of our Divine Master, and the exigencies of the times in our country, forbid the continuance of division and strife between brethren who maintain a common faith, and upon whom Providence has imposed a common work for the extension of the gospel. And we are further persuaded that every consideration which can render Christian union desirable in any case, has a peculiar and preëminent force in the relations we sustain to the Presbyterian ministers and churches in the Southern States. We are, therefore, constrained by our regard for charity, truth, and peace, to protest against the aforesaid action of the Assembly, upon the ground of its manifest inconsistency. This inconsistency appears to us the more glaring in view of the following incontestable facts:

1. The soundness of the Presbyterian ministers and churches in the Southern States, in regard to the distinctive doctrines of the gospel and the fundamental principles of ecclesiastical order, has never been questioned by us; and, indeed, their title to our confidence and affection on these high grounds, cannot be impugned by this Assembly without denying notorious facts, revoking our own most solemn testimonies in their favour, and involving ourselves in condemnation for having so long and so persistently held communion with them.

2. The questions in regard to civil government and domestic servitude which have separated them from us during the continuance of the late civil war, (questions which, in the opinion of the undersigned, ought ever to be held subordinate and inferior to the great doctrines of the gospel.) have been practically decided by the result of the war, in accordance with the views of this Assembly, and to that decision they have unanimously submitted. Slavery has been abolished; and, so far as we have any information on the subject, there is not a man in the Presbyterian churches at the South who expects or desires its reëstablishment. In regard to the duty of Christians to "obey civil magistrates, to submit to the powers that be, and to be subject to every ordinance of man not only for wrath, but for conscience' sake," there never has been any fundamental difference of opinion between them and us. The only ground of dispute between them and us in reference to this subject has been the practical and political question, "Who are the powers that be, having jurisdiction over the Southern States?" This question, also, has been practically decided by the results of the war in accordance with the views of this Assembly; and to this decision the Presbyterian ministers and churches in the Southern States have unanimously submitted. Their representatives, in General Assembly met, have solemnly declared and published to the world that "the higher powers now bearing rule over us are confessedly the Government of the United States, and those existing in the States wherein we reside." To these higher powers they solemnly profess their allegiance, and exhort all under their care to submit "with scrupulous fidelity." There is, therefore, no practical difference between them and us, even in regard to the subordinate questions of freedom and loyalty.

3. The inconsistency of the Assembly's action is further apparent when we consider the relation which the Presbyterian ministers and churches in the Southern States sustain to the great unsolved problem in regard to the evangelization and elevation of the negro population. The fidelity with which they have prosecuted this good work in former years, and the blessed fruits of their labours in this field, are fully set forth in the Narrative on the State of Religion adopted by the Assembly in 1854, an extract from which document may be found on page 818 of the Assembly's Digest. That the same spirit of love and fidelity to the spiritual welfare of the negro, which, according to the testimony of our Assembly, actuated them in 1854, still animates them, and is greatly increased in view of the peculiar miseries and temptations to which the negro is now exposed, there is abundant and notorious proof. It is the firm conviction of the undersigned that the Presbyterian ministers and churches in the Southern States have done, and, if they shall be left free to cultivate their own field without interference from strangers, that they will still do, more for the conversion and salvation of the negro than can ever be done by any body of Christians not residing in the Southern States. And in this good work, if for no other reason, they are entitled preëminently to the expression of our fraternal confidence and affection.

4. The inconsistency of the Assembly's action is further apparent, in the opinion of the undersigned, when we consider the influence which it is likely to exert in retarding the permanent pacification of the country, and the restoration of good will among all the people. And our apprehensions on this point are rendered stronger by the fact that the representatives of the Southern churches have "declared concerning other churches, in the most explicit manner, that we would willingly hold fellowship with all who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity; and especially do we signify to all bodies, ministers, and people of the Presbyterian Church, struggling to maintain the true principles of the same time-honoured Confession, our desire to establish the most intimate relations with them which may be found mutually edifying and for the glory of God." (See Pastoral Letter of the General Assembly which met at Macon, Georgia, December 14th, 1865.)

R. S. Clark,	D. C. Brown.

Mr. Day moved to reconsider the vote of this morning adopting the minute in regard to the appearance of Dr. R. J. Breckinridge yesterday as an appellant in Judicial Case No. 1.

The motion was carried, when

On motion of Mr. Day, the following was adopted as the minute in reference to that matter, viz.

The Assembly then called for the original parties in the case, when Dr. Stanton appeared and declined to proceed with the case. Dr. Breckinridge thereupon declined to proceed, and gave as a further reason for declining to plead, that the Assembly had confined the case to Dr. Breckinridge and the other appellants, and the Synod of Kentucky, as the original parties.

The Assembly resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the matter of the Louisville Presbytery, when

Dr. Humphrey moved to amend the report by striking out all the latter part of the report beginning with the words, "the power of the Assembly then to act directly and conclusively in the case, is clear and unquestionable," and inserting a substitute, which he read. [Inserted on a subsequent page.]

Pending the consideration of this amendment, the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by the Rev. Joel Stoneroad.

WEDNESDAY Morning, May 30, 8½ oclock.

The Assembly met, and after spending half an hour in devotional exercises, was opened with prayer by Dr. E. P. Humphrey.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

Mr. David Mitchell, from the Committee on Mileage, reported the following, which was adopted:

That there has been $193.85 paid to the Treasurer for the Commissioner's Fund; that there have been eight thousand five hundred and seventy-nine miles travelled by the commissioners who claim mileage in coming to this Assembly; which, at two and three-quarter cents per mile, will make the sum of $193.03, leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer of eighty-two cents. The Committee recommend that the Assembly direct the Trustees to draw on their Treasurer for the said amount of $193.03, and that he pay it out in sums as herein specified; provided, that no commissioner shall receive more than his expenses in coming to and going from this Assembly.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported, and the report was recommitted.

Dr. J. C. Lowrie, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 17, from the Presbytery of Bloomington, asking, 1. Has any church, or any part of a church, in our connection, the constitutional right to withdraw from a Presbytery, without its consent, and to unite with another body? 2. Can any communing member of the church be rightfully debarred from voting in such a case by a vote of the congregation, without some measure of discipline regularly administered by the session of the church?

The Committee recommend that the first of the queries be answered in the negative; as to the second, that no vote of the congregation of a Presbyterian church can affect the rights of a communing member as such; all such power is vested in the session.

The report was adopted.

Also, Overture No. 18, from the Presbytery of Palmyra, asking the Assembly to authorize the Trustees of the Van Rensselaer Academy in Missouri to sell and convey certain property.

The report was accepted and put upon the docket. Also,

Overture No. 19, from the Rev. F. J. Collier, asking the General Assembly to decide whether it is right for a Clerk of Presbytery in recording the licensure of a candidate to use any other form than that prescribed in the Book?

The Committee recommend that an answer be made in the affirmative. (See Form of Government, chap. xiv. sec. viii.) "And record shall be made of the licensure in the following or like form."

The report was adopted. Also,

Overture No. 20.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, to whom were referred the petition and memorial of Benjamin F. Avery, D. McNaughton, James A. Linch, and Thomas J. Hackney, ruling elders in the Walnut Street Church in Louisville, praying for such redress as in the wisdom of the General Assembly may seem just and necessary to redress the grievances of said church, as set forth in said memorial and petition, report, that they have considered the matter referred, and recommend the adoption of the following:

Whereas, on the second day of January last, D. McNaughton, Benjamin F. Avery, and James A. Linch, were elected ruling elders by the congregation of said church, and on the ninth day of January, the said D. McNaughton was installed, and Benjamin F. Avery, and James A. Linch were duly ordained and installed ruling elders in said church:

And whereas, the Presbytery of Louisville, after the election of said ruling elders, with the apparent design of discrediting said election, denied to one of their number a seat in said Presbytery, notwithstanding he had been duly elected to represent said church at a meeting of said Presbytery:

And whereas, it is evident that the peace of said church and their congregational rights are in great danger unless this Assembly shall interpose its authority, therefore this General Assembly by virtue of its authority and obligation to give advice and instruction in all cases submitted to them, does truly declare that the said D. McNaughton, Benjamin F.

Avery, and James A. Linch are to be recognized and acknowledged as ruling elders in the said church, and all church courts and sessions subject to or under the care of this Assembly are solemnly enjoined to respect and sustain their authority as such.

The report on this overture was adopted. The Rev. R. L. McAfee was excused from voting. The Rev. T. A. Bracken gave notice of a protest against the vote adopting the overture.

Dr. R. B. Walker, chairman of the Standing Committee on the Freedmen's Committee, presented the report of that Committee, which was accepted, and placed upon the docket.

Dr. Boardman from the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, reported that the Rev. W. T. Wylie was present as a Corresponding Delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, and recommended that it be made the first order of the day for this afternoon to hear him.

The report was adopted.

On motion of the Rev. D. J. Waller, it was Resolved, That the Assembly proceed, immediately after finishing the first order of the day this afternoon, to fill vacancies in the several Boards and Theological Seminaries, and to elect a Professor in the Seminary of the Northwest.

On motion of Dr. Safford, it was Resolved, That an order be drawn upon the Treasurer of the Assembly for fifteen dollars to pay for copies of Dr. McCosh's published sermon, to be furnished to him.

On motion, the unfinished business of yesterday, viz., the consideration of the report on the Louisville Presbytery, was taken up, Mr. H. K. Clarke having the floor.

The Assembly adjourned, with prayer by the Rev. J. B. Davis.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, 3½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. John Burrows.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that leave had been granted to the following, viz.

Ministers—R. Conover and J. P. Carter, after the session of this morning; Charles P. French after the sessions of to-morrow, and R. K. Smoot optional attendance after to-morrow morning. Ruling Elders—William E. Withrow, after the sessions of yesterday; David McMaster, J. C. Maxwell, A. V. Balch, and R. Van Pelt, after the session this afternoon; W. D. Hilts and Rogers Birnie, after the sessions of this morning; Andrew Boyd after the sessions of to-morrow, and James Andrews optional attendance during the remaining sessions of the Assembly.

The Committee on Leave of Absence beg leave respectfully to report—That they have reconsidered the report referred back to them this morning, and find no change in it to be practicable. They have also granted leave to the following, viz., Ministers—R. C. Matthews, after the session of to-morrow morning; J. B. Lindsley, after the session of to-morrow afternoon. Ruling Elders—H. T. Walker and James Gray, after the session of this afternoon; and Edward Myers after the session of to-morrow morning.

Your Committee would add that they have carefully weighed the reasons of all applicants for leave of absence, and have only granted their requests where the case was clearly one of necessity. And if the Assembly cannot confide in their judgment, and must judge each case itself, they would ask respectfully to be discharged from this duty.

The report was adopted.

The Rev. J. P. Bringle offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That so much of Overture No. 7 as relates to the detaching the Presbytery of Missouri River from the Synod of Southern Iowa, and uniting it with the Synod of Kansas, be, and is hereby recommitted to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Rev. T. W. Wylie, delegate from the Reformed Presbyterian Church, addressed the Assembly, and was responded to by the Moderator.

The Assembly entered upon the election to fill vacancies in the Boards and Theological Seminaries, and to elect a Professor in the Seminary of the Northwest.

The Moderator appointed the Rev. William T. Findley, the Rev. A. W. Loomis, and ruling elder Joseph A. Strawbridge, to act as tellers to collect and count the votes cast to fill vacancies in the Seminaries.

He also appointed the Rev. S. R. House, M. D., the Rev. John Crozier, and the Rev. Myron Barrett, tellers to collect and count the votes to fill vacancies in the Boards.

The tellers collected the votes, and retired to count them.

The Rev. E. B. Raffensperger moved the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That so much of the action of this Assembly as relates to the change of a name of a Presbytery in the Synod of Iowa be reconsidered, and that in order to avoid all future errors and misunderstandings, the name of the Presbytery of Toledo is hereby changed to the Presbytery of Vinton.

The unfinished business of the morning was taken up, viz., the consideration of the report on the matter of the Louisville Presbytery, Mr. H. K. Clarke having the floor.

Dr. P. D. Gurley offered a substitute for the resolutions contained in the report, and also for Dr. Humphrey's amendment.

Pending the consideration of this substitute, the Assembly adjourned with prayer by the Rev. G. D. Stewart.

THURSDAY Morning, May 31, 8½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and after spending half an hour in devotional exercises, was opened with prayer by the Rev. John Burrows.

Mr. Galloway rose to a question of privilege, and read an article from the Ohio Statesman, reflecting severely upon his character and that of the General Assembly, which article he attributed to the Rev. W. M. Ferguson, a member of this House.

Dr. Krebs offered the following:

Resolved, That unless the Rev. William M. Ferguson forthwith retract the offensive publication, and make an ample apology, to the satisfaction of this House, he be immediately expelled.

The Moderator having waited a suitable length of time for an explanation or retraction, and Mr. Ferguson having declined to speak, the Moderator took the vote, and the resolution was adopted, when the Moderator declared Mr. Ferguson to be expelled from the Assembly.

Mr. Ferguson having declared that he had not understood that an explanation was at that time demanded, the vote was, on motion of Dr. Krebs, reconsidered, in order to renew to Mr. Ferguson the opportunity he had failed to use before the resolution to expel him was adopted. Mr. Ferguson then rose and explained, after which Mr. McKnight offered the following as an amendment to the motion of Dr. Krebs.

Resolved, That the Rev. William M. Ferguson, a Commissioner to this General Assembly, because of a gross, abusive, and scandalous libel, published in the Ohio Statesman, on members of this body, which he has now qualified in the presence of the Assembly, is entitled to, and does hereby receive the grave censure of this Assembly.

Various resolutions to substitute, to amend, and to commit, were proposed, which were all laid upon the table in order that, by general consent, Dr. Krebs might offer the following resolution, viz.,

Resolved. That whereas the Rev. W. M. Ferguson, a Commissioner to this General Assembly from the Presbytery of Zanesville, is, by his own acknowledgment, guilty of writing and publishing in the Ohio Statesman, a gross, abusive, scandalous, and slanderous libel against members of this Assembly, and against this Assembly itself, and although he has qualified it in the presence of this Assembly, this morning, his explanation is not deemed satisfactory; therefore,

Resolved, That the Rev. Wm. M. Ferguson be forthwith expelled as a member of this house.

On these resolutions the previous question was called for, and the call was sustained. The main question was then put, and the resolutions were adopted, when the Moderator again announced that the Rev. W. M. Ferguson, a Commissioner from the Presbytery of Zanesville, had been expelled from membership in this General Assembly.

The Assembly took up the unfinished business of yesterday, viz., the consideration of the report in the matter of the Louisville Presbytery.

The Assembly adjourned, with prayer by the Rev. C. A. Munn.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 3½ o'clock.

The Assembly was opened with prayer by the Rev. James Gardner.

Dr. Hand moved that after the gentleman now occupying the floor shall have finished, some member of the House who has signed the "Declaration and Testimony," be fully heard, after which each speech shall be limited to fifteen minutes, and that the vote on this business be taken at six o'clock this afternoon. The motion was carried.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that they have given leave to the following, viz.,

Ministers—J. H. Barnard after this morning, J. T. Umsted after to-morrow morning. Ruling Elders—Wm. L. Terhune and J. D. Sharon after the sessions of to-day, and Thomas Muir after the session of to-morrow morning. The report was approved.

The Assembly took up the unfinished business of the forenoon, viz., the consideration of the report on the matter of the Louisville Presbytery, Dr. Boardman having the floor.

On motion of Dr. F. T. Brown, the motion to take the vote on this busisiness at 6 P. M., was reconsidered, and it was determined to take the vote at 11 A. M., to-morrow, the speakers to be limited to fifteen minutes each, except such of the signers of the "Declaration and Testimony" as may desire to speak.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That when the Assembly adjourn, it be to meet at 8 o'clock this evening.

The Assembly adjourned, with prayer by the Rev. George F. Cain.

THURSDAY Evening, 8 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and opened with prayer by ruling elder James Blake.

The unfinished business was taken up, viz., the consideration of the report on the Louisville Presbytery, the Rev. T. M. Cunningham having the floor.

The Assembly adjourned, with prayer by the Rev. Sidney G. Law.

FRIDAY Morning, June 1, 8½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and after half an hour spent in devotional exercises, was opened with prayer by the Rev. William Bishop.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The unfinished business of last evening was taken up. viz., the consideration of the report concerning the Louisville Presbytery, Dr. Yantis having the floor.

Mr. Day presented a paper, and moved its adoption as a substitute for the paper offered by Dr. Gurley on Wednesday afternoon last. The motion of Mr. Day was laid upon the table.

Dr. Thomas moved to lay upon the table the resolutions of the report, and the amendment of Dr. Humphrey. Carried.

Dr. Boardman moved to postpone the resolutions offered by Dr. Gurley in order to the adoption of a paper offered by him. The motion was laid upon the table.

Declined to vote, J. H. Brookes.—1.

So the paper of Dr. Gurley was adopted and is as follows:

1. Resolved, That this General Assembly does hereby condemn the Declaration and Testimony as a slander against the Church, schismatical in its character and aims, and its adoption by any of our church courts as an act of rebellion against the authority of the General Assembly.

2. Resolved, That the whole subject contemplated in this report, including the report itself, be referred to the next General Assembly.

3. Resolved, That the signers of the "Declaration and Testimony," and the members of the Presbytery of Louisville who voted to adopt that paper, be summoned, and they are hereby summoned, to appear before the next General Assembly, to answer for what they have done in this matter, and that until their case is decided, they shall not be permitted to sit as members of any church court higher than the Session.

4. Resolved, That if any Presbytery shall disregard this action of the General Assembly, and at any meeting shall enroll, as entitled to a seat or seats in the body, one or more of the persons designated in the preceding resolution and summoned to appear before the next General Assembly, then that Presbytery shall ipso facto be dissolved, and its ministers and elders who adhere to this action of the Assembly are hereby authorized and directed, in such cases, to take charge of the Presbyterial Records, to retain the name, and exercise all the authority and functions of the original Presbytery, until the next meeting of the General Assembly.

5. Resolved, That Synods, at their next stated meetings, in making up their rolls, shall be guided and governed by this action of the General Assembly.

In support of this paper, Dr. Gurley read the following reasons for adopting it, which were ordered by the Assembly to be here inserted.

1. Because it condemns in strong, yet just and appropriate terms, the Declaration and Testimony, pronouncing it "a slander against the Church, schismatical in its character and aims;" which it manifestly is.

2. Because it declares the adoption of the Declaration and Testimony by any of our Church courts, to be an act of rebellion against the authority of the General Assembly; which it manifestly is.

3. Because it summons the signers of this Declaration and the members of the Presbytery of Louisville who voted for its adoption, to appear and answer for their conduct before the General Assembly, the body against whom they have offended, and the only body which, in the present circumstances of the Church, can properly and without embarrassment consider and adjudicate the case.

4. Because it summons them to appear before the next Assembly, thus giving them ample time for reflection, for repentance, and for making up their reply.

5. Because, in the mean time, it forbids their sitting in any church court higher than the Session—an abridgment of privilege which we are bound to make in fidelity to our erring brethren and to the peace of the Church.

6. Because it saves us from even the appearance of taking action in this case which is too summary and severe. Though we might lawfully dissolve the Presbytery of Louisville at this time, no such great or perilous exigency has arrived as makes such an extraordinary proceeding necessary—nor is it expedient. It is better for the Assembly, better for the Church, and better for all the interests in any way concerned in this case, that justice should be secured and administered in the ordinary way and by the ordinary methods.

7. I urge the adoption of this substitute, because it provides that in case any Presbytery shall disregard this action of the Assembly and permit the signers of the Declaration and Testimony or those who voted to approve it, to sit in the body as members, that act of rebellion, according to an authoritative declaration of the Assembly, dissolves the Presbytery, and causes its powers to pass at once into the hands of those who respect the highest Court of the Church, and are willing to submit to its authority.

8. Finally, in answer to the objection, that the General Assembly has no right to pass beyond the lower courts and deal with individuals, I would say, our Form of Government expressly gives to the General Assembly the power "of suppressing schismatical contentions and disputations;" and this clearly implies the power of dealing directly with the persons or parties who are engaged in such contentions and disputations.

Dr. Monfort moved that it be the sense of the Assembly that the above paper take effect at the close of the sessions of this Assembly, and that the signers of the "Declaration and Testimony" continue until then to occupy their seats.

On motion of Dr. F. T. Brown, the Rev. A. T. McGill, D.D., was requested to lead the Assembly in prayer for the blessing of God to attend the action just taken, which he did.

The Rev. A. P. Forman, Dr. Yantis, and others, gave notice of protests against the vote adopting the paper of Dr. Gurley.

Mr. Galloway moved that the papers of Dr. Humphrey, Mr. Day, and Dr. Boardman, be spread upon the Minutes, and that any persons who had preferred those papers be permitted to sign them.

The paper of Dr. Humphrey is as follows:

Be it Resolved, That the Declaration and Testimony adopted and published by the Presbytery of Louisville is, in the terms, spirit, and intent thereof, derogatory to the just authority of the General Assembly; hostile to the institutions of this Church; destructive to the peace of our people, and fruitful in schismatical contentions and disputations.

Wherefore, this General Assembly expresses its grave disapprobation of this proceeding of the Presbytery, as unbecoming in a lower judicatory of the Church.

The Assembly also enjoins upon the Presbytery to forbear whatever tends to further disturbances and agitation, to support the institutions of the Church, and especially to take such order at its next stated meeting as will show that it does not intend to defy the authority of the General Assembly, or to disparage the institutions of the Church.

Furthermore, the Assembly does hereby require the Presbytery of Louisville to appear by its Commissioners before the next General Assembly, on the second day of its sessions, to show what it has done or failed to do in these premises, and the next Assembly is requested to take up and issue the business.

Furthermore, the Assembly directs the other Presbyteries to confer with those ministers under their care who have signed the Declaration and Testimony, and to urge these brethren to disavow the intention of setting the authority of the General Assembly at defiance. These Presbyteries are also directed to report hereon in writing to the next Assembly. All this to the end that the whole Church may have quietness and repose.

Preferred by E. P. Humphrey,
D. W. Fisher,
O. Beatty.

The paper of Mr. Day is as follows:

Whereas, This General Assembly has had brought to its notice a certain paper called a "Declaration and Testimony," which it is alleged was adopted by the Louisville Presbytery, September 2, 1865, and which imports to be signed by ministers and ruling elders belonging to other Pres-byteries; and whereas, in the judgment of this General Assembly, the said paper is a most flagrant and unwarranted attack on the dignity and authority of the General Assembly, derogatory to its character, tending to bring odium and disrepute on the highest judicatory of the Church, and to increase agitation and alienation in the bosom of the Church, schismatical in effect, contumacious in spirit, unjust and untrue in its statements; now, therefore, this General Assembly, in defence of its authority, in the exercise of its high prerogative to suppress schismatical contentions and disputations, reproving, warning, and bearing testimony against error in doctrine and immorality in practice, and in the fulfilment of its sacred duty to secure the union, peace, and mutual confidence of all our churches, does Resolve,

1. That this General Assembly considers the alleged action of the Louisville Presbytery, and of the ministers and ruling elders who have signed, published, and disseminated the said paper called the "Declaration and Testimony," as worthy of the gravest censure of this body, and as an offence against the authority, peace, and harmony of the Church, and as a sin against the Lord Jesus Christ, the great Head of the Church.

2. That the Synod of Kentucky is hereby required, at its next meeting, to proceed in an orderly manner to try the Louisville Presbytery for the said alleged offence of adopting, publishing, and disseminating, the said "Declaration and Testimony," and that they by their Records at the next General Assembly do show what it has done in the premises.

3. That this Assembly does hereby require and enjoin on the said Louisville Presbytery to reconsider its action in adopting said "Declaration and Testimony," to cease from disseminating the same, and from all agitations and contentions which tend to disturb the peace and harmony of the Church, and to submit themselves to the lawful authority of the Church of Christ as exercised by the General Assembly, and that by their Commissioners they report their action in the premises to the next General Assembly.

4. That each and all the Presbyteries with whom any of the subscribers to said Declaration and Testimony are connected, are hereby required at their next meeting to proceed against such subscribers, and try them for said alleged acts in signing and giving publicity to said document, and if it is found that they have been guilty of offence in so doing, that each of said Presbyteries respectively do censure their conduct, and require such members to confess their error, and to cease from their agitations; and such Presbyteries are hereby required by their Commissioners to appear at the next General Assembly and report their action in the premises, and while such persons are under process as aforesaid, to suspend their privilege of deliberating and voting as members, until the process is finally issued; and it is further ordered that the members of said Presbyteries, who have not subscribed said "Declaration and Testimony," shall have the authority of such Presbyteries respectively, shall exercise its proper functions, and shall have charge of the Presbyterial Records and all property.

The paper of Dr. Boardman is as follows:

The attention of the General Assembly has been called to a pamphlet entitled, "A Declaration and Testimony," purporting to have been adopted by the Presbytery of Louisville, on the 2d day of September, 1865. This pamphlet contains various statements, which, if taken in their literal import, we regard as disrespectful to the General Assembly, pregnant with schism, and adapted to foster a spirit of insubordination throughout our bounds. The Assembly is unwilling to believe that the Presbytery of Louisville designs to place itself in an attitude of rebellion against the just authority which Christ has established in his Church, or that it will deliberately sanction the use of words and phrases which seem to set at defiance the higher judicatories of the Church. Willing to give the members of that Presbytery time for reflection, the Assembly contents itself, for the present, with admonishing them of their grievous error, and directing them to review their whole procedure in this matter, and to make a full report of their action in the premises to the Synod of Kentucky at its next stated session, and also to the next General Assembly.

The Synod of Kentucky is instructed to take such order in the case as may, in their judgment, best conduce to the purity and harmony of the Church, and the interests of true religion. And since this case has manifestly excited much feeling, and threatens to disturb still further the peace of our communion, we exhort all concerned to cultivate a spirit of forbearance and conciliation, to merge all private and personal aims in a paramount devotion to the interests of truth and righteousness, and humbly to invoke for themselves and the churches with which they are connected the healing, reviving, and sanctifying influences of the Holy Spirit.

The Committee on Theological Seminaries recommend the following resolutions:

1st. Resolved, That the thanks of the General Assembly are due, and are hereby tendered, to the Rev. Willis Lord, D.D., for the able and faithful manner in which he has discharged the duties of the Chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology, in addition to the regular duties of his own department, during the vacancy in that chair, in the Theological Seminary of the Northwest.

2d. Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Dr. Lord by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly.

On motion, it was ordered that a Committee be appointed to inform Dr. MacMaster of his appointment as a Professor in the Seminary of the Northwest. The Committee are the Rev. Thomas E. Thomas, D. D., the Rev. R. G. Thompson, and ruling elder John C. Grier.

The same Committee reported reports from several Delegates appointed by the last Assembly to visit other bodies, and recommended that all of them be approved, as follows:

The report from the Rev. I. N. Candee, D. D., delegate to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church; from the Rev. S. McC. Anderson, delegate to the Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church; from the Rev. M. W. Jacobus, D. D., and the Rev. Matthew Newkirk, delegates to sundry ecclesiastical bodies on the Continent of Europe; from the Rev. Samuel Steel, D. D., delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church; from the Rev. R. L. Stanton, D. D., delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church; and from the Rev. Milo J. Hickok, D. D., and ruling elder T. Charlton Henry, delegates to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church then sitting in Brooklyn, New York.

The report was adopted.

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by the Rev. J. P. Bringle.

FRIDAY Afternoon, 3½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. T. A. Bracken.

Mr. Kempshall offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That a Commission of nine persons, members of this Assembly, consisting of the following persons, viz., Rev. E. D. Yeomans, of the Synod of Buffalo; Rev. J. P. Safford, D. D., of the Synod of Indiana; Rev. W. H. Hornblower, D. D., of the Synod of New Jersey; Rev. D. V. Smock, of the Synod of Southern Iowa; Rev. Sydney G. Law, of the Synod of New York—Ministers; and George S. Green, of the Synod of New Jersey; J. M. Ray, of the Synod of Southern Indiana; A. M. McPherson, of the Synod of Missouri; and Henry Day, of the Synod of New York—Ruling Elders; be and is hereby appointed to hear the testimony and the appeal, case of the Rev. Samuel Boyd against the Synod of Wheeling, and to report to this General Assembly their opinion upon the merits of the case for its review and final action.

The Rev. T. A. Bracken offered a protest against the action of this Assembly in the matter of the elders of the Walnut Street Church of Louisville, Kentucky, which was read, and admitted to record, and is as follows:

PROTEST.

The undersigned do most respectfully and earnestly protest against the decision of this Assembly in regard to the Walnut Street Church, under the care of the Presbytery of Louisville, for the following reasons:

1st. This decision is in its nature and effect a judicial decision, made upon the report of a Committee, without the least regard to any of the forms of procedure laid down in the Book of Discipline, and as appears to us, in violation of every principle and requirement of the Form of Government of the Church. The case was not before the Assembly either upon complaint, appeal, reference, or review and control—in one or other of which ways only could it be regularly brought under their jurisdiction. The parties were never before the Assembly at all; the Presbytery could not be, because it had been previously excluded from the body. Nothing of the nature of evidence touching the matter involved, was heard by the Assembly. It was, therefore, impossible for the Assembly to know whether or not the ruling elders were, or were not, duly elected and ordained.

2d. The decision is, in our judgment, subversive of all the rights of all the lower courts, and of the private members of the Church. It breaks down all the safeguards of the Constitution, and lays prostrate at the feet of any casual majority of the General Assembly the Christian immunities and liberties of presbyteries, sessions, ministers, and people. No one can be safe under a government administered in such a manner. It must have the effect to give a license to the disorderly, and make victims of those who would endeavour to maintain the integrity of the constitution, and enforce, in a regular manner, the discipline of the Church. It sanctions the principle that the General Assembly, mero motu, may take up a case of discipline pending before a church session, and upon the ex parte petition of the party under trial, turn out the members of the court—put the accused in the place of the judges—and practically require the court to submit to the criminal; that when a question of privilege, and that, too, involving the vital question of the legality of an election and ordination to the eldership, is pending in a Presbytery, the General Assembly may interfere to decide that question, without having the parties whose claims are to be determined, before them, and whilst the Presbytery itself is precluded from the possibility of being heard; that when a Synod has appointed a committee to attend to business brought before it, and report to Synod, before that committee have had time to report, and therefore before their action can have become of binding force, or be subject to the review of the Assembly in any constitutional manner, the Assembly may, upon the ex parte report and recommendation of an ex parte committee, declare the acts and doings of the aforesaid committee of Synod to be final and binding, even to the extent of quashing process of discipline regularly instituted—practically constituting a new session, and setting aside one already existing.

3d. The charge against the Louisville Presbytery of having denied to one of these persons, at whose instigation this matter has been pressed upon this Assembly, a "seat in said Presbytery," and "with the apparent design of discrediting" his election and ordination as a ruling elder, contains a most injurious imputation upon the motives of that Presbytery, and that based upon an assertion of what we have reason to believe is contrary to fact. It appears from evidence, both printed and oral, that the Presbytery has not denied any one of these persons a seat in that body. That question is still under consideration by them, upon the report of a Committee, to whom the whole matter was referred, at the motion of the party claiming the right to a seat, and the Committee was composed of members of the Presbytery named by said party. This report was prepared with due diligence, and presented at the earliest possible moment; but it being impracticable for the Presbytery to continue longer in session at that time, and they having previously determined to hold an adjourned meeting, said report was laid over to that meeting, then to be fully considered and acted upon. So far, therefore, as the action of the Presbytery is to be taken as evidence of its design, it would seem to be apparent that they designed to do nothing hastily, or to the prejudice of the rights, ecclesiastical or civil, of any of the parties to this case.

4th. The plea of "necessity," under which this decision was pressed to a vote, is dangerous and delusive—no necessity existed for the intervention of the Assembly in this business, at this time, but such as the party urging the plea of necessity had himself created. That necessity consists, as is apparent from the paper adopted by the Assembly itself, in an anxiety to bring the decision thus obtained to bear upon and control the civil court, in a case now pending before that court, in which the said party is the plaintiff. And the Assembly have thus, both by their action and by the very terms of it, rendered it impossible to prevent the injurious impression that this venerable body has gone out of its way, and set aside the fundamental laws of the Church, and the essential forms of procedure, in order to reach a decision, with the express purpose of prejudicing the property-rights of one of the parties, in a case now under litigation. It is the Assembly, therefore, not the Presbytery, who, by their action, are imperilling the rights of the members of the congregation of the Walnut Street Church. Against the perversion of this high court of the Church to such a use, we do most earnestly and solemnly protest.

5th. The General Assembly has no power, under the vague pretext of "redressing grievances," or "by virtue of its authority and obligation to give advice and instruction in all cases submitted to them," upon a mere memorial or petition, to override the constitutional prerogatives of the lower courts—to confirm or reverse their decisions—to interfere with their proceedings, or to anticipate their action in matters regularly before them, and in which they have primary jurisdiction.

Dr. Krebs submitted an answer to the above Protest, which was adopted, and is as follows:

ANSWER.

In answer to the protest of Mr. Bracken and others, in the case of the Walnut Street Church of Louisville, the Assembly declare that the election of new ruling elders in that church was ordered by the Synod of Kentucky, on a review of the whole case, upon memorial from the congregation, and was conducted and consummated by the Committee appointed by the Synod with plenary powers, all of which is established by the attested records of the Synod of Kentucky, and of the Committee appointed by that Synod—the premises meeting all the circumstances and requirements of the case.

The Committee on Leave of Absence report that leave has been granted to the following, viz. Ministers—J. P. Bixley, G. D. Archibald, F. R. Morton, and Luther Littell, after the session of this morning; Charles L. Thompson, A. A. Dinsmore, and R. W. Allen, after the session of this evening. Ruling Elders—Samuel Galloway, J. H. McCampbell, J. J. Turner, H. Howard, W. P. Inskeep, D. C. Brown, Allen Chaney, Benjamin Baldwin, Thomas McKean, and H. A. Gillett, after the session of this morning; J. W. Scott, J. B. McKinley, and H. S. Banks, after the session of this evening.

The report was approved.

Mr. Blake presented the report of the Committee on Finance, which was accepted, adopted, and the accompanying papers were ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes. The report is as follows:

The Finance Committee, to whom was referred the accounts of the Treasurer of the General Assembly, respectfully report:

That they have carefully examined the report of the Treasurer, and compared in full all the statements and accounts with his general ledger, and find the same correct.

The amount received from all sources during the fiscal year ending May 1, 1866, was $59,711.08. Balance in the Treasury May 1, 1865, $12,382.24, making a total of $72,093.32.

The expenditures during the year have amounted to $57,837.96, leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer at the close of the year of $14,255.36.

Whole receipts and balance, ...	$72,093.32
Expenditures, ...	57,837.96
Balance,	$14,255.36

Accompanying the report of the Treasurer, were the following papers:

1. Abstract of receipts and payments.
2. Balance sheet of ledger.
3. Items composing cash balance.
4. Statements of income derived from investments.
5. Statement of permanent funds, showing balance uninvested.
6. Statement of investments held by the Trustees of the Assembly, amounting to $135,038.53, being an increase of $4,030.

The securities of the General Assembly, representing the above sum of $135,038.53, were not presented to the Committee, but the certificate of the Finance Committee of the Trustees was, and from this it appears that the sum of $135,038.53 is invested in various securities, all which are deemed good and sound. [See Tabular Statement of Investments.]

Mr. Symmes offered the following:

Resolved, That in thankful remembrance of that mercy which God has displayed towards his Church in times past in answering prayer, this Assembly would recommend the observance of the second week in January, 1867, including the first and second Sabbaths, as a week of prayer for such an outpouring of the Spirit of God upon all flesh as will speedily result in the conversion of the world. And the Assembly would exhort the people of all our churches to a general and earnest attendance upon prayer during that period.

The resolution was adopted.

The order of the day was taken up, viz., the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions, when the Rev. T. L. Janeway, D. D., Secretary of the Board, by invitation, addressed the Assembly.

Dr. Krebs moved to strike out all that part of the report which proposes the removal of the seat of the Board to Cincinnati, with all the provisions dependent on such removal, except the requirement to revise the plan of the Board with a view to its greater efficiency.

Dr. Monfort moved to amend, by referring to the next General Assembly all that part of the report relating to the removal of the Board to Cincinnati.

Rev. J. G. Symmes moved to lay the amendment of Dr. Monfort on the table. Carried.

Dr. Gurley moved to amend Dr. Krebs' resolution by referring the whole subject of the removal of the Board to a Committee of five, who shall report thereon to the next Assembly.

Dr. Gurley's amendment was carried.

The Committee are the Rev. Drs. Gurley and Thomas, and the Rev. J. Addison Henry, and ruling elders A. E. Chamberlain and R. McKnight.

Dr. Krebs' resolution, as thus amended, was adopted.

The consideration of that portion of the report relating to the Freedmen's Committee was postponed until the report of the Standing Committee on the Freedmen's Committee shall have been considered.

Mr. H. K. Clarke moved, and it was carried, that wherever the words "Board of Home Missions" occur in the report, the words "Board of Domestic Missions" be inserted in their place.

The third and fifth resolutions of the report were then adopted.

After several verbal amendments in the report had been adopted, the whole paper as thus amended, except the portions referred and postponed, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee, to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Board of Domestic Missions, respectfully present to the General Assembly the result of their inquiries into the great interest intrusted to their consideration.

This sixty-fourth Report suggests reflections and awakens emotions of a mingled character. On the one hand, it occasions gratitude to God that he has given us such an agency for spreading the glorious gospel throughout our country; that he has permitted it to reach the sixty-fourth year of its operations; that he has allowed us so large a measure of success in the prosecution of our work; and especially that he has graciously revived many of our mission churches.

The Board, its officers, and missionaries, seem to have discharged their duty according to the standard of former years. To the 338 missionaries in commission in March, 1865, 201 co-labourers have been added; making the whole number of domestic missionaries 539; or 36 more than in the former year. These missionaries supply nearly 800 churches, or mission stations; embracing 22,500 communicants; of whom 2330 were added during the year by letter, and 1602 on examination; 379 Sabbath-schools are connected with these churches, including 3260 teachers, and 23,000 scholars. The aggregate receipts for the year are,

From church collections, . . .	$68,034 20
From legacies, ...	65,263 38
From individual donors, ...	10,993 76

or $20,915 16 above the receipts of any former year.

These facts afford matter of sincere thankfulness; yet, on the other hand, the aspect and results of our Domestic Missionary work, when compared with the ability of the Presbyterian Church, and with the singularly inviting and important fields which Divine Providence has called her to occupy, cannot but occasion sorrow and humiliation. This Sixty-fourth Annual Report exhibits the sad and shameful fact that our Church collections for so noble a cause amount only to the paltry sum of $68,000; that is, to an average contribution of twenty-nine cents (29) a member, per annum. If we add the almost $11,000 received from individual donors, the average is still but thirty-four cents a year for each communicant. Of the 2630 churches in our connection, 1208, or nearly one-half, contributed nothing to this Board during the last year. Well may the Report say, in view of such statistics, that the resources of our denomination are as yet very imperfectly developed.

Another surprising and painful fact is this, that of our 800 mission churches, or stations, fewer than half—379—report the existence of Sabbath-schools; and 45 of these churches report that they have made no contributions to any of our Boards. We may add in this connection, that the average increase of our mission churches, notwithstanding reported revivals, is lamentably small. The aggregate additions of the last year were 3932 communicants; 2330 on profession, and 1602 on certificate. Dividing these figures by 539 domestic missionaries, we have an average of seven persons brought into the Church by a year's labour of each missionary—four on profession, and three by transfer of membership.

This result, indeed, must be modified by another statement of like painful character; namely, that one hundred and forty-three of our missionaries, or considerably more than one-fourth of the whole number, send the Board no report whatever of their yearly labours. Surely this is an evil which demands a very prompt and decisive remedy.

The last Assembly directed special efforts to be made in behalf of the Freedmen, and to secure a footing among our seceded southern churches. The Board may have done all that was in its power in accordance with this direction; but the result is far from satisfactory. Thirteen missionaries are reported as commissioned during the year to labour in the South; whether among Freedmen, the white population, or both, this report does not enable us to say. Nine of them are employed in North Carolina, Tennessee, and Florida; two in Louisiana; two in Mississippi and Texas. Apparently, the only direct effort to reach our southern churches was made in Tennessee; but the attempt was a complete failure.

Your Committee therefore recommend,

1. That the Board be directed to revise our whole system of Domestic Missions, and devise and adopt such measures as shall redouble the efficiency of our operations.

2. We recommend, that during the coming year all the churches under the care of the General Assembly endeavour to raise for this Board a sum amounting to at least fifty cents for each member; and we most earnestly recommend that each pastor and stated supply shall not only see that an opportunity is afforded every member of his church to contribute, but that he also urge upon every member the duty of bearing his part.

On motion of Dr. Schenck, it was made the first order of the day for to-morrow morning to make nominations and elect members to fill vacancies in the Board of Domestic Missions.

The second order of the day was taken up, viz., the consideration of the report on the Freedmen's Committee.

On motion, the Rev. S. C. Logan, Secretary of that Committee, began to address the Assembly.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises reported arrangements for services on Sabbath next. The report was approved.

The Assembly adjourned, with prayer by ruling elder W. P. Van Rensselaer.

SATURDAY Morning, June 2, 8½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and after half an hour spent in devotional exercises, was opened with prayer by ruling elder A. E. Chamberlain.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

In the absence of Dr. Hickok, Temporary Clerk, through indisposition, the Rev. E. Kempshall was chosen to act in his place.

The Moderator announced the reception of letters from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, and from the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, which were referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

Dr. J. C. Lowrie, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported back Overture No. 7, which had been recommitted to it, and renewed the recommendation that the Presbytery of Missouri River be transferred from the Synod of Southern Iowa to the Synod of Kansas; and they further recommend that the Synods of Iowa and Southern Iowa should take into consideration the subject of union with each other.

On motion, this report was referred to the next General Assembly.

Also Overture No. 21, relating to an appeal of the Rev. L. R. Lockwood, presented by his counsel, the Rev. James Remington.

This appeal against the Synod of Iowa, for not sustaining his appeal from the Presbytery of Dubuque, was dismissed by the last Assembly, on the ground that no reason accompanied the complaint, and there was no evidence that any notice of complaint was given to the Synod. Mr. Lockwood now memorializes this Assembly, and alleges that the required notice of appeal was given to the Synod, and that he was then, and still is, prevented from attending the Assembly during its last and present sessions, and he asks that his appeal may be reinstated, and referred to the next Assembly for trial.

The Committee recommend that his request be granted. He further asks that the Assembly direct the Presbytery of Dubuque to grant him a new trial, on the ground of new testimony.

The Committee recommend that this application be referred to the Presbytery of Dubuque, to the end that if the new testimony be found of sufficient importance to justify, that Presbytery may afford Mr. Lockwood the relief he asks. But if, in their judgment, a new trial ought not to be granted, that then the appeal shall stand for trial on the record as now existing, before the next General Assembly.

The report was adopted.

Also Overture No. 22.

Resolved, That the Trustees of the General Assembly be, and they are hereby authorized to release all their interest in lot No. 3, block No. 26, in the city of Winona, in the State of Minnesota, on which is erected the church edifice now or lately occupied by the Presbyterian Church in that city; provided that a deed of trust shall be executed by the proper legal parties to the said Trustees of the General Assembly, vesting in them an interest in the property on which the new edifice for the use of said church shall be erected, with the same covenants and conditions expressed in the deed by which they now hold their interest in said lot No. 3, block No. 26, in the city of Winona.

The report was adopted.

Dr. F. T. Brown, from the Committee on the Narrative, presented the following paper which was adopted.

Whereas, The General Assembly of 1865 adopted the following resolution:

That in order to awaken the attention of the churches to the importance of the subject of manses, the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery be instructed to inquire, at the semi-annual meetings of the Presbytery, of each church under its care, what they have done in times past, what they are now doing, and what they propose to do, towards building a manse, thereby securing a comfortable home for their minister, therefore

Resolved, That the Presbyteries be enjoined to continue these inquiries, and that they appoint a committee to address a pastoral letter to the churches under their care, pressing upon the people the great importance and necessity of providing manses and libraries for their ministers.

A report was received from Dr. McGill, Stated Clerk of the Assembly, in reference to the decision of the Presbyteries respecting Courts of Appeal, which was recommitted.

The unfinished business of yesterday, viz., the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee upon the Freedmen's Committee, was resumed, and the Rev. S. C. Logan, Secretary of that Committee, concluded his address.

On motion, the Rev. Willis L. Miller of North Carolina was invited to address the Assembly, in reference to this subject, and did so.

The resolutions were taken up seriatim, and the first, second, and third resolutions of the report were adopted.

Dr. Humphrey offered the following as a fourth resolution.

Resolved, That this General Assembly, deferring to what appear to be the manifest indications of the will of Providence in the matter, assure the Southern churches and ministers lately in connection with us of our desire to assist and co-operate with them in any judicious measures for the spiritual good of their coloured population.

After discussion, it was laid on the table.

The Assembly adjourned, with prayer by the Rev. J. C. Edwards.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, 3½ o'clock.

The Assembly was opened with prayer by the Rev. John A. Campbell.

A memorial from the Rev. Samuel Boyd, a party in Judicial Case No. 3, remonstrating against the appointment of a Commission to hear and report on the testimony in that case, was received and read.

Dr. Yeomans, chairman of the Commission to hear and report on the evidence in Judicial Case No. 3, presented the report of that Commission, which was read.

Dr. Gurley moved that the recommendation of the Committee be adopted as the judgment of this Assembly.

Mr. H. K. Clarke moved to remit the case to the Presbytery of St. Clairsville, with directions to proceed in an orderly way to try the case.

Mr. McKnight moved to amend, by referring the case to the next Assembly.

The previous question was called for, and the call was sustained. Messrs. Anderson, Bringle, and McAfee, were excused from voting.

The main question was then put, and the motion of Dr. Gurley was adopted.

The report of the Commission is as follows:

The Commission of this Assembly, to whom was referred the appeal of the Rev. Samuel Boyd against the Synod of Wheeling, and to report to this General Assembly their opinion upon the merits of the case, do respectfully report, that before proceeding with the testimony the appellant appeared before them and made the following statement:

I decline pleading before this Commission on the following grounds:

1. That the appeal to the Assembly was mainly on the ground of no charge, and that the Assembly had under its consideration this part of the appeal, and had not yet decided that there was any charge, but, on the contrary, a motion was under the consideration of the Assembly to send the case back to the Presbytery on account of its informality and unconstitutionality.

2. That the motion to appoint a Commission was obtained at a moment of confusion in the Assembly, when many were not present; and the motion authorizes the Commission to hear the testimony. Now this was the point under discussion in the Assembly, whether any testimony could be heard, as it was yet undecided whether there was any charge.

3. The minute of authority to the Commission directs them to hear the testimony. This takes it for granted that there was a charge, and moreover, that this was decided by the Assembly, which was not done, but the Assembly would no doubt have made a decision in the farther progress of the case.

4. This hearing of testimony without a charge, is the repetition of what has been already done, and therefore the true ground of the appeal to the Assembly has not been decided by that body.

The main objection made by the appellant is that there were not written charges made against him as part of the process.

It appears from the testimony and records,

1. That Mr. Boyd was living separate from his wife on account of domestic difficulties between them—that this was brought to the notice of the St. Clairsville Presbytery by common fame—that Mr. Boyd by common fame was charged with unkindness and severity towards his wife—that he requested the Presbytery to take the case and investigate it, after an ineffectual attempt had been made by the Presbytery to settle the difficulty.

2. That witnesses were cited; that the trial was commenced by the Presbytery, Mr. Boyd being present; that the written charge on the records on which the trial proceeded was, "that common fame charges the Rev. Samuel Boyd with living in a state of separation from his wife;" that a number of witnesses were examined on the part of Mrs. Boyd, and in the presence of Mr. Boyd; that he cross-examined said witnesses; that Mr. Boyd also cited and examined a number of witnesses on his own behalf; that it nowhere appears on the records that he objected to proceeding without more formal charges.

The Commission are therefore of the opinion that Mr. Boyd waived, by his own acts, and led the Presbytery to believe that he waived, all informalities in the proceedings antecedent to the trial.

The Commission are also of the opinion that the record and the defence of Mr. Boyd show plainly what the charges were. They are also of the opinion that the testimony sustains fully the sentence of the Synod of Wheeling, which was unanimous.

The Commission are therefore of the opinion that the appeal should be dismissed, and the decision of the Synod of Wheeling confirmed. This report is agreed upon unanimously by the Commission.

Mr. H. K. Clarke and others presented and read a dissent from the action of the Assembly in this case, which was admitted to record, and is as follows:

DISSENT.

The undersigned dissent from the judgment of the Assembly in the appeal of the Rev. Samuel Boyd against the Synod of Wheeling, for the following reasons:

1. The only charge alleged by Common Fame against Mr. Boyd before the Presbytery of St. Clairsville is that he was "living separate from his wife." No specification of the character of this separation whether for sufficient reasons or not, or whether involving immorality or not, appears on the record; nor has any such specification been brought to the notice of this Assembly.

2. No evidence of the charge has been read in the presence of the Assembly. This court was therefore called to pronounce upon the issue of the guilt or innocence of Mr. Boyd in entire ignorance of the testimony by which that guilt or innocence may be determined.

3. The Book of Discipline prescribes the order of proceeding in the trial of appeals in judicial cases, chap. vii., section iii. and sub-sections viii. and ix. This order confers substantial rights upon parties, and prescribes specific duties to this court.

It requires the "reading of the whole record of the proceedings of the inferior judicatory in the case, including all the testimony"—to hear the original parties—to hear the members of the inferior judicatory—and that the roll of the court shall be called, that every member may have an opportunity to express his opinion in the case. The record has not been read; the original parties have not been heard; nor has any opportunity been offered for the purpose. The inferior judicatory has not been called, nor was the roll of this house called as required by the Book of Discipline.

For these reasons the undersigned dissent from the judgment in this case.

On motion of Mr. McKnight, all speeches hereafter to the end of the session, were limited to five minutes each, except in judicial cases.

The unfinished business of the forenoon was taken up, viz., the Report on the Freedmen's Committee, Dr. Thomas having the floor.

Resolution No. 1, of the second series, was referred to the next General Assembly. It is as follows:

That as soon as practicable, the work of the Assembly's Committee on Freedmen be transferred to the Board of Domestic Missions, with the special injunction that that Board give immediate and earnest attention to this department of labour, employing such additional executive force as may be necessary to render it efficient and successful.

Resolution No. 2, of the second series, was laid on the table.

Resolution No. 3, of the second series, was amended, and then adopted

Mr. Allison moved an addition to the report, with a list of nominations to fill vacancies. The addition was adopted, and the persons nominated were elected.

The whole report, as thus amended, was then adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the First Annual Report of the Assembly's Committee on Freedmen, respectfully submit the following report:

The minutes of the Committee and of the Executive Committee have been submitted for inspection, and with these, certain papers asking for the action of the Assembly. The minutes are full and well kept. The Committee have done a good work. They have raised funds to the amount of $25,000—have fifty-five missionaries in commission, over three thousand pupils in their schools, and over two thousand in Sabbath-schools. Their field of labour is one of paramount importance and of deep interest. The condition of those whom they seek to benefit is one of depression and dependence, and, in many instances, of deep degradation. If they are not to become a disturbing and dangerous element in society, they must be educated to take care of themselves. They must have the Bible, the school, and the gospel with all its purifying and elevating influences. They imploringly appeal to our sympathies, as the weaker to the stronger and wiser race. We cannot neglect them without guilt before God. They are immortal beings. We must do what we can to save them, or God may require their blood at our hands.

One of the papers referred to, relates to the occupancy of Zion Presbyterian Church in Charleston, South Carolina, under the adjudication of the Post Commander, and asks for the approval, or for instructions from the Assembly.

Your Committee recommend this answer: The General Assembly regard the avoidance, as far as possible, on the part of the Committee, of all unpleasant collision with the Southern churches, as wise and judicious, and inasmuch as the jurisdiction of the civil authorities has been reëstablished in South Carolina, the question as to the occupancy of said house in the future is a question of law, and must be left to the adjudication of the civil courts.

Two other papers are overtures referred to the Committee on Freedmen by the last Assembly, to be reported upon at the present Assembly.

The first of these overtures is from the Synod of Kansas, and has regard to the establishment of a chair of Biblical Instruction for the recognized ministers of the Freedmen. The Committee, in their report, state that an effort to give such a course of instruction had been made, but entirely failed.

Your Committee, therefore, recommend that nothing more be done in the case.

The second overture relates to the establishment of a "Memorial University," in honour of the fallen President.

Upon this the Committee report that, inasmuch as by an act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, the charter of the Ashmun Institute has been enlarged, and its name changed to that of Lincoln University, and as the institution is under the care of one of our own Presbyteries, no effort should be made to forestall it, or hinder its usefulness. In this judgment your Committee recommend the concurrence of the Assembly. The Committee, in their Annual Report, bring to the notice of the Assembly the establishment of the Freedmen's College of North Carolina—intended for the education of Freedmen, and for training a Calvinistic ministry for the coloured race. By the limitation of the charter, all the members of the Board of Trustees are required to be members of some branch of the Presbyterian Church. Your Committee recommend that the Rev. Willis L. Miller, of North Carolina, the General Agent of this institution, be heard by the Assembly in its behalf.

Upon the memorial referred to your Committee by the present Assembly, they report that it consists of a paper from the Rev. James Sinclair, of North Carolina, stating his suspension and excommunication, on political grounds, by the Presbytery of Fayetteville, and asking assistance for the people of colour; and also of a petition from some twenty-eight persons of colour in North Carolina, declaring their adherence to the Presbyterian Church, setting forth their grievous wrongs and persecutions, and asking the Assembly to assist them in securing for themselves and their children schools and the means of grace. Your Committee recommend that these papers be referred to the Assembly's Committee on Freedmen.

Your Committ e respectfully offer for adoption the following resolutions, viz.,

Resolved, 1. That the report be approved, and printed for circulation in all our churches.

Resolved, 2. That in the success which has attended the labours of the Committee, the General Assembly recognizes the good hand of God, and the tokens of his favour towards the four millions of human beings from whose necks He, in his wonder-working providence, has broken the yoke of bondage.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly commends this blessed cause to the sympathies, prayers, and benefactions of all our churches, and asks for their liberal contributions; that thus our people may share in the happiness of that "man that considereth the poor," and that upon them may come "the blessing of Him that was ready to perish."

Your Committee also offer for adoption the following paper, prepared at their request by the Rev. Dr. Reed:

Your Committee cordially bear testimony to the fidelity, zeal, and efficiency of the Assembly's Committee on Freedmen, and especially to the faithful and successful work of their Secretary during the past year. The thanks of this Assembly are due, and are hereby tendered to these brethren, for the successful prosecution of the work to the present time.

From no want of confidence in their ability to carry it forward, but on account of the great importance of simplifying, as far as possible, our benevolent operations, and ultimately reducing the number of appeals to our congregations for pecuniary contributions, and believing that this is a legitimate part of the work of one of our Boards—it being understood, also, that the change contemplated is favoured, or cordially acquiesced in by those who have heretofore had this matter in charge—the Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution, viz.,

Resolved, That in view of the magnitude and importance of the work among the Freedmen, and the immediate demand for the expenditure of large sums on their behalf, the Assembly renews the injunction that an annual collection be made for this specific object, and that the first Sabbath in October be designated for such collection, or such other time as may be convenient to the churches.

Resolved, further, That six members be added to the Committee, and that it be empowered to conduct its business by an Executive Committee.

The Committee nominate the following as the additional members: Ministers—E. E. Swift, S. F. Scovel, and John Gillespie. Ruling Elders—David Robinson, A. G. McCandless, and Robert C. Totten.

And for re-election the following persons, whose term of service expires during the sessions of the present Assembly: Ministers—W. M. Paxton, D. D., W. P. Breed, D. D., and J. O. Murray. Ruling Elders—S. Galloway, and W. Bakewell; A. B. Belknap in the place of James Lenox, resigned, and G. B. Lyon in place of R. McKnight, resigned.

That part of the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions relating to the Freedmen's Committee, which had been postponed, was then laid upon the table.

Dr. Patterson, from the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, presented a report containing nominations of delegates to various corresponding bodies.

The nominations were approved, and the report adopted as follows:

To the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, the Rev. E. P. Humphrey, D.D., of the Presbytery of Transylvania; Rev. M. J. Hickok, of the Presbytery of Luzerne; Rev. N. C. Burt, D.D., of the Presbytery of Cincinnati; Rev. Richard Lea, D.D., of the Presbytery of Ohio; ruling elder Alexander Cameron, of the Presbytery of Allegheny City.

The Assembly also commends these brethren to the Church confidence and fellowship of any other evangelical and ecclesiastical bodies whose sessions they may attend.

To the General Assembly of the other branch of the Presbyterian Church, the Rev. E. D. Yeomans, D.D., of the Presbytery of Rochester City; Rev. Duncan Kennedy, D.D., of the Presbytery of Troy; ruling elders W. P. Van Rensselaer, of the Presbytery of Connecticut; E. A. Raymond, of the Presbytery of Rochester.

To the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church, the Rev. John Hall, D.D., of the Presbytery of New Brunswick; Rev. Joseph Smith, D.D., of the Presbytery of Baltimore; ruling elder M. C. Grier, of the Presbytery of Northumberland.

To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, the Rev. R. C. Matthews, D.D., of the Presbytery of Warren; Rev. W. T. Findley, of the Presbytery of Miami; ruling elder George S. Green, of the Presbytery of New Brunswick.

To the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, the Rev. S. J. Wilson, D.D., of the Presbytery of Washington; Rev. D. R. Campbell, of the Presbytery of Steubenville; ruling elder S. D. Sharon, of the Presbytery of Miami.

To the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the Rev. A. O. Patterson, D.D., of the Presbytery of Oxford; Rev. James Sloan, D.D., of the Presbytery of Washington; ruling elder Josiah Scott, of the Presbytery of Oxford.

To the Associate Reformed Synod of New York, the Rev. E. D. Smith, D.D., of the Presbytery of New York; Rev. J. E. Rockwell, of the Presbytery of Nassau; ruling elder Alexander Cameron, of the Presbytery of Allegheny City.

Mr. Jagger, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that leave had been granted to the following, viz., Ministers—John Frothingham, D. J. Waller, J. G. Symmes, V. D. Reed, John Burrows, after the sessions of yesterday; and C. E. Robinson, after the session of this evening. Ruling Elders—William Blanchard, James Blake, L. T. Stowell, J. D. Reinboth, after the sessions of yesterday; and I. F. Vanarsdale, after the session of this morning.

The report was approved.

Mr. Farquhar, from the Special Committee on the Statistical Tables, presented a report, when, on motion, the whole subject was referred to the next General Assembly.

Dr. Thomas moved that a committee be appointed, of which the Moderator shall be chairman, to prepare a Pastoral Letter to the churches.

Carried.

On motion, the Moderator was requested to appoint the other members of the Committee. They are as follows: Drs. Gurley, Thomas, and Krebs, ministers; and George T. Green, James M. Ray, and Henry Day, ruling elders.

It was

Resolved, That when this Assembly adjourns this afternoon, it be to meet at 8½ o'clock on Monday morning.

Dr. W. E. Schenck offered the following paper:

Whereas, There is reason to believe that among the ministers and members of the Presbyterian Church in the South, there are many who disapproved of the late rebellion against the Government of the United States and of the separation of those churches from this body, and who did not of their own free will and consent lend their aid or countenance thereto, but bowed before what they believed to be an irresistible necessity; therefore,

Resolved, That this Assembly, without expressing any opinion in regard to the propriety of the course adopted by such persons, will still cherish a kindly and fraternal regard for them, and whenever any of them shall desire to return to their former connection with us, they will receive a cordial welcome.

And in regard to those who have voluntarily aided and countenanced the said rebellion and separation, this Assembly disclaims all vindictive feelings, and all disposition to exercise an undue severity, and reiterates its readiness to receive them back whenever they shall have complied with the conditions laid down by the last General Assembly on page 563 of its printed Minutes.

After discussion, the previous question was called for and sustained, when the main question was put, and the paper was adopted.

Dr. Thomas, Chairman of the Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions, reported the following persons to fill vacancies in that Board:

MINISTERS.	RULING ELDERS.
W. C. Anderson, D.D.,	S. Galloway,
J. Addison Henry,	J. L. Williams,
W. T. Findley,	James M. Ray,
R. L. Stanton, D.D.,	James Bateman,

J. E. Rockwell, D.D.,	John M. Harper,
V. D. Reed, D.D.,	H. D. Gregory,
P. O. Studdiford, D.D.,	C. Falconer, M.D.,

E. A. Mutchmore,
M. A. Hoge,
J. B. Spottswood, D.D.,
C. W. Shields, D.D.

The report was adopted, and the persons named were elected.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Wheeling reported, recommending their approval.

The report was adopted.

Dr. Krebs offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the paper presented by Dr. Gurley, containing reasons why the Assembly should pass the substitute by him proposed for the resolutions reported by the Committee on the Louisville Presbytery and for Dr. Humphrey's paper, and which was adopted, be approved, and printed in the Minutes in connection with the substitute adopted as aforesaid. [See page 61.]

Dr. Lowrie, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 23. Memorials from the Presbyteries of Washington, Donegal, New Lisbon, Redstone, and Southern Minnesota, and from Mr. S. E. Parsons, concerning the new book of chants, psalms, and hymns, with music, called "The Hymnal," mostly expressing opinions adverse to its adoption by the General Assembly, and some of them making valuable suggestions for its improvement.

The Committee make no recommendation concerning these memorials, inasmuch as the subject to which they refer has come before the General Assembly in another way.

The report was adopted.

Also, Overture No. 24, an inquiry concerning Synodical Correspondence, from the Rev. S. C. Jennings, D.D., by the Rev. F. J. Collier, in view of our Form of Government, chap. xii., sec. 5, which says, "To the General Assembly belongs the power—of corresponding with foreign churches, on such terms as may be agreed upon by the Assembly and the corresponding body;" and in view of the exception taken by the Assembly to the records of the Synod of Tennessee in 1827, p. 134; and as found recorded in full in the Assembly's Digest, p. 506,—has any Synod a right to institute a correspondence, by delegation, with the Synod of another denomination or branch of the church?

The Committee recommend as an answer to the particular question contained in this overture, that no legislation is necessary on the subject.

The report was adopted.

Also, Overture No. 25, memorials and papers from the Synods of New Jersey and Philadelphia; from the Presbyteries of Newton, Lewes, Northumberland, Oxford, Toledo, and Palmyra; from a Convention of Ministers and Ruling Elders which met in this city on the second evening previous to the meeting of the General Assembly; and from the Rev. Drs. T. L. Janeway and H. J. Van Dyke: all having reference to the deliverances of the General Assembly for the last five years on the rebellion and slavery, and to the relations of our Church with the ministers and churches in the Southern States formerly under the care of the General Assembly.

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following minute, viz.,

That the Memorial of the Convention be approved, and printed in the Appendix to the Minutes of the General Assembly.

As the General Assembly, at its present session, has considered substantially the matters embraced in said memorial, and expressed by its action its judgment, it is deemed unnecessary to suggest any additional measure for rebuking the spirit of rebellion against the authority of our highest Court in a few sections of our Church. The dissatisfaction and discontent consequent upon the deliverances of the Assembly of 1865 are abating with increased knowledge of the design and purport of those decisions, and it is confidently believed that maturer reflection will produce a fuller acquiescence in the authority of the Church. It is alike the past and present purpose of our Church, to preserve within its fold all who sincerely and earnestly love its order and doctrines, and to fan into life and energy every lingering spark of genuine attachment to our faith and order which may exist in those portions of our country where the spirit and unrelenting power of the rebellion drove many true and loyal Presbyterians into a hostile attitude towards the Church and country. With this enlarged and Christian view, it is appropriate to declare that whilst the testimonies and authority of our Church are to be obeyed, the fullest Christian liberty of opinion is tolerated and protected, and no enforcement of the deliverances of our Church is expected or demanded—except that which will debar from our communion and church courts all those who refuse to submit to the "powers that be," and remain in wilful antagonism to the manifestations of God's providence and the authoritative decisions of our Church.

The report was adopted.

Also, Overture No. 26, from the Synods of Northern Indiana, and Wheeling; and the Presbyteries of Madison, Lewes, Lake, and Monmouth, respecting the removal of the Board of Domestic Missions.

The Committee recommend that inasmuch as a Committee has already been appointed to report to the next Assembly on this subject, no further action is necessary.

The report was adopted.

Also, Overture No. 27, a request of the Board of Church Extension, that the Trustees of the General Assembly be required to take charge of certain deeds, mortgages, &c.

The Committee recommend that the Assembly adopt the following resolution, viz.

Resolved, That the "Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America" are hereby authorized and required to accept and take charge of any estate, real or personal, which may be granted, conveyed, or assigned to said Trustees, at the request of the Board of Church Extension of this Church; and whenever the said Board of Church Extension shall request the said Trustees to grant, convey, or release, any right, title, or interest in any estate, real or personal, which has been, or may hereafter be, vested in said Trustees, by reason of or in consideration of any grant or appropriation made by said Board in aid of the erection of any church edifice, then the said Trustees shall make such grant, conveyance, or release, to such parties, and upon such condition or conditions as the said Board of Church Extension shall by resolution direct; provided, that the covenants contained in any such grant, conveyance, or release, so executed by said Trustees, shall be such only as said Trustees shall approve.

The report was adopted.

Dr. Joseph T. Smith offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the members of the next General Assembly, to convene in Cincinnati, be requested to meet in the Central Presbyterian Church of that city, on the evening previous to the meeting of the Assembly, and that the evening and morning preceding the opening be spent in devotional exercises.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises reported arrangements for services on the coming Sabbath, which were approved.

The Assembly adjourned, with prayer by the Rev. R. F. Patterson.

MONDAY Morning, June 4, 8½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and after spending half an hour in devotional exercises, was opened with prayer by the Rev. J. Allison.

The minutes of Saturday were read and approved.

The Moderator, as Chairman of the Committee appointed to prepare a Pastoral Letter to the churches, reported and read such a letter.

On a motion to adopt, the yeas and nays were called with the following result:

So the pastoral letter was adopted, and is as follows:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in session in St. Louis, Missouri, A. D., 1866, to the churches and people under its care.

Beloved Brethren—Under a sense of the solemn responsibilities which rest upon us as ministers and elders composing this highest judicatory of the Presbyterian Church, we greet you in the bonds of Christian fellowship. The circumstances under which we are met, the state of the church at large which we represent, the important business which has come before us, the results which we have reached, and the duty we owe to all the churches and people under our care, as well as to the world without, combine to render it incumbent on us, at the close of an Assembly whose sessions have been unusually protracted, to lay before you our views upon certain matters of great moment to the welfare of Christ's kingdom.

The position of the Presbyterian Church towards our brethren in the South who were formerly in the same ecclesiastical connection with us, is one of the subjects demanding special attention. That position has been misapprehended by some, and by others perverted.

The General Assembly of 1865 met a few weeks after the last battles of a gigantic civil war, which had continued four years. That war originated in rebellion against the government of the United States. During its progress, the Church of our fathers became divided, and in December, 1861, some ten Synods and forty-four Presbyteries, with the churches under their care, organized a separate church under another General Assembly. Four General Assemblies—namely, those of 1861, 1862, 1863, and 1864—had deliberately and solemnly pronounced this rebellion a heinous offence, in the light of both human and Divine law, and had enjoined upon the people under their care the duty of upholding the government against which the rebellion was waged. When, therefore, the Assembly of 1865 convened, recognizing these doctrines upon rebellion and loyalty as true, and recognizing the well-known fact that many persons lately of our ecclesiastical household, some of them ministers and elders, had been prominently concerned in instigating and aiding the rebellion, that body simply designed to apply, as a logical and righteous necessity, the principles laid down by the four preceding Assemblies. As they had successively declared the rebellion to be a sin and gross offence, the last Assembly made provision that those in the Southern church who had been guilty of willingly aiding the rebellion, should acknowledge their sin and profess repentance as a condition precedent, provided they should wish to return to their former relations with us. It is impossible to see what could have been done less than this, without, on the one hand, totally ignoring the solemn deliverances of the four previous Assemblies, and in effect treating their doctrines upon the rebellion and loyalty as erroneous; or, on the other hand, while admitting these doctrines to be true, allowing the men who had been guilty of setting them at nought to come back into our fellowship without inquiry into their conduct, and thus making us partakers of their sins.

We regard it as completely within the province of the General Assembly to make these provisions. Rebellion against lawful civil authority is a gross sin by the word of God, and is so declared, in terms, by our standards. These standards also make it the duty of the General Assembly to "bear testimony against error in doctrine and immorality in practice, in any church, presbytery, or synod." Four Assemblies had borne testimony against the "immorality" of the rebellion; the fifth simply enjoined upon Sessions, Presbyteries, and Synods, the duty of requiring repentance of the "immorality," in any who might apply for admission who had willingly aided the rebellion. In this, the last Assembly but called the attention of the lower courts to what was their obvious duty, without any injunction; but such injunction became necessary for two reasons; first, because some Presbyteries were in doubt as to their duty, and had overtured that Assembly for direction; and, secondly, because it was feared that in some portions of the Church the lower courts would not act, except under an express injunction of the Assembly. Beyond this, it was manifestly essential that there should be a uniform rule of procedure for all the courts, touching the offence of rebellion, applicable to all who should apply for admission from the Southern church. Such rule the last Assembly provided. In this provision there was nothing new. It was but a direction to deal with gross offenders, should they seek to join the church from which they had separated. If they should not make application, they would not be disturbed. Not only our standards, but those of every church in Christendom, deem rebellion against lawful authority an offence cognizable by church courts. The Presbyterian Church of Scotland has many times deposed from the ministry those who have been guilty of rebellion; and it was the unanimous opinion of the members of the General Assembly of our Church in 1864, that disloyalty to "the powers that be," in our civil war was an ecclesiastical offence. It is thus too clear to admit of doubt, that the Assembly of 1865 was not only fully competent to make the provisions in question, but that, had it failed to do so, it would have fallen short of its duty. The only feature in these provisions which can be called new, arises from the fact that the Presbyterian Church in this country had never before been called to deal with such an offence.

While, therefore, the last Assembly but fulfilled its duty in issuing these injunctions, it left their application to the persons concerned, entirely to the lower courts. In its directions to them, it showed that it was actuated by conciliation and kindness. It "gave counsel to the several church courts," that, in "discharging the duties enjoined, due regard be paid to the circumstances of the case, and that justice be tempered with mercy." It directed that "tenderness" should be exercised especially towards the young, who had been led astray by "unprincipled and ambitious leaders;" and it expressed the hope, that "by kind and faithful instruction and admonition, and by the presence of the Holy Spirit, most of them would be reclaimed from the error of their ways, and become loyal citizens and valuable members of the Church."

The injunctions and counsels of the last Assembly were thus kind and fraternal towards those who were guilty of having willingly aided the rebellion. Any concession touching the offences of such persons would have been the height of unkindness. It would have been a connivance at their sin, and would have brought down upon them, and upon us alike, the displeasure of God.

In regard to our brethren throughout the South who did not aid the rebellion, or who aided it from the force of circumstances, or under protest of conscience, the General Assembly has ever felt the deepest concern. That of 1862 spake to such, as follows: "To those in like circumstances who are not chargeable with the sins which have brought such calamities upon the land, but who have chosen, in the exercise of their Christian liberty, to stand in their lot and suffer, we address words of affectionate sympathy, praying God to bring them off conquerors. To those in like circumstances, who have taken their lives in their hands, and risked all for their country and for conscience' sake, we say, we love such with all our hearts, and bless God such witnesses were found in the time of thick darkness." The Assembly of 1863 thus said to the same class: "We tender our kind sympathies to those who are overtaken by troubles they could not avoid, and who mourn and weep in secret places, not unseen by the Father's eye." The present Assembly, in a paper adopted with entire unanimity, says of the same persons, that we "still cherish a kindly and fraternal regard for them, and whenever any of them shall desire to return to their former connection with us, they will receive a cordial welcome." And the present Assembly further says: "In regard to those who have voluntarily aided and countenanced the said rebellion and separation, this Assembly disclaims all vindictive feelings, and all disposition to exercise an undue severity, and reiterates its readiness to receive them back whenever they shall have complied with the conditions laid down by the last General Assembly, on page 563 of its printed Minutes."

It thus appears that six General Assemblies in succession, including the present, have, with remarkable unanimity, maintained the same position concerning the rebellion, and concerning those engaged in it. After carefully reviewing the whole course of these years of strife and alienation, we find nothing to recall or modify in the deliverances which have been made. We have taken our position upon the clearest principles of the word of God, as set forth in our standards. We have aimed to reclaim offenders by demanding only what Christ requires of us as rulers in his house. We have repeatedly expressed our solemn judgment regarding their offences, but we have uniformly done it in faithfulness and kindness only, as our duty required. While to these our brethren, who have thus offended against the law of Christ, we would reiterate the language of the Assembly of 1862, and "earnestly address words of exhortation and rebuke," we still extend to them the hand of kindness, and desire that our former ecclesiastical fellowship may be restored, whenever it can be done upon those principles which six General Assemblies have announced. To form a union upon any other basis, would only serve to bring together those who could not act in harmony, and to perpetuate strife and alienation.

Another matter embraced in the acts of former Assemblies requires notice. We allude to the deliverances upon American negro slavery. Much misapprehension exists respecting the action of the last Assembly upon this subject. We may say, in passing, that from the origin of our Church in this country to the present moment, slavery, as it existed in the Southern States, has been, as a system, regarded with disapprobation. The higher judicatories of our Church, embracing many of its General Assemblies and Synods, have repeatedly condemned the system as contrary to the word of God, and fraught with evil to all classes in the church and the state. Some of the most severe of these condemnations were expressed in a formal manner by church courts, and by leading men in the Presbyterian church, within the States where the system existed; as, for example, in the Synod of Kentucky, as long ago as 1834 and 1835, when the system was not only condemned, but when the Presbyterians of that State were exhorted to seek its termination among them during the generation then commenced. Besides the condemnation of the system by several General Assemblies, many of these Assemblies, from the earliest times, earnestly exhorted the people to seek the entire removal of the system at the earliest practicable moment consistent with the interests of all concerned. When, therefore, the Assembly of 1864 met, three years of war had been waged against the United States Government, for the purpose of establishing an independent government, under which Southern slavery should have perpetual protection and unlimited expansion. The Government of the United States was putting forth its energies to maintain its existence, and the issue was trembling in the balance of fearful war. To give greater assurance to its efforts, the supreme executive authority had long before decreed the destruction of slavery in the States in rebellion, while some of the loyal slave States were themselves taking measures for the removal of the system; and thus the loyal masses were encouraged to believe that these measures promised success in their aims to maintain the Government and the integrity of the Union, under the great sacrifice of life and treasure which they were expending. What, then, could have been more natural and proper—in view of the frequently expressed desire of the General Assembly that the system of Southern slavery might be removed, and in view of the testimony of the three preceding Assemblies, upon the duty of sustaining the Government against the rebellion—than for the General Assembly of 1864, with a unanimity unprecedented, to interpret the signs of the times, (which the result has shown that it did correctly,) as calling upon the people to pray and labour for the anticipated consummation,

> "Which kings and prophets waited for,
> And sought, but never found," and which many of our fathers "desired long,"

> "But died without the sight," namely, the complete removal of slavery from the country, not only that this withering curse upon the people might cease, but that through its destruction the Government might be maintained? The Assembly of 1864 has not only been vindicated by the providence of God in thus attempting to "discern the signs of the times," but no deliverance of any General Assembly since the war began has been passed with so great unanimity, or has been more widely approved by the Church.

When the Assembly of 1865 convened, actual war indeed was over, but slavery still existed in some parts of the country; and as nothing but the military power had affected the system in the rebellious States, many persons, both North and South, believed that its legal existence throughout the South was as secure as ever, and some believed that it would be reinstated in all its power and extent.

This was the hope and prayer, and with many the expectation, among Presbyterians in some of the Border and in the Southern States, while it was well known that the leading men of the Presbyterian Church in the South still cherished the same views under which the people had been led into rebellion, that the system of Southern negro slavery was a "divine institution" as truly as was the Mosaic system of servitude, and was "an ordinance of God" in the "same category with marriage and civil government." Even as late as the year 1865, a person commissioned to this Assembly from the Presbytery of Louisville, published a work which has been extensively circulated and commended, both North and South, designed to justify and shelter the system of Southern slavery, "slave codes" and all, under the scriptural sanction of the Mosaic system of servitude.

It was under these circumstances that the Assembly of 1865 took its action upon slavery. That action has been greatly misrepresented. It has been frequently asserted in high places that it conflicts with previous testimonies of the General Assembly, which declares that slave-holding is not a bar to Christian communion. It is a sufficient reply to this, to say, that the action of the last Assembly conflicts with no former testimony; nor does it make the remotest allusion to slave-holding being, or not being, a bar to Christian communion. The main points of its action upon slavery —indeed the only points referring to those who may apply for reception into our Church from the churches of the South—are, that such applicants shall renounce the errors, which assert "that the system of negro slavery in the South is a divine institution," that it is "an ordinance of God" in the sense above stated, and that "it is the peculiar mission of the Southern churches to conserve the institution of slavery" as it was maintained in the South. That these doctrines are not only heresy, but blasphemy, is plainly seen from the word of God; and if the General Assembly is not competent to declare them so—when "to the General Assembly belongs the power of deciding in all controversies respecting doctrine and discipline, of reproving, warning, or bearing testimony against error in doctrine or immorality, in any church, Presbytery, or Synod"—then it is not competent to interpret the word of God on any subject whatever.

It is thus evident that the position of the last Assembly upon slavery is impregnable. It in no way contradicts any former deliverance. It is indeed admitted that it demands a renunciation of errors on that subject which no former deliverance required; but this is justified from the consideration that until the late rebellion these errors were comparatively harmless. They were held as mere opinions with which the Church did not choose to interfere; tenets which excited amazement rather than alarm. But when they had been sown broadcast over the South, and like the fabled dragon's teeth had brought forth myriads of armed men, and when the question was, how to deal with those who had led the van in publishing opinions whose legitimate consequence was to fill the land with blood—provided they should seek admission into the Church they had left in the interest of these heresies—then that Assembly had the right, and it was clearly its duty, to require a renunciation of these gross errors, as truly as to demand repentance of the terrible crimes which they had so naturally begotten.

It has been often said, and even reiterated upon the floor of the present Assembly, that it is upon the General Assembly of 1865 rather than upon a small class of men in the Church, that the responsibility rests for reviving this dead issue of slavery. But when that Assembly met, slavery was not a dead issue. As before remarked, it legally existed in some parts of the country, and its legal extinction in the rebellious States was denied by some of the ablest jurists in all parts of the land. Since then, however, the system has been fully terminated throughout the entire country by an amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Had this been the case when the last Assembly met, it is possible that no action would have been taken upon the subject. But be this as it may, there are manifest reasons why that action should stand. The tenets which that action condemned, and a renunciation of which it demanded, are both heretical and blasphemous. It is essential to the honour of our common Christianity that they should be renounced, in those coming to us from the South who hold them, both for the truth's sake, and for the sake of the evil they have wrought in the land. Their renunciation should also be required by reason of their possible influence hereafter. What that influence may be no mortal can tell. When men embrace and hold such doctrines with the tenacity of religious convictions, and when they illustrate their sincerity in holding them during four years upon a hundred hard-fought battle-fields, it need surprise no one who is acquainted with human nature and human history, if similar illustrations of sincerity and valour shall be again exhibited upon a fitting opportunity. These opinions have once enkindled the fires of revolution, to the surprise of all mankind, under the best popular government of the world. Whether they will ever do it again, none but God can tell. All this is worthy of the more grave consideration, in the light of the Pastoral Letter put forth by the General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church, sitting in Macon, Georgia, in December last. That Letter says of the Southern system of slavery, that "the lawfulness of the relation, as a question of social morality, and of scriptural truth, has lost nothing of its importance;" and that Assembly fervently thanks God, as set forth in that Pastoral Letter, that it had nothing to do with the emancipation of the slaves, saying, "that it may hold up its hands before heaven and earth, washed of the tremendous responsibility involved in this change in the condition of four millions of bond-servants, and for which it has hitherto been generally conceded they were unprepared." When such sentiments are put forth by the General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church, at this time of day, after the tremendous judgments of God have overthrown the system, it is too clear to admit of argument, that we have no occasion at present to abate one jot or tittle of the action of the last General Assembly touching its demands upon slavery.

Upon both branches of the deliverances of the last Assembly—loyalty and freedom—we therefore arrive at the same conclusion, that they should be maintained in their integrity.

One other topic demands our consideration. In consequence of the rebellion and slavery, and of the deliverances of the five preceding Assemblies thereupon, one Presbytery in the Church, and some one hundred or more ministers and elders, have set themselves up against these deliverances, by ecclesiastical action or formal organization, and have published their schismatical doctrines to the world. The disapprobation by ministers and members of the acts of the General Assembly, when expressed in proper terms and spirit, and with due acknowledgment of subordination to its authority, is a right which belongs to every one under its jurisdiction. The General Assembly claims no infallibility. But it possesses a clear authority derived from the Lord Jesus Christ, and its acts resulting from such authority are to be respected. No combination of ministers or members may properly be formed, within the bosom of the Presbyterian Church, for the purpose of openly resisting the authority of the General Assembly, and of setting at nought and contemning its solemn decisions, while the individuals composing such combination still claim all the rights and privileges of ministers and members; much less may any lower court of the Church thus repudiate the Assembly's authority, and still claim and exercise all the powers of a court in good standing. The principle which would admit this, would prove destructive to any government, secular or religious, for it is the essence of anarchy. Notwithstanding this, several Presbyteries have openly declared that they will not regard the Assembly's authority, especially the acts of the last Assembly concerning the terms of receiving ministers and members from the Southern Presbyterian Church. We trust that upon further reflection they will reconsider such action, and again show a proper subordination. One Presbytery, however, that of Louisville, in the Synod of Kentucky, adopted a paper in September last, called a "Declaration and Testimony," &c., which arrays itself against all the deliverances of the five Assemblies from 1861 to 1865, enacted upon slavery and the rebellion. This paper has been signed by certain ministers and ruling elders in other Presbyteries and Synods, chiefly in the Synod of Missouri. The present Assembly felt called upon to take decisive action in the premises. This paper exhibits organized rebellion and schism within the bosom of the Church, whose design is to resist the authority of the General Assembly. It pronounces the last five Assemblies guilty of heresy, schism, and virtual apostacy. Such an organization, with such aims, bringing such charges, and animated by such a spirit as the said paper exhibits, the Assembly could not overlook. The simple question presented was, whether a single subordinate court, with such individuals of other Presbyteries as might join it, should be allowed to carry on its schismatical and rebellious schemes with impunity, and still claim and exercise all the rights of a court, and the individuals concerned have all the rights of office-bearers in the Church accorded to them, while openly defying the General Assembly, or whether the Assembly, which represents the whole Church, should require due subordination and respect to its authority. The signers of the said paper openly avow their determination to continue agitation against the solemn acts of the last five Assemblies, until they shall bring the Church, through action of the General Assembly, to their views; or, failing in this, they declare that they may feel called upon to abandon the Church.

In this posture of affairs, the Assembly could not hesitate in its duty. It censured all the persons who have signed the "Declaration and Testimony," deprived them of the right to sit in any church court above the session, and cited them to the bar of the next General Assembly. This measure was clearly justified, and was demanded for the purity, peace, and order of the Church.

We have now, beloved brethren, set before you a few of the important matters which have engaged the attention of the General Assembly at its present sessions. It is cause for lamentation that while the country has passed triumphantly through the war, and the Government and the Union have been preserved, that the Church should still be troubled with questions which have grown out of the civil strife. We trust the day is not distant when these dregs of rebellion shall be purged from the Church, and when it shall stand forth as a compact body, in purity, righteousness, and peace. To this end we exhort you to labour and pray, as God shall give you grace. And may the blessing of God rest upon you, the presence of Christ sustain you, and the Holy Spirit richly dwell within you.

Dr. Krebs offered the following as an addition to the Pastoral Letter, which was adopted:

In regard to the deliverances of the last and five preceding Assemblies, as well as this, and especially the requisitions to examine applicants from the South touching their views of slavery and rebellion, the Assembly would observe, that although the war is over, secession effectively quashed, and slavery abolished,—yet in view of the spirit of these dead issues which, it must be admitted, still survives, rampant and rebellious, perhaps more virulently in the religious form than elsewhere, it was necessary to guard the Church from being disturbed by this element, which has asserted itself so rebelliously, and continues to be so vehemently proclaimed, and therefore to require satisfactory evidence of the practical repudiation of these heresies.

Nor does the Assembly deem it needless to observe, that while manifestly the views put forth by these deliverances, and the views which it was proposed to elicit from applicants for admission to our churches and presbyteries, have regard only to those more recent opinions concerning the system of Southern slavery, out of which secession and the war grew for its perpetuation and extension, the Assembly considers that there is no contradiction between these latest expressions of the Assembly, needed by a new state of case, and the whole current of consistent deliverances on the subject of slavery, which the Church has from the beginning and all along uttered—especially from 1818 to 1846.

The Assembly in these things has desired to impose no new terms of communion; it has but pointed out the appropriate treatment of the rebellious and disobedient; and, in the language of no less an authority than the illustrious Calvin, it did but make "a genuine and simple application of the lex Dei to the times and manners for which it was designed." In this special application it has only, in the still further language of the great Reformer, "guarded against offences which are most expressly forbidden by the Lord," without "taking away one punctum of Christian liberty." Instit., lib. iv., cap. x., sec. iv. 21, 22.

And in regard to our deliverances on these subjects, the Assembly here contents itself, as sufficient, with declaring that it has but exercised the constitutional right and duty of the Assembly, which has been constantly exercised from the time of the fathers who made the constitution of our Church, to utter its sentiments, warnings, and exhortations, on all points and questions, which, while we are properly restrained from invading the jurisdiction of civil tribunals, do nevertheless belong to that class of things which we may handle, viz., those moral and religious questions, which, even although they may embrace points in which politics, whether in their larger or lesser sense, are involved, because they relate to civil and political affairs, are also questions of religious duty, and cannot be thrown out of the religious jurisdiction.

Dr. Gurley offered the following addition, which was also adopted:

It having come to the knowledge of this body that some of the ministers under our care are not able to subscribe to the recent testimonies of the General Assembly on the subjects of loyalty and freedom, and that some who have not signed or formally approved the Declaration and Testimony, do nevertheless hesitate to comply with the requirements of the last Assembly touching the reception of members from the South, known or supposed to have been in sympathy with the rebellion; therefore,

Resolved, That while we would treat such ministers with kindness and forbearance, and would by no means interfere with the full and free discussion on their part of the testimonies and requirements referred to, we deem it a solemn duty, which we owe to them and to the Church, to guard them against giving countenance in any way to declarations and movements which are defiant of the Assembly's authority, and schismatical in their tendency and aim, and we do earnestly exhort them in the name and for the sake of our common Lord and Master, to study and pursue the things which make for peace.

The Rev. F. J. Collier moved that the Board of Publication be instructed to print the Pastoral Letter, with the additions of Drs. Krebs and Gurley, just now adopted, in a pamphlet, for circulation among the churches.

Carried.

Dr. Krebs, from the Committee to examine the docket and digest the remaining business for action, reported various items of business, which were successively taken up.

Judicial Case No. 1, being that of Dr. R. J. Breckinridge, and others, against the Synod of Kentucky, was referred to the next General Assembly.

The Report of the Judicial Committee on Case No. 2, being the complaint of the Rev. S. J. Niccolls, and others, against the Synod of Missouri, was taken up, and, on motion of Dr. Van Dyke, the whole case was referred to the next Assembly.

The Rev. Dr. McGill, Stated Clerk, presented the following report, which was approved:

The Stated Clerk reports to the General Assembly, that the Overture on Courts of Appeal, referred by the last General Assembly to the Presbyteries, with instructions to report their decisions on it to this General Assembly, has not been adopted. According to his reckoning, it requires sixty-six Presbyteries to signify in writing their approbation of this change. But only the following nineteen have as yet communicated such a decision, viz., The Presbyteries of Bloomington, Burlington, California, Carlisle, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Kaskaskia, Lane, Miami, Muncie, Northumberland, Palestine, Passaic, Potomac, Sidney, Southern Minnesota, Schuyler, Topeka, and Troy. On the other hand, the following fifty-eight Presbyteries have communicated in writing their rejection of said overture, viz., Albany, Allegheny, Allegheny City, Baltimore, Beaver, Blairsville, Buffalo City, Bureau, Cedar, Chicago, Chillicothe, Clarion, Columbus, Donegal, Ebenezer, Elizabethtown, Erie, Fairfield, Genesee River, Huntingdon, Iowa, Leavenworth, Lewes, Long Island, Louisville, Luzerne, Marion, Maumee, Monmouth, Muhlenberg, Nassau, New Albany, New Brunswick, New Lisbon, Newton, New York, New York 2d, Ohio, Philadelphia, Philadelphia 2d, Philadelphia Central, Redstone, Raritan, Rochester, Rock River, South-western Missouri, St. Clairsville, St. Louis, Saline, Saltsburg, Steubenville, Toledo, Vincennes, Warren, Washington, West Jersey, West Lexington, and Western Reserve.

The Report of the Committee to prepare a Book of Psalms and Hymns was taken up, and Dr. Krebs offered a series of resolutions respecting the book entitled "The Hymnal," which had been prepared by the Committee.

Pending the consideration of these resolutions the Assembly adjourned, with prayer by the Rev. J. B. Davis.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, 3½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by ruling elder Isaac D. Jones.

Mr. Jagger, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported as follows:

The Committee on Leave of Absence report that leave has been granted to the following, viz., Ministers—James Fleming, J. Farquhar, and J. C. Lowrie, after the sessions of Saturday; S. R. House, J. P. Bringle, A. O. Patterson, R. J. Burtt, H. Armstrong, John Caruthers, James Gardner, J. W. Wightman, George Ainslie, D. W. Fisher, Sydney G. Law, and T. M. Cunningham, after the session of this morning. Ruling Elders—James H. Strawbridge, I. F. Vanarsdale, W. N. Belcher, Henry Day, and Robert McKnight, after the sessions of Saturday; Wm. Mason, J. S. McClellan, Wm. Curry, M. C. Grier, John C. Grier, and David Wills, after the session of this morning.

The report was approved.

Dr. West reported an answer to the protest of Dr. Van Dyke and others, against the action of the General Assembly in regard to the Commissioners from the Presbytery of Louisville. The protest and answer are as follows:

PROTEST.

We, the undersigned, respectfully protest against what we deem to be the mischievous and erroneous judgment of the General Assembly, in suspending the Commissioners from the Presbytery of Louisville, from the exercise of their rights and privileges as members of this body, for the following reasons:

1. By this act the Assembly has violated the fundamental principles of its own organization, and vitiated its own integrity as the highest judicatory of the Presbyterian Church. It is declared in chap. xii. of the Form of Government, that the General Assembly "shall represent in one body ALL the particular churches of this denomination;" and again, the General Assembly "shall consist of an equal delegation of bishops and elders from EACH Presbytery." It cannot be denied that at the time their representatives were excluded from the Assembly, the churches composing the Presbytery of Louisville were, and still are an integral part of the Presbyterian Church. And yet the Assembly, by a simple resolution, adopted under the operation of the previous question without debate, excluded these churches from all participation in its proceedings at a time when the business under consideration was of vital importance to the said churches. For such a course of action there is no warrant in the constitution, and no precedent in the history of the Church. The attempt to justify it by the usage of legislative and other political assemblies is, in the judgment of the undersigned, utterly futile: because, in the first place, there is no proper analogy between legislative bodies or other secular assemblies, acting under rules of human invention, and this court of Jesus Christ organized under, and bound by, the law of Christ as expounded in its own written constitution. And because, secondly, if such an analogy did exist, it has been violated in this case in the following essential particulars: (1.) By the action of its own Committee on Commissions, and the formal adoption of their report, the Assembly had already decided that the commissioners from the Presbytery of Louisville were entitled to their seats. (2.) In legislative and other secular assemblies, when the right of members to the seats they have obtained is contested, they are always allowed to retain their place in the body, and to participate in its proceedings, until the case is fully decided.

2. By this act the Assembly has virtually pronounced a judicial condemnation upon the Presbytery of Louisville, without observing any of the forms of trial so carefully prescribed by the constitution, and so essential to the due administration of justice. And in the opinion of the undersigned, this proceeding is rendered the more irregular and unjust, in view of the fact that by the operation of the previous question on the adoption of the resolution excluding them, the commissioners were denied a hearing before the Assembly, either in their own behalf, or in the behalf of the Presbytery they represent. And this disregard of judicial forms is further aggravated by the fact, that in the resolution excluding the commissioners from their seats, the Assembly endorsed unsustained public rumours against the ministerial character and standing of one of the said commissioners, and made these rumours thus endorsed, without any judicial proof, a ground of condemnation against the Presbytery.

3. The facts alleged against the Presbytery of Louisville do not involve any heresy or crime, nor justify the exclusion of the churches comprising said Presbytery from the fellowship of the church of Christ. Inasmuch as "all synods or councils, since the days of the apostles"—being composed of uninspired and fallible men—"may err, and many have erred," the right publicly to discuss, dispute, and protest against the deliverances of such synods and councils, belongs to every other ecclesiastical body, and to every, even the humblest, member of the church. This right has been exercised from the foundation of the church till the present time, and has never been disputed except by the Church of Rome. Moreover, the deliverances and orders of the General Assemblies, against which the Presbytery of Louisville have protested, and which they have refused to obey, not having been transmitted to the Presbyteries for their approbation (according to the requirement of the Form of Government, chap. xii. sec. vi.), are not "established as constitutional rules," neither are they "obligatory upon the churches." To exclude the churches of the Presbytery of Louisville from representation in this body for refusing to do that which, according to express provisions of the constitution, was not obligatory upon them, is, in the judgment of the undersigned, an unwarranted and alarming usurpation of power.

For the foregoing and other reasons, in the name of Jesus Christ, and by virtue of the right secured to them in the constitution, and in the discharge of their covenant obligations to study the purity and peace of the church, the undersigned do solemnly protest against this whole proceeding as being unconstitutional and revolutionary, as calculated to bring the lawful authority of this Assembly into contempt, to enkindle strife and produce alienation, and to defeat the end for which the Assembly was originally organized, viz., that it might "constitute the bond of union, peace, correspondence, and mutual confidence among all our churches."

ANSWER TO THE ABOVE PROTEST.

The paper upon which the General Assembly acted, in the exclusion of the Commissioners of the Louisville Presbytery from their seats in this body, until their case should be decided, indicates sufficiently the true ground of that action. It is no other than the constitutional right of the Assembly to protect its own dignity, and vindicate its own authority, as the supreme tribunal of our Church, in view of open insult to that dignity, and open defiance of that authority, by an inferior court subject to its jurisdiction.

1. The argument of the protestants, that the Assembly has, by this action, violated the fundamental law of its organization, in this respect, that no Assembly can be constitutionally valid unless "all" the particular churches and presbyteries under its care are actually represented in the body, is an utter misinterpretation of the constitution, and the assertion of a principle that would vitiate the validity of nearly every meeting of the Assembly, and render the organization of any Assembly almost an impossibility. So conspicuous a fallacy as that of confounding the fundamental law and right of representation with the actual presence of the whole company of representatives themselves, needs only the simplest statement of the fallacy in order to furnish its own refutation, not to mention the various accompanying clauses of the fundamental law which evince its glaring absurdity. Form of Government, chap. xii. sec. iii.

2. In reply to the protestants' assertion that there is no warrant in the constitution, no precedent in the history of the Church, and no sufficient analogy to be found in any secular assemblies, for such exclusion, the General Assembly simply utters the counter assertion. The protestants, moreover, err greatly in supposing that the Assembly is organized by any "formal adoption" of a report of the Committee on Commissions, or that the ex-officio organization of the Assembly by the clerks of the House, as the ministerial officers of the Assembly, renders impossible any subsequent action of the Assembly in reference either to the commissioners themselves bearing formal certificates from their Presbyteries, or to the Presbyteries which are the electors of those commissioners. The power of the Assembly to determine claims of membership in its body, involves the power to decide whether the electors have, by any act, or acts, so far disqualified themselves as, pro tempore, to forfeit their right of representation in the supreme tribunal of the Church. McElroy's Report of the Presbyterian Church Case, 1839, p. 171; Assembly's Digest, revised ed., p. 726, § 126.

3. The protestants, moreover, utterly misrepresent the action of the Assembly in the exclusion of the Commissioners of the Louisville Presbytery, by denouncing it as a "judicial condemnation" of the "Presbytery" without a regular trial. So far from this being the case, the truth is that the action of the Assembly was only the suspension of the functions of the commissioners, interdicting their participation in the deliberations of this body until their case should be decided, in the consideration of which case the commissioners were not only allowed, but particularly invited, by formal vote, to appear, discuss the case, and defend the action of their Presbytery to the fullest extent. The allegation that the Assembly decided the case of the commissioners of the Louisville Presbytery merely upon public rumours, without competent proof, is entirely untrue.

4. It is unnecessary to enter upon any detailed denial of the protestation that the Louisville Presbytery has done nothing that can, by any possibility, justify the Assembly in the suspension of the privileges of the commissioners. The Presbytery, according to its own "Declaration and Testimony," is in admitted, open, and persistent defiance of the authority of the General Assembly, by its lifting up a standard of revolt in the Church, and by its call upon Presbyterians everywhere to send in "adhering acts," and thus engage in rebellious, heretical, and schismatical conduct, and so the Assembly has judged. In reference, also, to the doctrine, that no decrees and determinations of the General Assembly are of binding force upon the inferior judicatories, unless previously submitted to the Presbyteries and approved by a majority of the same, the Assembly declares that this is simply a violent wresting of chapter xii., § 6, Form of Government, from its historical connection and design, and in opposition not only to the usage of the Church in past days, but also to the careful decision of the whole matter as it emerged from the early and later controversies in the Church. Assembly's Digest, revised ed., pp. 49, 50, 116, 253–4, 303, 608, 615.

5. As to the right of protest by any individual or court in the Presbyterian Church, the Assembly fully recognizes the same. But it is utterly unendurable, as it is utterly unconstitutional, to prostitute or pervert the right of decent and respectful protest, to the ends intended by the Louisville Presbytery, to wit, to open rebellion against the authority of this body, to the propagation of a vast brood of fatal heresies, to bitter misrepresentation of the acts of the Assembly, and to the organization of conspiracies against the very existence of the Church itself.

6. The declaration of the protestants that by the Assembly's action the churches under the care of the Louisville Presbytery have been excluded "from the fellowship of the Church of Christ," is illegitimate, illogical, and gratuitous. There is not a particle of evidence to justify the implication that the Assembly deals with the churches, under its care, in precisely the same way in which it has dealt with the Louisville Presbytery. Should every minister of the Presbytery be not only suspended from his ecclesiastical functions, but deposed from the gospel ministry, the churches of the Presbytery would still remain in connection with, and under the care of the Assembly, until, by their own act of insubordination, they had rendered themselves obnoxious to the censures and judicial or legislative discipline of this supreme tribunal, and thereby been lawfully excluded from our communion, or had voluntarily withdrawn themselves to go elsewhere.

The Rev. Joel Stoneroad, chairman of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Missouri, presented a report, which was put upon the docket.

The resolutions of Dr. Krebs in relation to the Book of Psalms and Hymns reported by the Committee on that subject, were again taken up. After discussion, the previous question was called for, and the call sustained, when the main question was put, and the resolutions were adopted. They are as follows:

1. Resolved, That the Report be adopted, and printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

2. Resolved, That this General Assembly approve the Hymnal as published, and allow the same to be used in all our churches; but it is not required that it shall supersede the books in present use.

3. Resolved, That the Board of Publication be directed to publish also a cheaper edition of the book.

4. Resolved, That the Board be authorized at their discretion, in order to suit purchasers, to append the Shorter Catechism, the Form of Government, the Directory, the Book of Discipline, and the Rules of the General Assembly.

5. Resolved, That the Board of Publication keep on hand and publish sufficient copies of the existing Book of Psalms and Hymns for those who prefer to use it, or need it in connection with the Hymnal.

The complaint of Elijah Slack against the Synod of Cincinnati, referred to this Assembly from the last, was taken up, and referred to the next Assembly.

Judicial Case No. 4, being a complaint of Alexander Guy against the Synod of Cincinnati, was taken up.

The Judicial Committee recommended that the case be referred to the next General Assembly, and the Synod of Cincinnati be directed to send up to that Assembly all the records necessary for the adjudication of the case.

Carried.

The Chairman of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Kentucky presented a report, approving those Records with certain exceptions. The Rev. J. H. Clark, a member of the same Committee, presented a minority report.

The two reports were ordered to be placed on file, and referred to the next Assembly.

On motion of Dr. Krebs, it was Resolved, That a copy of the article written for the Ohio Statesman by the Rev. William M. Ferguson, reflecting upon the Hon. Samuel Galloway and this General Assembly, be procured by the Clerk, and kept on file among the papers of the Assembly.

It was

Resolved, That the expenses of the Committee of fifteen, on the subject of union with the other branch of the Presbyterian Church, be paid by the Board of Publication from the profits on its sales.

Also, that the expenses of the Committee appointed by this Assembly to revise the Book of Discipline be paid by the same Board, from the same source.

Overture No. 4, from the Presbytery of Passaic, having reference to the arrangement of the Synods and Presbyteries in the Statistical Tables, was taken from the docket and laid upon the table.

The Committee on Systematic Benevolence presented their Report, which was approved, and the resolutions appended thereto were adopted. They are as follows:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly would reiterate the deliverance of the Assembly of 1854 on the subject of Systematic Benevolence, and urge the great principles therein laid down for the serious consideration of both ministers and churches; and their attention is especially directed to the following points in that deliverance: (1.) Its decision, that giving is worship, and a Christian grace; and (2.) All that is there recommended in regard to monthly and weekly collections is part of the worship of the sanctuary.

Resolved, 2. That we enjoin upon all pastors and stated supplies, that they instruct the people of their several charges in the principles of Christian liberality; as they are found in the word of God, and interpreted in the standards of the Church, and the deliverances of the General Assembly.

Resolved, 3. That all our Presbyteries be enjoined to require of the churches under their care regular contributions to all the objects recommended by the General Assembly; and that they hold both ministers and churches to a strict compliance with their requirements in this matter.

Resolved, 4. That the children of the Church ought to be trained up to habits of Christian liberality, in the family, the church, and the Sabbath-school.

The Report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Missouri was taken up, when Mr. H. K. Clarke offered a substitute for the first exception thereof.

Pending the consideration of this substitute the Assembly adjourned, with prayer by the Rev. J. G. Reaser.

MONDAY Evening, 8 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Dr. J. T. Backus.

On motion of the Rev. J. Allison, it was Resolved, That the papers in the case of the Rev. James Sinclair, referred to the Committee on Freedmen, be transferred to the Board of Domestic Missions.

Dr. Gurley offered the following:

1. Resolved, That the Committee on the Hymnal be requested to prepare, and the Board of Publication be requested to publish, if possible, in the next edition of that book, additional hymns and psalms not exceeding three hundred in number, to the end that many hymns long dear to the Church, but not found in the Hymnal in its present form, may be supplied, and the Book made more complete and permanently satisfactory to our people.

2. Resolved, That the Board of Publication be requested to publish a smaller and more portable edition of the Hymnal, suited to the wants of the prayer-meeting and lecture-room.

These resolutions were referred to the Committee on the Hymnal.

Dr. Gurley was added to the Committee, which was directed to prepare a fuller index of subjects for the book.

The unfinished business of the afternoon was taken up, and the substitute of Mr. Clarke, for the first exception in the Report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Missouri, was adopted. It is as follows:

Resolved, That this Assembly does not approve the Records of the Synod of Missouri; that so much of said Records as attempt to declare null and void the previous action of the Synod, which had been formally approved by the Assembly, is an act of insubordination, which said Synod is hereby required to reconsider and reverse; that they report to the next Assembly what they have done or failed to do in the premises, and until that time the usual certificate of the Moderator be withheld.

The remaining portion of the Report was then adopted as follows:

On page 365, where the Synod reaffirm their testimony of November, 1861, with regard to the action of the Assembly of the same year, known as the Spring Resolutions—which testimony declares the action of that Assembly on the state of the country to be "unscriptural, unconstitutional, unwise, and unjust; of no binding force whatever on this Synod, or upon the members of the Presbyterian Church within our bounds."

The Committee also recommend that, besides excepting to the record as above stated, the repeated exhibition of such a rebellious spirit, on the part of any inferior court towards the supreme judicatory of the Church, should not pass without censure.

Judicial Case No. 6, being the complaint of John Crozier and John Mack against the Synod of Illinois, was taken up, and referred to the next Assembly.

Overture No. 18 was taken from the docket, and the Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures thereon was adopted. It is as follows:

This overture is an application from the Presbytery of Palmyra, asking that the General Assembly authorize the Trustees of Van Rensselaer Academy, located in Ralls county, Missouri, to sell and convey a certain piece of property, conveyed by Branch Hatcher and wife, in trust, and for these uses, "to enable Palmyra Presbytery to establish an academy for the education of youth in the county of Ralls, and State of Missouri, to be under the control and direction of the said Palmyra Presbytery; said academy to remain and for ever to be the property of the Old School General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America."

The Committee recommend that the Trustees make their application to the Board of Education of the General Assembly, which has appropriated funds for the benefit of said academy, and that our Board of Education submit the application, which involves so largely the rights and interests of the General Assembly as to the property specified, to the Trustees of this General Assembly. And it is further recommended, that the Trustees make the transfer solicited, in accordance with the trusts embraced in the deed of Hatcher and wife, if the Board of Education shall so advise and direct.

The Report on the Disabled Ministers' Fund, with Dr. Riggs' proposed amendments thereto, was taken from the docket. The amendments were adopted, after which the report, as thus amended, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the Report of the Trustees of the General Assembly in relation to the Disabled Ministers' Fund, would respectfully present the following:

Your Committee regret very much that the report gives no information in regard to the receipts and disbursements of this fund during the year, or the sources whence their income is derived, but yet from the exhibit that is made of the administration of relief to disabled ministers and their needy families, the Committee have reason to believe that there has been a gratifying increase in the Fund, and an efficient and judicious management of it.

During the past year somewhat over $22,000 have been distributed upon applications endorsed by Presbyteries, giving timely and much needed aid to forty-nine ministers, sixty-six widows, and five families of orphans, comprising among the recipients more than four hundred individuals.

There are no figures in which can be computed the value of the relief thus afforded to those who, by reason of age, or sickness, or bereavement, have been deprived of the means of support, and compelled to struggle with the cares of poverty when least able to do so.

Your Committee think that the claims of our disabled ministers, and their widows and orphans, cannot be too urgently pressed upon the attention of the Church, and they would hope that through the action of the Assembly, the coöperation of the Presbyteries, and the liberality of the people, such abundant contributions may be secured to this Fund, that this worthy but needy class of persons may be assured of ample provision in their time of need.

The Church owes a debt to its disabled ministers. They have voluntarily separated themselves from the lucrative employments of life, which ordinarily secure to men not only a subsistence for the present, but a provision for the future, and have given their best energies to the service of the Church in the care of souls, and while in that service, and rejoicing to do the work of the Lord, have been incapacitated by reason of age or sickness for further active service in their holy calling.

It is admitted on all hands that the half-pay or pension which the State bestows upon the faithful soldiers who have been disabled in its service, or upon the families of those who have laid down their lives at its behest, is only just. And certainly like justice requires that the Church should make similar provision for its faithful and devoted ministers who have become disabled in its service, and for the dependent families who have shared their devotion and their lot.

Your Committee feel furthermore that the provision thus secured to those who, with undivided aim, devote themselves and their all to the service of the Lord Jesus in the ministry, will be an important auxiliary in procuring a supply of ministers. It is an undoubted fact that many are deterred from entering the ministry by the prospect of an insufficient support during the years of toil in the service, and the certainty that with such insufficient support nothing can be provided against the time of old age, sickness, or death. The faith of many cannot bear this strain upon it. But by an adequate provision of this invaluable Fund, these gloomy apprehensions of the future will be banished, and one terrible obstacle in the way to entering upon the ministry be removed.

It must also have a happy effect in producing that cheerfulness and elasticity of spirit with which it is so important that the ministers of the gospel should pursue their work, when they are assured that the Church will care for them in old age and sickness, and for their destitute families after their death.

Your Committee would therefore hope that the interest already awakened in behalf of this branch of the Church's work may increase to the full measure of the necessity which led to the establishment of this Fund.

We recommend to the Assembly the following for adoption, viz.,

Resolved, 1. That it is a matter for devout thanksgiving to God that this branch of the beneficence of the Church has found so much favour in the hearts of God's people, and that they are thus so truly appreciating the claims of its aged and infirm labourers, and their needy families.

Resolved, 2. That the General Assembly rejoices to contemplate the comfort ministered from this Fund to those who, by reason of past faithful service, have established a righteous claim to a support from the Church, when by the act of Divine Providence they are laid aside from active labour; and to all such, to the aged and sick and infirm, and to the widows and orphans of such, the Assembly sends this expression of its sincere sympathy, and prays that God would incline the hearts of his people to devise still more liberal things for their comfort.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly urges upon all the churches a continued and increased liberality in their contributions to this Fund, not more as a beneficence truly charitable than as a beneficence truly just, as a debt due for faithful services rendered in caring for the most important interests of men.

Resolved, 4. That the Presbyteries be instructed to adopt such means as will bring this cause to the attention of all the churches, and they are also instructed to take especial pains to discover and present to the attention of the Committee on the Fund, the claims of all who are in need, and for whom the Church designs this provision; not only that there may be no misappropriation of the funds, but also that none who are entitled to aid be neglected and allowed to suffer for want of it.

Resolved, 5. That the Trustees be directed, in making their Annual Reports on this Fund, to present a detailed statement of their receipts and expenditures; such as is required from the other Boards of the church—showing specifically what amount of the income administered by them is from funds permanently invested; and what from contributions of the churches during the year; and also what amount is annually invested in permanent funds, and the state of such permanent funds.

Resolved, 6. That the report on this subject by the Trustees be appended to the Minutes of the Assembly, and be printed for the use of ministers and churches.

The amendments offered by Dr. C. C. Riggs, are as follows:

Whereas, This General Assembly recognizes the principle that the funds contributed for the relief of disabled ministers, and the widows and children of deceased ministers, come to them as a right and not as mere charity; and whereas, it is believed that some, through extreme modesty and backwardness, are unwilling to make their cases known, and therefore suffer in silence from want; therefore, in order to meet these cases, and as far as possible to do justice to all, be it

Resolved, That it be, and it hereby is, made the duty of each Presbytery under our care, whenever any one of their members shall, for any cause not inferring crime, cease to discharge the functions of the gospel ministry with the consent and approbation of his Presbytery, immediately to inquire into the pecuniary circumstances of such minister, so far as to satisfy themselves in regard to the necessity and acceptableness of aid from this Fund; and if desirable, take the necessary steps to procure it for him, and continue it to him from year to year, so long as the necessity exists, without waiting for his personal application.

And further, upon the death of any minister in good and regular standing in his Presbytery, the same course shall be pursued by the Presbytery in regard to his surviving family.

Resolved, That this Assembly, impressed with the desirableness and importance of increasing as rapidly as possible the Permanent Fund for this branch of the Church's benefactions, does hereby renew its earnest solicitation of donations and legacies, small as well as large, to this Fund, not only from the wealthy, but also from those in more moderate circumstances. And it would urge all our ministers and elders and private members to exert their influence and employ their efforts, by every laudable means in their power, to secure such donations and legacies.

A paper, this morning offered by Dr. J. T. Smith, was, on motion, taken from the table and adopted. It is as follows:

Whereas, The churches in that portion of our country lately in rebellion, whose names appear upon our roll, have not been represented in this Assembly, and still remain in a state of separation from us; and whereas, the measures adopted by this Assembly, if not carried out by the lower courts in a spirit of great meekness and forbearance, may result in perpetuating and embittering divisions already existing, and extending them over portions of our Church now at peace; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly greatly deplores the continued separation between ourselves and our Southern brethren, so long united in the bonds of Christian love and ecclesiastical fellowship, and expresses the earnest desire that the way may be soon opened for a reunion on the basis of our common standards, and on terms consistent with truth and righteousness.

Resolved, 2. That the lower courts who may be called upon to execute the measures of this Assembly, be enjoined to proceed therein with great meekness and forbearance, and in a spirit of kindness and conciliation, to the end that strifes and divisions be not multiplied and inflamed, and extended still more widely, and that the discipline of Christ's house may prove for edification and not for destruction.

The matter of a report from Dr. West, on the Sunday milk traffic, committed to him by the last General Assembly, was referred to the next Assembly.

Mr. Isaac D. Jones presented and read a protest against the action of the General Assembly in the matter of the Louisville Presbytery, which was admitted to record, and, on motion, it was declared to be the sense of the Assembly that it required no further answer. The paper is as follows:

PROTEST.

The undersigned hereby respectfully protest against the resolutions adopted by the General Assembly on the first day of June, upon the subject of the alleged action of the Louisville Presbytery on a paper entitled "A Declaration and Testimony," &c.

1. First, because in adopting said resolutions, the General Assembly has assumed power and jurisdiction over matters and persons not brought within their cognizance for such action, according to the constitution of the Church. In our judgment, the jurisdiction of the Assembly is limited by the constitution of the Church, to the matters expressly or impliedly described in the 4th and 5th sections of chap. xii. of our Form of Government; and that this jurisdiction can only be properly exercised in the mode prescribed in our Book. In the case in question, it is not pretended that the matters acted upon were before the Assembly in any of the "four ways in which a cause may be carried from a lower judicatory to a higher," as laid down in the Book, in ch. vii. of Book of Discipline, unless it be claimed under sub-section 5 of the first section of said ch. vii. The said first section makes it the duty of every judicatory above a church session, at least once a year, to review the records of the proceedings of the judicatory next below. The 5th sub-section recites that judicatories may sometimes entirely neglect to perform their duty, by which neglect heretical opinions or corrupt practices may be allowed to gain ground, &c. "In any of which cases their records will by no means exhibit to the superior judicatory a full view of their proceedings. If, therefore, the superior judicatory be well advised, by common fame, that such neglect or irregularities have occurred, on the part of the inferior judicatory, it is incumbent on them to take cognizance of the same; and to examine, deliberate, and judge in the whole matter, as completely as if it had been recorded, and thus brought up by the review of the records. If, then, on examining the records of the Synod of Kentucky, no action appeared therein upon the subject of the Declaration and Testimony, and the Assembly "be well advised by common fame," of matters connected with that paper, which in their judgment ought to have engaged the attention and incurred the animadversion of the Synod, what is the process required? By sub-sec. vi., of said first section, it is provided that "when any important delinquency or grossly unconstitutional proceedings appear in the records of any judicatory, or are charged against them by common fame, the first step to be taken by the judicatory next above, is to cite the judicatory alleged to have offended to appear at a specified time and place, and to show what it has done, or failed to do, in the case in question; after which the judicatory thus issuing the citation shall remit the whole matter to the delinquent judicatory, with a direction to take it up and dispose of it in a constitutional manner, or stay all further proceedings in the case, as circumstances may require." To this proceeding the Assembly is bound strictly to adhere, when it proceeds on common fame. It may take "the first step," that of citation; "after which" it shall remit the whole matter to the delinquent judicatory. But in the case in question, the Assembly are not at liberty to proceed on common fame. The records of the Synod of Kentucky are before them, for "general review and control," and they show that the matter of the Declaration and Testimony was under consideration by them, first on a paper offered by the Rev. Dr. R. J. Breckinridge, and secondly, on the complaint of the Rev. J. P. McMillan against the action of the Louisville Presbytery in the matter of said Declaration and Testimony. The records of said Synod further show that the Synod rejected the paper of Dr. Breckinridge, declaring those who concurred in the adoption of "The Declaration and Testimony" to be incompetent and unfit to be considered constitutional members of any Presbyterian court, thereby adjudicating that they were competent and fit to be so considered; from which judgment Dr. Breckinridge and others appealed, and the case was duly before the Assembly on this appeal, and had proceeded to the fourth stage of actual trial prescribed in the Book, when the appellants announced to the Assembly their refusal further to prosecute the appeal. The judgment of the Synod then stands unreversed. And it is not competent for the Assembly to reverse it in the mode adopted, because sub-sec. iv., of said first section, declares that "No judicial decision of a judicatory shall be reversed, unless it be regularly brought up by appeal or complaint."

And although on the refusal to prosecute the appeals and complaints, the Assembly could proceed no further therein; yet under their power of review and control over the records of Synod. it was competent for them to record "the animadversion or censure which they may think proper to pass on records under review."

Again, in our judgment, the power to pass the resolutions against which we protest, cannot be founded on the 5th sec. of ch. xii. of our Form of Government. The power of deciding, "in all controversies upon doctrine and discipline," must be understood, of "controversies" between parties over whom the Assembly has acquired jurisdiction by regular process. And so of "reproving, warning, or bearing testimony against errors in doctrine, or immoralities in practice, in any church, presbytery, or synod." And so of "suppressing schismatical contentions and disputations," for there must be parties to such "schismatical contentions and disputations," and they must be regularly proceeded against and brought under the jurisdiction of the Assembly in some of the ways laid down in the Book.

2. We protest against this action of the Assembly, in the second place, because without having acquired jurisdiction of the subject, or persons, and without any form of trial, and in their absence, and without notice or citation, the Assembly has proceeded to pronounce judgment of condemnation of their alleged act; adjudging it to be "a slander against the Church," and to be "schismatical in its character and aim;" and thus more than forty ministers, and about eighty ruling elders, of the Church are virtually branded, by the judgment of the Assembly, before the Church and the world as slanderers of the Church, and by their action aiming at schism.

3. We protest, in the third place, against the assumption in the said resolution that the General Assembly is the Church. According to our Form of Government, it is "the highest judicatory of the Church," and "shall represent in one body all the particular churches," and its decisions upon matters within its constitutional jurisdiction are final and conclusive. But it is well known that there is a large number of members, ruling elders, and ministers, and some Presbyteries and Synods, who hold, and have declared, that the action of the last five Assemblies, upon certain questions, averred by them to be purely political, was "unwise, unconstitutional, and unscriptural;" that, in fact, those deliverances were merely the private political opinions of the persons who, at the several times, composed the majority of the Assemblies, and which were improperly introduced therein; and that those persons could not, and cannot by such action, even in the name of the Assembly, deprive their brethren in the Church of their equal right, the birthright of citizens in a free government, to form, hold, and express their political opinions; of which right, while the Republic lasts, they cannot be deprived by either church or state.

The "Declaration and Testimony" purports to be directed against these deliverances, and whatever condemnation the Assembly may pass upon it or its approvers, we protest that it is not just to charge them with "slander against the Church."

4. We protest, in the fourth place, because the Assembly, after having virtually passed judgment against the "signers of the Declaration and Testimony, and the members of the Louisville Presbytery who voted to adopt it," that they are guilty of the grave offences of "slander against the Church," and "schism," without specific accusation, citation, or trial, as herein set forth, orders them "to be summoned to appear before the next General Assembly, to answer for what they have done in this matter," and that "until their case is decided, they shall not be permitted to sit as members of any church court higher than the session," thus exhibiting the strange proceeding of ordering a citation for parties to appear before the General Assembly, a year hence, "to show what they have done," and in the meantime assuming their guilt of some offence, and punishing them therefor, with a disability for the performance of their important presbyterial and synodical duties.

5. We protest against this action, in the fifth place, because the Assembly has no constitutional authority to cite the said parties, as ministers or ruling elders, to appear before the General Assembly. That as to charges affecting a ruling elder, he is entitled, in the first place, to be tried before his session; and as to charges affecting a minister, he must be tried, in the first place, by his Presbytery; and their cases can be carried before the higher courts only by appeal or complaint, &c., as provided in our Book. To attempt to extend to individual ruling elders or ministers the jurisdiction conferred by ch. vii. sec. i., sub-sec. v. of the Book of Discipline, over delinquent judicatories, is, in our judgment, an utter perversion of our Book.

6. We protest, in the sixth place, because the General Assembly has no authority, in the mode adopted, to interfere with the enrolling of members of presbyteries or synods, or to provide for, or declare a hypothetical, ipso facto, dissolution of a Presbytery, within the bounds of a Synod. Our Book, ch. x. sec. i., declares "the importance and usefulness of presbyterial and synodical assemblies." The General Assembly itself is but an Assembly of Presbyteries. Our Form of Government, ch. x. sec. ii., declares that a "Presbytery consists of all the ministers, and one ruling elder from each congregation, within a certain district." And ch. xi. sec. i., declares that a Synod is a convention of the bishops and ruling elders within a larger district. The constitutional rights of ministers and ruling elders, and of the congregations of Christians whose representatives they are, to sit and vote in their Presbyteries and Synods, cannot be thus summarily swept away. The General Assembly cannot thus alter the Constitution of the Church. The attempt so to interfere with the rights of ministers and ruling elders, presbyteries and synods, is, in our judgment, an alarming assumption of power; and though, in our judgment, null and void as to any legal effect, will tend to introduce strife and confusion into our Church courts and congregations.

7. We protest against the said action, in the seventh and last place, as incongruous and inconsistent with itself, in this—that it condemns unheard the large number of ministers and ruling elders as herein set forth; attempts to inflict immediate and summary punishment upon them; provides for a hypothetical, ipso facto, dissolution of a presbytery; and then cites the parties to appear before the next General Assembly to answer for what they have done; and then resolves "that the whole subject contemplated in the report, including the report itself, be referred to the next General Assembly." For these reasons, we respectfully protest against the said action.

ISAAC D. JONES,

The Rev. J. Allison moved the following, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the thanks of this General Assembly are hereby tendered to the Second Presbyterian Church for the use of its house of worship; to the families and the hotels of St. Louis for their generous hospitality to the members during these sessions; to the Mercantile Library Association for its courtesies; to the Iron Mountain Railroad Company for the pleasant excursion to "Pilot Knob;" to the St. Louis Transfer Company for the free uses of its coaches in going to and returning from the cars on that occasion; to the Rev. S. J. Niccolls and the Committee of Arrangements for the complete provision made for our entertainment; to the secular press of this city for its full and accurate reports; to George D. Hall, Esq. and the other members of the Committee on Railroads for their successful efforts to secure a reduction of fare; also, to the following railroads, viz., Pennsylvania Central Railroad; Pittsburgh, Columbus, and Cincinnati, (Pan Handle); Columbus and Central Indiana, Indianapolis, and Terre Haute; Terre Haute and St. Louis; Northern Central, Baltimore, and Ohio; Central Ohio; Little Miami, Columbus, and Xenia; Indianapolis, and Cincinnati; New York and Erie; Atlantic and Great Western; Bellefon-taine, Dayton, and Western; all the railroads in Missouri; and the Chicago, Alton, and St. Louis Railroad; and also to the steampacket lines on the Mississippi and Illinois Rivers, for reduction of fares.

A protest was received from Dr. Boardman and others against the action of the Assembly in the matter of the Louisville Presbytery. After discussion, on motion, it was Resolved, That it be the sense of this General Assembly that the protest of Dr. Boardman and others is not respectful in language, and that it be returned to the author.

The Rev. Thomas W. Hynes presented and read a protest against the reference of the complaint of Messrs. Crozier and Mack to the next Assembly.

The protest was admitted to record, and is as follows:

PROTEST.

The undersigned respectfully protest against the action of the Assembly referring the complaint of John Mack and John Crozier to the next Assembly, for these reasons,

1. That this case has already been three years before the General Assembly.

2. Great injustice is done to the cause of Christ by this course.

THOMAS W. HYNES,
J. CROZIER.

The Rev. A. P. Forman presented and read a protest against the action of the Assembly in the matter of the Louisville Presbytery, which was admitted to record, and is as follows:

PROTEST.

We, the undersigned, do hereby most respectfully and most earnestly protest against the paper adopted by the General Assembly in relation to those who have signed a publication entitled the "Declaration and Testimony," and for the following reasons:

I. Because in our judgment the preliminary step to this whole proceeding was taken in violation of the Constitution of the Church, and of the ordinary rules of deliberative bodies. We refer to the summary and unprecedented exclusion of the Commissioners of the Louisville Presbytery from their seats, without allowing them an opportunity of explaining or defending the action of their Presbytery in the adoption of the "Declaration and Testimony."

II. Because the paper adopted by the Assembly virtually prejudges the case, and pronounces condemnation upon the accused parties before their trial. For they are not only charged with a heinous crime and summoned to appear at the bar of the next Assembly, but the charge is assumed and asserted to be true, and the parties are visited with condign punishment by immediate suspension from the exercise of certain official functions.

III. The case is greatly aggravated in our judgment by the fact that the principal charge made against the signers of the "Declaration and Testimony" is, in our candid judgment, destitute of proof. We understand, from the arguments employed in debate by the majority, from the statements of the Report of the Committee, and from the language of the papers actually adopted, that the signers of the "Declaration," and especially the Presbytery of Louisville, are charged with having organized a conspiracy against the Church, and with now being in a state of rebellion against her authority. That such a charge is destitute of proof is evident, (1.) From the fact that no such purpose is announced in the "Declaration and Testimony" itself, nor are any measures recommended therein looking to that end. (2.) From the fact that the signers of that publication, so far as they have been heard from in this Assembly, utterly disavow any such intention, and repudiate any such charge. (3.) From the fact that their declared purpose not to obey the orders of the Assembly of '65 is made in the exercise of a liberty which they have the fullest right to exercise. The Assembly, in its legislative capacity, is limited by the express provisions of the constitution; so that no rules adopted by it are obligatory upon the lower courts, until formally sanctioned by a majority of the Presbyteries; and (4.) The refusal of these accused parties to obey the orders referred to, is not only their right, but we think their duty, because said orders, we sincerely believe, are both unconstitutional and unscriptural. The charge of rebellion, therefore, in our candid judgment, is utterly destitute of proof.

IV. Because there is nothing in the "Declaration and Testimony" which warrants the severe measures proposed by the Assembly. The document is evidently designed to be merely a strong protest against the intermeddling on the part of church courts with political questions. Under the influence of the deep excitement of the times it was perhaps written in language too severe and not sufficiently respectful to this high court of our Church. It may likewise have been issued under circumstances calculated to render it liable to misinterpretation, and calculated to produce an undue excitement, and to provoke unhappy controversies. But grant all this, and yet the utmost that could be warranted on the part of the Assembly would be a kind reproof, administered in the exercise of that love and forbearance which should ever characterize this body towards the churches under her care.

V. Because the measures thus adopted by the Assembly we sincerely regard as an alarming usurpation of powers not vested in this body by the constitution of the Church. The Assembly undertakes to summon individuals to appear at her bar, thereby assuming original jurisdiction in cases that belong exclusively to Sessions and Presbyteries. She undertakes summarily to suspend ministers and ruling elders from the exercise of a part of their ecclesiastical functions. She orders the lower courts not to admit to their seats men who have every constitutional right to seats in these bodies; and she decrees that in case any one of them is admitted the court is thereby ipso facto dissolved. This assumption of powers it seems to us is a manifest usurpation, and, if it be admitted, will completely revolutionize our Presbyterial system, overthrow our ecclesiastical liberty, and resolve the Assembly into a spiritual despotism.

VI. Because in our belief these measures, to us so obviously cruel and unjust, will bring upon our denomination the reproaches of the world, will drive through many of our churches and presbyteries the ploughshare of division, will fearfully distract more and more our beloved Zion, and will in every way be promotive of schismatical strifes and contentions.

For these and other reasons, in the name of the great King and Head of the Church, we, the undersigned, as lovers of that constitutional liberty which is the birthright privilege of every Presbyterian, do most respectfully, and yet most solemnly and earnestly, protest against this unfortunate act of this highest court of our beloved Church.

On motion of Mr. H. K. Clarke, the Committee to revise the Book of Discipline was directed also to revise the rules for transacting the business of the Assembly.

On motion of Dr. D. V. McLean, the Presbyterian Historical Society was authorized to occupy one half of one page of the cover of the Home and Foreign Record without charge.

The minutes of to-day were read and approved.

It was then

Resolved, That this General Assembly be now dissolved; and that another General Assembly, chosen in like manner, be required to meet in the Central Presbyterian Church in the city of Cincinnati, in the State of Ohio, on the third Thursday of May, at 11 o'clock, A. M., in the year of our Lord 1867.

The Assembly was then finally adjourned with prayer by the Moderator, with the singing of the doxology, and the apostolical benediction.

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE TO PREPARE THE HYMNAL.

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1864, to make "a selection of psalms and hymns from our present book and from other sources, to be published with suitable tunes," and to make "a careful selection from the Bible, of passages to be arranged for chanting," with "power" to take the needful measures for the "accomplishment of the ends" specifically proposed, "as perfectly and as speedily as possible, and report the result to some future Assembly," do now respectfully report to this General Assembly.

The Assembly appointing the Committee adopted the recommendation of a former Committee, "that the Book should be a small rather than a large one, and to contain about five hundred hymns;" with the farther suggestion "that a book of the size already indicated will exhaust the existing supply, and amply meet all the wants of the Church."

In proceeding to their work, the Committee, first of all, addressed a circular to all the Presbyteries, requesting them to indicate specifically the psalms and hymns they respectively desired to be included in the new selection, with such other suggestions as they wished the Committee to consider. A large number of the Presbyteries, and some individuals, acted upon this invitation. And from the clear information thus obtained from the Church at large, which had, in this manner, been consulted as fully as was possible, the Committee were enabled beforehand to learn more satisfactorily than by depending on the views of individuals, or on their own exclusive judgment and preferences, what was most likely to meet the wants of the far greater portion of the whole Church.

The Committee also availed themselves of the valuable assistance of Mr. Charles C. Converse, with the counsel of Dr. Lowell Mason, and other eminent persons of musical skill, zealously and generously accorded to our invitation, in the selection and adaptation of the tunes.

We now lay before the General Assembly the result of this joint labour, printed with the title of "The Hymnal of the Presbyterian Church, ordered by the General Assembly."

I. It will be observed that the Committee was restricted in the number of their selections and in the plan of the work. While exercising the responsibility of deciding of what pieces it was to be composed, (within the range to which they were restricted,) we found ourselves sometimes obliged to sacrifice our personal preferences as to what should be included or excluded, in deference to the obvious wishes of the Church.

It is probable, therefore, that some other persons may find that favourite pieces, even long endeared by use, are not included in this book; and other pieces may also be found in it which those persons would not prefer. In regard to the psalms and hymns taken from our old book, the Committee repeatedly reviewed their selections, with an earnest desire to include all that were possible on the plan laid down for us. Of course, we have differed from honoured brethren, and we regret that the nature of the case made it impracticable to perfectly please any one. The exigencies of paging, (i. e., of suiting a third hymn to two others arranged with a given musical expression on a page,) now and then required the preference of a hymn not as desirable in itself as some other.

If the Committee regard their instructions, and enrich the collection "by the substitution of some absent and indispensable hymns, for many of the book that may be dispensed with," (See the Assembly's report,) then more than 500 must be excluded. No one will say that the Committee would have carried out the wishes of the Assembly, or met the wants of the Church, if they had retained the 343 psalms now in use, and given us the remainder in new or old hymns—say one hundred old and one hundred new hymns. Taking one hundred and fifty psalms we have only three hundred and fifty hymns left to form a book of five hundred. Now if we select one hundred new hymns from "the rich stores of lyric poetry which have accumulated since our Hymn Book was compiled," we can select only two hundred and fifty hymns out of the book, or be compelled to exclude four hundred and thirty of the old hymns. We see that in this case equal violence will be done to the feelings of those who can never give up the hymns which they have sung in their childhood, and which are too precious to be thrown ruthlessly away.

The number of psalms published in the Hymnal is seventy. There are also sixty-nine selections from the psalms and other portions of Scripture, arranged for chanting, making a total of one hundred and thirty-nine. This is nearly one-fourth of the entire book. Is this not a fair proportion of psalms, and ought it not to be satisfactory to those who insist upon the use of an inspired psalmody?

The commingling of psalms and hymns, which nevertheless are accurately distinguished from each other, was necessitated by the prescribed plan of arranging tunes with the words, and was distinctly explained at the Newark Assembly of 1864; and no objection was made. Is not the principle conceded in our old book, wherein are two versions of Rouse's psalms and one of Watts' among the hymns? And have we not in the Hymnal, the true idea for all who would especially honour David's Psalms, viz., a Collection of Scripture (mostly Psalter) selections with chants?

There have been, in a few cases, a change of the third personal pronoun for the second person, and some slight modifications of words necessitated by that change. But neither this, nor the rare instances of transposition of verses, made of necessity in reducing the size of the hymns, or in making them homogeneous—(which is always more accurately done in deliberate print than in the hasty and often random caprice of the pulpit)—nor any other of the peculiarities of the new book, is beyond the allowed custom of the Church or its hymnologists. They who have furnished, composed, translated, or selected and edited our psalms and hymns in common and approved use, have, with the sanction of the Church, adapted the pieces to the taste and want of the Church; and frequent are the instances in which we have been using just such altered psalms and hymns—which we have rendered and adopted for our own use, without assuming thereby to edit them as the original forms,—so that while there is a sacred horror of so mutilating them, as it is styled, hymn writers and psalm singers, alike, have for ages been doing this very thing to the great edification of the Church of God; while many persons who cry out against alleged mutilations are actually declaiming against the restoration of original forms. See Ps. 100 of Watts, Hymns and Choirs, p. 62; and "He dies," &c., Hy. and Ch., p. 63.

There is a great difference (which some persons overlook) between strict translations of psalms, and those (of Watts, e. g.) which are only free paraphrases, and often transpositions of David's. In the latter, modifications are allowable, if the sentiment or the essential character of the hymn is not affected, nor the expression made meaner; and if the modifications be desirable for devotional purposes.

In regard to these alleged changes the Committee observe, 1st. The Church might justly have been dissatisfied if better editions had been ignored in making the new book. 2d. We have discovered, notwithstanding our care, a few errata that have occurred in printing, or in following inaccurate copy—and these can be of course easily corrected with the aid of the keen optics of critics. 3d. The instances in which the second person is substituted for the third person, are included in about twenty hymns; and this change has in perhaps six or eight cases involved a modification of the words; and this, to render those particular hymns less hortatory and more devotional, and thus to aid the worshipper to realize communion with God. In a number of instances this made the hymn more according to the Bible psalm. In others it simply did with more verses what the poet had done with one or two verses, thus rendering the hymn consistent with itself. We do not say that the use of the third person lacks devotion, nor that there is no worship—"no worship" but in direct address; nor that such use has not the sanction of the Bible in the forms of some of the inspired psalms. But we say, in the existing prevalence of a habit of not worshipping in the songs of Zion, we find a reason for preferring the second person, where the character of the hymn or the original sentiment of the psalm invites it. Yet, after all, the changes are very few and slight, and practically amount to nothing disturbing. 4th. If any change seem unpleasant at the first, it is wonderful how easily we become reconciled to change; especially if we have a proper desire to conform ourselves to the change. And then when our children shall have taken our places may we not conclude that they will love the present rendering as we did the former—which in many cases was but a change which we and our fathers approved—and they will thank their fathers as we have honoured and followed ours, in the improvements that a better taste has made. The older men too must yield some of their merely educated preferences: the younger must not expect all they desired. Tastes differ: in our hands all things are but human:

> "He who expects a faultless piece to see, > Expects what never was, nor is, nor e'er will be."

Nor need any of these peculiarities of the new book preclude the use of our old book at the same time and place. Sufficient trial has been actually made to satisfy, without further argument, on this point.

Nor is any church obliged by the Assembly's approval of the new book, to supersede with it the exclusive use of the old book, or any other books, which former Assemblies have authorized, which is all that any Assembly has done, or is likely to do.

But it should be distinctly kept in mind, that the new book is not intended to supersede or embarrass the use of the old book. There are two classes of persons as to this, in our church: (1.) Those who are satisfied with the old book and methods; some of these perhaps desiring new hymns in a "supplement," which the Assembly has authorized to be made, and which can and will, in due time be made: and (2.) on the other hand, those who wish (and many of whom will have) a book like the Hymnal, which will be supplied by unauthorized, however competent, persons outside of our church, if the church itself will not supply it. Why not suit both classes?

With respect to the musical part of the work, the Committee deem it needful in view of certain questionable criticisms anticipating this report, to expound at large the principles that controlled the selection and arrangement of this part of a book which was prominently designed to promote and facilitate proper congregational singing.

II. Chants for congregational use must be simple. An example of a chant, suitable for such use is on page 12, which is called a single chant. It is composed of but three different tones—(we refer to the melody)—and devoid of grace-notes, such as are found in the 3d and 7th bars of the chant on page 3. Hence the melody is readily memorized, its rhythmical movement being easy, natural, and it is thus a convenient vehicle for the psalm set to it. The congregation can sing the words to it, under the guidance of a precentor or choir, with no more difficulty than they could speak or repeat them in concert or unison; in fact, the rhythmical movement is absolutely necessary to enable the people to speak or sing in concert. If the music were more elaborate and ornate, the vehicle becomes a hindrance, and the altar smothers, rather than bears up, the sacrifice. So simple is the melody under consideration, that any congregation led, as above stated, would, ere more than two or three lines of the words had been sung, use it as "the voice of their supplication" or praise, without following the music, heeding only the bars dividing the words that indicate their rhythm.

If such be the case of this chant, why use the elaborate and ornate chants in God's worship? and why not repeat such a chant as this to other scriptures till the people become so familiar with the adaptation, that no book even is needed in singing to it? To this we remark, 1. As the spirit of true praise departed from the church, the choir was introduced as a substitute for the congregation, and being composed of a comparatively small number of singers, and being impelled more by a desire for musical display than devotion, the simple chant was ornamented with grace-notes, &c., then was doubled, and enlarged still more; in some instances made peculiar so as to suit only particular scriptures; and finally abandoned, to a great degree, for tune-forms which allowed the composer perfect liberty in constructing musical stimulants for the palled appetites of the listening congregation, and roulades, &c., to humour the vanity of a choir prima donna. 2. In the compilation of the Hymnal, we take church-music as we find it, and have endeavoured, so far as was deemed by us expedient by one book, to lead the Church back to her former purity of praise. The great majority of the Hymnal's chants are single and simple, like the one cited; there are a few single, double, and peculiar, more or less ornate, introduced for expediency's sake, such as on pages 6, 10, and 30. 3. We have repeated some of the chants, particularly the one above cited, and we have purposely avoided selecting chants very widely dissimilar, repeating them to induce their familiarity among the people, and avoiding dissimilarity so as to lead the people from knowing one chant to knowing others germane to it.

In preparing the tune part of the Hymnal, we have made similar compromises. Adopting the choral-form as the only sound criterion, (of which the Old Hundredth is a notable and familiar example,) and because the choral-form is the least departure from the original chant-form, which, in its turn, is the least departure from the simple form of speaking in concert, or congregational form, we have sought to secure a broad foundation of standard classic chorals, worthy, in their grand simplicity, of being the media of God's praise, and as far removed from the "sickly sweetness" of the so-called church-music now in vogue, as a lofty Gothic pile from the sugary fantasies of a French confectioner. The people having acquired the habit of dwelling on, or prolonging the beginning and closing tones of each musical phrase, corresponding with each line of the words—the habit springing out of the necessity of having common starting and closing points or tones, in large bodies of singers, so that they might keep together, and as the people had been so habituated in the chant-form, and required to thus mark the several lines in poetry, and not merely the beginning and end of a tune, we adopted that form of notation that fixes or defines the duration of these starting and closing points or tones, so as to secure uniformity of execution by the congregation. This form of notation does not change the tunes, per se, or de novo form other tunes; it may cause one version to differ from that found in some collections, but we contend that ours is the purest and best congregational form. This prolongation is indicated in some books by a pause, (𝄐) A pause is defined by musical authorities to be a grace, in the form of a prolongation of the tone over or under which it is placed, and that the duration of said pause is at the pleasure of the singer. Therefore we infer that, while it would not be a very important matter to a quartette choir, with a single voice to each part, about these pauses, provided each singer had been previously drilled by a leader or organist, in prolonging said pauses a given time, yet for the people's use we deem it of decided importance to fix in the notation that duration of said tones which has, by habit, already become common law in the church. We are speaking now of strict chorals, i. e., those in which all the tones were originally of a uniform length, and since modified by said pauses. The church, unfortunately and unwisely, we think, descended from their majestic flow to the tripping measures of the opera and the dance, and hence we have in the Hymnal, pure chorals, mixed chorals, (possessed of a varied rhythm,) and tunes, which are neither, their form being free. In the Hymnal's strict chorals the pauses are indicated by the form of the notes; in the mixed chorals they were already so indicated, and vary with the rhythm; so also in the tunes, the pauses in both these latter classes approximating more or less to the strict choral rule. Hence the only difference in the notation is in the indication of the pauses, such being necessary so far as the strict chorals were concerned. Such changes do not hasten or lengthen the movement of the music. A tune, like a chant, is a vehicle that may be driven fast or slowly; the notes used serving but to indicate the relative length of the tones; and the bars that separate the notes in groups are employed only to aid the eye in singing; and the double-bars marking the close of a musical phrase or line of the words.

When the church used only strict chorals, figures placed at the beginning to show the rhythmical movement were, of course, unnecessary; when a change was made in church music, figures came into use, but the change having been made and adopted throughout the church, they have become superfluous, and no more necessary to the singer than would be a statement over each piece or tune—"this is in the key of A, B, C,"—or, "this piece is a choral"—"this, an old dance-tune!" &c. But rather is he led by such signs to the material part of the tune than its spirit.

In adapting words to tunes, we have taken that view of tunes per se, which has obtained in the church from time immemorial, to wit; that their character is, to a certain extent flexible, and suits equally well hymns of widely diverse sentiments. Hence you may find in our various collections of psalmody the same tunes set to joyous and to funereal poetry; hence, in the older times, many a melody has been the vehicle of praise, thanksgiving, prayer, and grief. And, to go back to the days of David, who, we have good authority for believing was a good musician as well as poet, we find him singing a psalm to the melody of "The hind at dawn," &c. (Davidson.) The law of musical adaptation is a very general one, and as in the praise of God, we may use the delicate "stringed instrument" as appropriately as the grand "organ," and with the same instruments tell of Jesus' love, or of God's glory; we may treat the tunes that we play thereon as vehicles, suitable for the burthen of different sentiments, they being possessed of broad limits that often trench on the character of other tunes that differ in the concrete, and as largely dependent upon the hymns, to which they happen to be set, for present individuality. This truth is evidenced in any choir or congregation where we may happen to be, by the adaptations of choir-leaders or others, and any of our collections of church-tunes will furnish numerous instances of appropriating a composer's melodies to quite other uses than those contemplated by him in their conception.

In the selection of new tunes, we had access to and carefully examined all the prominent collections of the day, and gave especial consideration to such as have come into favour within the past few years, taking only such of them as had the stamp of genuine merit and acceptance. The only tunes in the Hymnal that were absolutely new, or published for the first time, are set to hymns of such peculiar form and measure that we could not find old tunes that would suit them. These tunes number but five; of the chants, but three are new. And their introduction is not unfortunate. All our old tunes were once new.

The pitching of the tunes is in accordance with the laws that govern the arrangement of tunes for congregational use, and the Hymnal will be found to be in harmony with the best collections of tunes for such use here and abroad. In this matter of pitch we adhered, as in the other departments of our work, to the rule of compromise adopted by us at the outset, and as, in order to meet all tastes, we sparingly used tunes of a quasi choir and congregational character, so we varied the pitch in certain cases, so far as our limits would permit. Yet it will be observed that when the entire cast of the tunes is considered, which in many cases will permit of a higher key, because of the structure of the melodies, than in other seemingly similar cases, and thus, to those persons ignorant of musical composition, appearing to deviate from our rule, the adherence to said rule will be shown to be as consistent as it well could be, in view of the diverse character of the tune-matter used, and the consequent "exigencies" of our plan, which those who are familiar with the intent of our church in authorizing the Hymnal will fully comprehend.

As for the name—"Hymnal"—although not absolutely new, it is desirably distinctive—in this day of confusing common-place titles, and "rabble rout" of "cornets, flutes, harps, psalteries, dulcimers, and all kinds of music," borrowed from Nebuchadnezzar's orchestra in the plain of Dura—and eminently comprehensive as a designation of the peculiar character of the work. Philologically and scripturally appropriate it is, though not found as yet in our dictionaries, a really "household word," if not "from Britain to Japan," at least to India. It is the title of a similar work in use in our own missions in Asia, and of like works in England; it is familiar in Germany,* and is beginning to be used and appropriated in sacred classics and ecclesiastical discussions and publications, both in Scotland and this country.

REPORT UPON THE ECCLESIASTICAL CHARACTER OF CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATIONS.

The undersigned, to whom the last General Assembly referred (See Minutes, p. 590) "a report on a usage found on the records of the Synod of New Jersey concerning the dismissal of ministers to Congregational Associations," respectfully reports that he has bestowed such consideration as he was able to give upon the papers placed in his hands, and the matter to which they refer. It appeared upon the Minutes of the Synod of New Jersey that one of its Presbyteries had dismissed a minister to a Congregational Association in Massachusetts, which act was not disapproved by the Synod. To this the Committee appointed to examine the minutes took exception, as "wanting in due regularity." In proof of this, the Committee say:

"Congregational Associations disclaim all ecclesiastical powers. They are simply voluntary societies of ministers formed for the purpose of general literary improvement, and more especially for advancement in biblical knowledge. If they have any doctrinal basis, as those designated orthodox usually have, it is very general, and allows scope for the largest diversity of belief consistent with an evangelical faith. They do not represent the churches. They do not ordain. They do not license men to preach the gospel in any such sense as is recognized in the Presbyterian Church. They simply send out young men to the churches, bearing the approval of some one of these societies, as persons in their judgment qualified to preach the gospel. The license, in the sense of a liberty conferred by the Church in the name and by the authority of her Head to preach the gospel is really in the power of the churches that give them a hearing, and in this manner it may perhaps be understood to be informally, tacitly, and impliedly granted.

"Said societies do not claim any right to inflict ecclesiastical censure. They have the right, as is true of any other voluntary society, to exclude any members whom they may judge unworthy. The power of ecclesiastical censure rests in each particular church. Councils, not Associations, may be convened to give advice; but the final judgment rests with the church convening it.

"With this view of the matter, it does seem to your Committee of questionable propriety to dismiss a member of Presbytery to join one of said societies. The person so dismissed, while in connection with the Presbytery, thereby holds membership in the Presbyterian Church. By his dismission to join one of these societies, he is really dismissed into the world; and though he remain in this connection till death, he is, as to any ecclesiastical relation, only of the world. To renew Church relations he must either return to the Presbytery or some analogous ecclesiastical body; or become a member of the particular church which he serves in the gospel ministry."

The undersigned feels constrained to dissent from this conclusion for the following reasons, viz.,

1. The Congregational Associations do not appear to be mere voluntary societies, and destitute of a proper ecclesiastical character. They commonly have distinct territorial limits, and every Congregational minister is expected to connect himself with that Association within whose bounds he resides. When two or more Associations cover the same territory, a minister may seek admission to whichever he may prefer, but he is expected to join one or another. Such a connection is requisite in order to be embraced in the fellowship, and possess the confidence of the churches. These Associations taken together compose the body of the Congregational ministry. The statistical tables of their General Associations, which embrace the various particular Associations, possess the same official character and validity with those of our General Assembly, and afford the same voucher for the ministerial standing of all whose names are therein recorded.

2. These Associations do possess and exercise ecclesiastical functions. Their powers are not identical with those of our Presbyteries, but this should not hinder our recognition of those which they do possess. The prominence given to literary and biblical exercises in their meetings no more divested them of an ecclesiastical character than the devotional exercises in which our Presbyteries engage, convert them into mere prayer-meetings. These Associations regularly consult upon matters pertaining to the welfare of the churches within their bounds; their advice is asked and given in questions of difficulty; they receive and make reports on the state of religion. They license candidates for the ministry, thus guarding the door of admission to the sacred office. And whatever theory men of extreme independent views may hold respecting this licensure, though they may represent it as, in strictness, conferring no right, but "merely a letter of commendation designed favourably to introduce its holder to the churches," (Dexter's Congregationalism, p. 225, note 5; The National Congregational Council, Art. V., of the Ministry, as reported and commented on in Biblical Repertory for October, 1865, p. 614,) the fact remains that it is essential to the exercise of ministerial functions; no one is suffered to preach without it. The Associations further certify the standing of ministers who remove from their bounds to the other Associations or other religious bodies. And though the exercise of discipline is chiefly committed to Councils which are bodies having no permanent existence, but temporarily convened for each emergent case, the Associations can recall the license to preach at any time prior to ordination, and, in the judgment of some, even after ordination. (See Upham's Ratio Disciplinæ, § 141.) They may also, for error of doctrine or inconsistencies of life, reprove or censure any one of their members, or exclude him from their number. Such a forfeiture of membership is virtually an act of discipline, since it is a serious blow to ministerial standing, and a bar to the confidence of the churches. And, according to the Saybrook Platform,* it is the province of the Associations still further to convene a council to try and judge offending members. The Associations are thus, in important senses, guardians of ministerial purity and ministerial character; and their members thus subjected to the watch and care of their brethren, cannot be said to be "only of the world."

3. Upon the most limited view which can be taken of the powers of the Associations, it nevertheless remains to be said that membership in them connects with the body of the Congregational Church, and brings a minister under all that government and control which is in various ways, and according to the usages of that denomination, exercised over its clergy, whether pastors of particular churches or not.

4. As Associations are the only permanent clerical bodies known to the denomination at large, (Consociations or standing councils being peculiar to Connecticut, and not universal even there,) and as they alone embrace its entire ministry, they are its representatives before the world, and its organs of correspondence with other denominations. The correspondence of our own General Assembly with the New England bodies was uniformly carried on through their General Associations. And in the terms of this correspondence

* Art. XII. That the teaching elders of each county shall be one association, (or more, if they see cause,) which association or associations shall assemble twice a year at least, at such time and place as they shall appoint, to consult the duties of their office and the common interests of the churches, who shall consider and resolve questions and cases of importance which shall be offered by any among themselves or others, who also shall have power of examining and recommending the candidates of the ministry to the work thereof.

Art. XIII. That the said associated pastors shall take notice of any among themselves that may be accused of scandal or heresy unto or cognizable by them, examine the matter carefully, and if they find just occasion, shall direct to the calling of the Council, where such offenders shall be duly proceeded against.

the authority and right of particular Associations to receive and give dismissions of ministers, is repeatedly asserted by them, and recognized by our Assembly. (See Assembly's Digest, pp. 513, 517, &c.) For example, in the treaty with the General Conference of Connecticut, (Assembly's Digest, p. 518,) Art. 1: "It shall be deemed irregular and unfriendly for any Presbytery or Association within the bounds of the corresponding churches to receive any candidate for licensure, licentiate, or ordained minister into connection with either without regular testimonials, and a regular dismission from the Presbytery or Association from which the said candidate, licentiate, or minister may come." The same resolution was introduced into the terms agreed upon between the General Assembly and the General Associations of Maine, (Assembly's Digest, p. 517,) Massachusetts, and New Hampshire, Vermont (Assembly's Digest, pp. 519, 520–21,) and Rhode Island, (pp. 517–18.) The plan of union with the Association of Connecticut, notwithstanding its unconstitutional features, was a further recognition of the ecclesiastical character of these bodies, (pp. 570–71.) After the Plan of Union had been abrogated, a proposition was made to the Assembly to enter into correspondence with, and to receive dismissions of ministers from the Pastoral Union of Connecticut, instead of the Association, on the ground of the greater doctrinal soundness of the former. This was negatived in 1841, (Assembly's Digest, pp. 521–22,) for the reason that the General Association was not, like the Pastoral Union, a voluntary combination of ministers, but "the only organized and distinct ecclesiastical representative of the Congregational churches of Connecticut," and that the particular Associations were "regularly established ecclesiastical bodies." The propriety of dismissing ministers to Associations is also recognized, Assembly's Digest, p. 262, § 62, and direction given that the name of the Association should in all such cases be specified.

The undersigned is consequently unable to discover any reason why the established usage of our Church in this matter should be changed or departed from. If the Assembly should see fit to recommend any form for the dismission of ministers to other denominations differing from those granted to our own Presbyteries, there seems to be no reason why the Congregational Associations should not be put upon the same footing with other bodies, whose ecclesiastical character is recognized by us.

All which is respectfully submitted. W. Henry Green.

MEMORIAL TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

The memorial of the undersigned, ministers and ruling elders of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, respectfully showeth:

Your memorialists, the most part of whom are Commissioners duly appointed to this General Assembly, met in convention on the 15th of May, 1866, at St. Louis, in accordance with the recommendation of about three hundred ministers and ruling elders of this Church, inviting a convention of commissioners, and other ministers and ruling elders, specified in the call as "persons who, instead of reviling the five preceding Assemblies, would obey them, for the purpose of prayer and conference in view of the approaching meeting of this Assembly: and, in the exercise of their reasonable right to assemble as members of a free Christian commonwealth, and in seeking Divine guidance, and mutual enlightenment and support; to ascertain, to represent, and to propose to the General Assembly, as God should enable them, and with all due reverence, the things which, in our judgment, are needful to the Church, touching its present duties, dangers, and necessities.

It is believed that this Assembly will not be free from attempts hostile to some, if not all, of the precious testimonies the Church has borne for the truth of God and the duty of his children, during the frightful years of sinful insurrection through which we have been led, and to the provisions enacted by the General Assembly for the unity and integrity and peace of the Church, consequent upon the schisms and defections in the very bosom of the Church.

We need only to cast our eyes over the controversies raging even now in the Church, to understand how wide-spread and how diversified are the evils which threaten her, and how fatal are the principles upon which a counter-revolution in her state and action is demanded, and how eager and fierce is the spirit of reaction against her solemn, deliberate, and reiterated testimonies, especially uttered by the preceding five Assemblies, and how vehemently they have been reviled, and defied, and set at naught.

We believe that the present troubles, threatening anarchy and confusion in the Church, and farther defection and schism, are but little else than the sinful continuation and working, in a religious form, of the criminal spirit and designs of the insurrection in temporal affairs; and we are persuaded that neither the country nor the Church can have peace or security, until the religious poison is healed, or purged out.

In both respects, both of the State and of the Church, it is better, immeasurably, to heal, if it be possible. If that may not be, it is better, immeasurably, to keep the Church pure, and restore it to peace, let it cost what it may.

The Presbyterian Church welcomes to her bosom, joyfully, all who desire to be as she and her children are. If others will insist on sharing her blessings, which are neither few nor small, they ought not to be allowed to revile her acts, contemn her authority, waste her inheritance, traduce her character, tear her vitals, and corrupt and destroy her integrity and unity.

All such attempts to impair her testimonies, mar her peace, and hinder her usefulness, ought to be put an end to, if God permit, by the General Assembly firmly adhering to the testimonies and enactments hitherto uttered, from the highest tribunal of the Church; and by the appropriate exercise of her discipline, effectually dealing with those who may have set themselves persistently to revile her acts, to defy her just authority, to destroy her peace, and to distract and rend her communion.

Thus believing, your memorialists, without presuming to dictate, and without unlawfully combining to carry, in this House, the measures they propose, do now respectfully and dutifully submit the results of their deliberations to the Church, and to this General Assembly.

Your memorialists, therefore, do hereby respectfully represent, in reference to the recent persistent attempts made in various parts of the Church to have the deliverances and injunctions of the General Assembly—(produced by the disturbed state of the Church and nation during the past five years)—reconsidered and changed; that the General Assembly has nothing in the matter aforesaid to change, nothing to explain, nothing to modify, nothing to take back, nothing to amend, in any way, shape, or form whatever; it being needful only, for any one, to correct the misrepresentations published and industriously circulated concerning those deliverances and injunctions, in order clearly to vindicate both the moral and ecclesiastical right of the Assembly to enact the same.

All the more do your memorialists earnestly press upon the Assembly the importance of thus firmly adhering to all that has been said or done, regarding the great moral and religious issues involved in the struggle of the past five years, inasmuch as the spirit of rebellion still rages in some portions of the Church, even to the extent of public official, as well as public personal defiance unto and insult of the authority of the General Assembly—notable instances of which are the adoption, by one of our Presbyteries, and many of our members, of a "Declaration and Testimony," reviling the Assembly, and covering the Church with unmerited reproach, and especially the election of some as commissioners to the Assembly whose eminence, in open hostility to the loyal deliverances of the Assembly, and to the Assembly itself, is unsurpassed in the history of our Church.

Your memorialists, in calling the attention of the Assembly to the opposition thus made by individuals, by church courts, and by the press, do hereby also invite its attention to the vast multitude of fatal heresies connected with, and logically growing out of it—not the least of which is that which denies to the deliverances and injunctions of the Assembly, during the past five years, upon slavery and rebellion, any binding force whatever.

The action of the supreme tribunal of our Church is denounced as contrary to the constitution and immemorial usage of the Presbyterian Church, and disobedience to the same publicly and privately counselled.

The peace and purity of the Church imperatively demand that the General Assembly, whose duty it is to suppress schismatical contentions and disputations, shall adopt efficient measures to put an end to the anarchy and confusion which this course of things is bringing upon the whole Church. They who thus revile the authority, and disturb the harmony of the Church, should be required to desist from such revolutionary and schismatical conduct; and where church officers or courts persist in defiance of the order of the Assembly, they should be dealt with as offenders against the peace, purity, and order of the house of God.

Less than this, your memorialists believe will be not only an encouragement of rebellion against the government of the Presbyterian Church, but against the very essence of all lawful government itself, and must inevitably tend to the fearful result of anarchy and irremediable ruin.

The General Assembly must be fully aware that, even amongst those who cordially approve of its past deliverances, and those who will stand by the Church of their fathers, although they may not approve all those deliverances, there is some diversity of judgment as to the course which ought to be pursued by the Church henceforth towards the schismatical sect of united Old-school and New-school Presbyterians which has been organized in the wide region covered by the lately rebellious States; fully aware also, that to a large extent the Church, in a state of opinion which may be called immature, awaits some clear deliverance of the General Assembly touching the relations which are to exist on our part to that sect. Besides this, it is notorious that all the past deliverances of the Church condemning the schism in the Church South, and the conduct of those ministers who produced and organized that schism, and used it to sustain the rebellion and the civil war, and now use it, not only to prevent the restoration and spread of our Church in the Southern half of the nation, but to extend the schism into all parts of the Church, have been, and continue to be, openly denounced and intentionally disobeyed by all such members and office-bearers of our Church as approve the wicked conduct of the authors of that schism, and repeat its sinful revilings of the Presbyterian Church and its acts. While this Convention has earnestly besought the General Assembly not to take back, nor modify, nor explain away, under rebellious menaces and heretical expositions and intrigues and conspiracies, in the interest of slavery and disloyalty and schism, any portion of its past deliverances touching the state of the Church and the country, we suppose that a fresh deliverance, founded on the actual condition of affairs, more especially as they affect the Church, and embracing amongst other things the vital subjects contained in this petition and memorial, would be of very high importance at the present time. It needs to be kept in perpetual remembrance that the frightful civil war was encouraged and eagerly supported, from the beginning, by those who organized this sinful schism, as soon as possible after bloodshed began, mainly (as openly avowed by themselves) upon the two atrocious ideas of the perpetuity of negro slavery, and, to that end, the creation of a new nation, out of a part of this nation, through its destruction by treason and carnage. It must be farther kept in mind that after the lapse of four years of ceaseless activity in this sinful course, during which all the horrors and miseries of civil war fell upon the land, with a violence seldom exceeded in extent or bitterness, and after the new nation had expired, and the perpetual slavery had perished under an act of sublime national retribution, those same schismatics deliberately resolved to perpetuate the sectarian organization they had created, in such circumstances for such objects, accompanying this last act with formal statements, identifying their past conduct and principles with the future career marked out for themselves, and striving in particular to make mutual confidence and fraternity, much less mutual fellowship, and least of all, organic unity with the Church, which the great mass of them had betrayed, forsaken, and traduced, forever impossible.

The Presbyterian Church has no alternative consistent with safety, with self-respect, with the righteousness of its own past conduct, with fidelity to divine truth or Christian duty, or with obedience to God, but to accept the renunciation of these deluded men, to testify against their sinful acts, and to keep her skirts clear of their miserable doings. Three great duties remain to her, connected with this subject; upon the right performance of which, a great reward awaits her; and upon the neglect of which, trouble and confusion. The first is, to purify herself from the widely-diffused poison of the times, which, in a form more or less virulent, is diffused through all the churches; and to do this, as remembering that the discipline of the Church is of God, is an ordinance of mercy to backsliders, and stands related to the threatenings of God's word in some manner, as the sacraments thereof do to the promises of God. The second is, to hold out and wide open the arms of her love to every child of God in the Southern country, who has been a victim, not the willing partaker of the sins against God, against his Church, and against their country; against which Divine Providence has testified by such severe and most righteous judgments. The third is, to proceed at once, and with a zeal proportioned to the urgency of the necessity, to redeem the solemn promise made by the first Assembly, after the schism organized in 1861, that she would wholly disregard its existence, and, as God might enable her, would strive to recover all she might lose by it, and to extend and establish, more and more, throughout the whole South, the precious system of Divine truth, unto the liberty and power of which God has called her by his grace.

Let the revenge, we will ask of God, be a double share in the work of saving those who have cast us out as doubly vile.

Adopted unanimously; and ordered to be signed by the officers, in behalf of one hundred and eleven, in convention assembled, at St. Louis, Missouri, May 19th, 1866.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION.

Fathers and Brethren—Your Committee on the Narrative of the State of Religion in the Church, make the following report:

We have received narratives of religion, more or less full—some far too extended and diffuse, others much too meagre and unsatisfactory—from ninety-one of the one hundred and thirty Presbyteries connected with the General Assembly, including one of the Presbyteries in China, the Presbytery of California, within whose bounds are many thousands of Chinese, and the Synod of Northern India: and, having examined them, feel that the Church has most abundant reason to thank God and take courage. Nowhere does the word of the Lord seem to be going backward, and in many places it is evidently going forward gloriously.

From the reports and from other sources we learn, that, notwithstanding the embarrassments and increased expenses consequent on the high price of exchange, the Church has abandoned no work in heathen lands for the want of either men or money, and that detachments of faithful men and women have constantly been going forward to take the places of those who have fallen at their posts, or have been withdrawn because of failing health. And there are encouraging indications throughout the heathen world that heathenism is being shaken, and will ere long be shaken to pieces and destroyed. What shall then follow, we cannot say. There is, therefore, a loud call to the Church to send forward speedily more men to take advantage of these auspicious events for Jesus Christ.

Our frontier Presbyteries report progress. Not, indeed, such progress as we could wish, for but few of them report revivals, and all of them need much more money and many more men; but progress in the planting of new churches, in the strengthening of those already planted, and in the preaching of the gospel in many new pioneer settlements in the wilderness.

In the older States, the older Presbyteries, with scarcely an exception, speak of revivals; many of them of revivals of great power, in which, in the aggregate, thousands of precious souls have been converted to Christ. Of the ninety-one Presbyteries that have sent up narratives, seventy-two report revivals, and some of them state that nearly every one of their churches has shared in the blessed work. Your Committee believe that outside of our great cities, the revival of the past ecclesiastical year exceeds in universality and power that of 1857 and 1858. In the Presbyteries of Donegal, Clarion, Washington, New Brunswick, New Castle, West Jersey, Northumberland, Susquehanna, Redstone, Chillicothe, and St. Clairsville, the power of the Spirit has been manifested in an especial and extraordinary manner. In these, and in some other Presbyteries, the additions to many of the churches have already been from fifty up to more than a hundred persons, and in a number of them the good work is still going forward. In these revivings our schools and colleges, and our female seminaries, have shared largely. Hundreds of young men and young women in them have been converted, and it is reported that many of these Christian young men have devoted themselves to the work of the gospel ministry; not a few of them, including in their consecration the purpose, God willing, of preaching the gospel to the heathen. In this connection, your Committee would call attention to the fact that nearly all of these revivals—certainly nine-tenths of them—began with or originated in the week of prayer at the beginning of the year, or the day of prayer for schools, colleges, &c., on the last Thursday of February.

It was feared by some that our disbanded and returned soldiers would bring with them to their homes and communities so many of the vices of the camp and the army as to make them the polluters of society, and the scourges of the Church. But this fear, thank God, has not been realized to any considerable extent. Some of the bad have, indeed, returned worse, and some of the good have been corrupted; but, to counterbalance this, and far more than counterbalance it, hundreds, aye, thousands who went into the army sinners, returned from it Christians; and others have since become Christians; and others, in their increased manliness and a spirit of obedience, give better promise than before of becoming good soldiers of Jesus Christ.

Another evidence of the presence of the Spirit of God in the Church, we see in the going forth of the hearts of our people toward visible union with other Christians, especially with those of our own faith and name. There seems to be a growing and strengthening desire with our people to get near to, and into closer communion with those of other branches of the Presbyterian Church who hold with us the form of sound words. The strong conviction of tens of thousands in the Church seems to be, that in the great fight in which we are engaged, and the greater fight before us, with ritualism, rationalism, worldliness, and all ungodliness, those whose faith is the same, and whose Presbyterian banner is the same, should combine, and make common cause for Jesus Christ. And the fact that we do not feel thus toward our aforetime brethren in the South, who, "partly by discipline, and partly by their own act, have been removed from us," is not to be interpreted otherwise than in accordance with this conclusion. For our hearts go out warmly toward them; and could we see them cordially abandoning their two darling delusions (shall we not say sins?) slavery and rebellion, we would gladly welcome them back as brethren dearly beloved in the Lord.

Other grounds of encouragement and thankfulness we see in the facts that many of our churches have paid off old church debts—that many have largely increased the salaries of their pastors—that many are entering with increased zeal on the work of Sabbath-school and Bible-class instruction—that many are awaking to the duty of a stricter observance of the Sabbath, and of a more determined resistance to the encroachment of profanity, intemperance, worldliness in professing Christians, and other crying evils of the times.

Of course there are discouragements; but these are patent to the eyes of all.

Upon the whole, in the judgment of your Committee, the Church has reason to be devoutly grateful to the Great Head of the Church, and to stir up herself to renewed consecration to Him, and to fresh energy and zeal in his blessed work.

So few, comparatively, of the Presbyteries have sent in reports on the subject of manses, that your Committee have nothing to say on that subject, save only, as a most important matter, to commend it to the consideration of the Church.

Feltch, from the Union Seminary, New York; W. G. Barnes and Thomas C. Stewart, from the Western Theological Seminary at Allegheny, Pa.; and John H. Beairsto, from the Seminary at Halifax, N. S.

Including five resident licentiates and one unmatriculated non-licentiate who had been pursuing the studies of the middle year, the number in actual attendance upon the exercises of the Seminary during a whole or a part of the present session is one hundred and fifty-seven. Besides these, five students are temporarily absent from the institution, who are expected to return and resume their studies, making the entire number on the roll one hundred and sixty-two.

At the close of the session the students were examined before a Committee of the Board, who report "that the examination has been eminently satisfactory. There have been exhibited evidences of great thoroughness and fidelity on the part of the professors, and great diligence and carefulness on the part of the students in the several departments. They cannot but congratulate the friends of the Seminary and the Church at large, upon the thorough course of training that is here enjoyed, and especially upon the mature preparation for the ministry generally evinced by those who have now finished their theological course."

Certificates of having finished the whole course of three years were conferred on the following fifty-four students, viz., C. W. Alexander, S. R. Anderson, W. G. Barnes, J. K. Beairsto, B. G. Benedict, H. S. Butler, J. G. Cameron, W. O. Campbell, T. H. Cleland, Jr., J. W. Cochran, W. C. Condit, J. K. Demarest, M. A. Depue, J. C. Elliott, S. C. Faris, J. H. Feltch, J. F. Forbes, D. R. M. McCampbell, H. W. McKee, A. M. Merwin, E. N. Pires, P. H. Pitkin, S. W. Pomeroy, W. Radcliff, D. L. Rathbun, E. T. Sanford, W. H. Sawtelle, S. Sayre, F. E. Shearer, A. J. Stead, W. S. Steen, H. U. Swinnerton, E. W. Thomson, R. L. Vancleve, D. N. Vanderveer, R. R. Westcott, W. T. Wilkins, A. L. Wilson, J. A. Worden.

The Faculty report that four members of the graduating class are engaged to labour in South America, and several others have also the foreign field in view. A considerable number have devoted themselves to the Domestic Missionary work; "not far from one half the class are already provided with definite fields of ministerial occupation."

The Faculty also refer to the revival in the College and the churches in the town, and add, "the Seminary, as we trust, has shared in this baptism of the Holy Spirit. The devotional exercises of the Seminary have been characterized by seriousness and fervour. The regular studies have also been prosecuted with increased punctuality and diligence."

The Board express the hope that the addition of another year to the curriculum, which was recommended by the last General Assembly to the favourable consideration of the Assembly of 1866, will be sanctioned by your venerable body. The Professors, after much and careful deliberation, have matured a scheme of studies which they propose for the additional year. The existing three years course will remain substantially unchanged, and the same certificate as heretofore be given at its close. But the enlarged curriculum can be pursued to great advantage by as many as shall choose to avail themselves of it, and will embrace among its studies—Messianic Prophecies; Comparative Semitic Philology; Special Introduction and Exegesis, continued; Greek Philology, with a particular consideration of Hellenistic Idioms, Church History (Existing Denominations), Polemic Theology, Ecclesiology, Ecclesiastical Law and Discipline (with the use of the General Assembly's Digest), and Preaching.

Two distinguished teachers of elocution have been engaged during different parts of the year, in giving instruction to the students at the expense of the same friends (Messrs. R. L. and A. Stuart) to whom the Seminary has been indebted for a like arrangement in former years.

The Board are happy to announce that the effort to increase the permanent endowment fund (recommended by the last Assembly) has, through the exertions of Rev. Dr. McGill, been attended with complete success; a full report of which, however, will be laid before the Assembly by the Board of Trustees.

The Board have further to report the death of the Rev. Dr. Magie and of Mr. Ebenezer Platt; also the resignation of the Rev. Dr. McPhail, whose term, however, expires at the present meeting of the Assembly, with the following:

The Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church at Princeton, in New Jersey, send to the General Assembly this their Forty-first Annual Report.

Agreeably to the recommendation of the last Assembly, the salaries of the Professors have been advanced thirty-three per cent., and the Rev. Alexander T. McGill has been appointed General Agent to obtain funds "to defray this increased expense," and for other purposes of the Seminary. With the aid of the Rev. H. A. Harlow, his assistant, Dr. McGill has already secured, "for the payment of debt and capital endowment," the net sum of sixty-six thousand four hundred and one dollars and fifteen cents. His valuable services will be continued, with the view of perfecting the endowment of the Seminary.

Brown Hall was put in condition to be occupied by the students at the beginning of their late year of study, and the rooms were furnished at an aggregate cost of six thousand and thirty-five dollars and thirty-one cents, contributed by churches and individuals. The successful completion of the work of erecting Brown Hall is greatly due to the Rev. Lyman H. Atwater, D.D., chairman of the Building Committee. As a token of the estimate in which his services are held, the President of the Board of Trustees, the Hon. Henry W. Green, presented to Dr. Atwater, at its late sessions, a private donation of five hundred dollars.

Since the last Annual Report, "The McClellan Scholarship" has been founded in this Seminary by a legacy of twenty-five hundred dollars, bequeathed by the late Robert McClellan, Esq., of New York city; by a donation of twenty-five hundred dollars, from Richard Irvin, Esq., of New York city, a scholarship has been founded, called "The John James Irvin Scholarship," and arrangements have been made for the founding of two additional scholarships, of twenty-five hundred dollars each, one by James Crosby Brown, Esq., of New York city, and the other by Reuben J. Flick, Esq., of Wilkesbarre, in Pennsylvania.

The sum of four hundred and sixty-seven dollars and fifty cents has been received, being proceeds of a legacy of five hundred dollars from Miss Ann Eliza Cox, late of Philadelphia, to the Seminary.

In the Library of the Seminary there are now nineteen thousand seven hundred and sixty-two volumes, of which twenty-four have, within the year, been obtained by purchase, and twenty-one by donation. The donations are two volumes from the Hon. John D. Baldwin, member of Congress; from the Rev. William B. Sprague, D. D., one volume; from Mrs. Matilda Potts, New York city, three volumes; from Robert L. and Alexander Stuart, Esqs, of New York city, twelve volumes; from Samuel H. Conger, Esq., of Newark, one volume; from the American Board of Commissioners, one volume, and from the American Tract Society, one volume.

The Auditing Committee, having examined the Treasurer's accounts, reported them correct, with a balance in his hands of $10,252.10.

The Board of Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary respectfully present to the General Assembly of the "Presbyterian Church in the United States of America" their Twenty first Annual Report.

During the year, by the contribution of twenty-five hundred dollars each, by Mrs. J. L. Carnahan and A. M. Wallingford, we have been enabled to add to our permanent funds two scholarships.

The effort to raise an addition to the endowment, referred to in the last Report, has been successful to the amount of thirty thousand dollars, from donations, as follows: James Laughlin and Charles C. Beatty each five thousand; James Lenox, G. E. Warner, and "A Friend," each three thousand; John T. Logan, two thousand; William Dilworth, Jr., A. M. Wallingford, and John Lyon, one thousand each; James L. Carnahan, John D. McCord, Joseph McKnight, and Mrs. E. Denny, each five hundred; Alexander Laughlin and William H. Brown, four hundred each; John P. Pears and James B. Lyon, each three hundred; H. Childs, George A. Berry, Henry Lloyd, and Mrs. A. Laughlin, two hundred each; and twenty gentlemen one hundred dollars each, and some smaller subscriptions. Besides, five hundred from William H. Forsyth, and one hundred from B. H. Painter, special interest for 1865. We also report about seven hundred dollars collected for the Contingent Fund, from nearly thirty churches; and in cash and articles estimated for special furnishing, six hundred dollars, from eight churches in and about Pittsburgh and Allegheny.

The Librarian (Professor Jacobus) reports the following donations of books:

From the Rev. A. R. Hamilton, Dresden, Ohio, deceased, one hundred and thirty-one volumes bequeathed to the Library.

From Miss Mary Maitland, Allegheny City, a set of thirty volumes of Missionary Herald, also Scholia of Rosenmuller, three volumes.

From Rev. Robert Davidson, D. D., Long Island, one volume.

DANVILLE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary at Danville, Kentucky, respectfully submit to the General Assembly their thirteenth Annual Report, as follows:

During the session just terminated, the whole number of students in attendance has been six. Of these, the following new students have been admitted since our last report, to wit:

Harvey Glass, graduate of Centre College, Ky.
Ben. Helm, " " "

The Assembly will perceive that the number of students in attendance during the past year is less by more than half the number present the preceding year; and even less than the number attending during the years 1863—4. One cause, amongst others, in bringing about this state of things may be traced to the antagonism between the loyal position assumed by the Seminary, representing, as it does, the principles assumed in the deliverances of the General Assembly on the State of the Country from 1861 to 1865, inclusive, and the disloyal influences by which it has been and is still environed. The most direct hostility has been constantly avowed by the supporters of the "Declaration and Testimony," and those who sympathize with them in their disloyalty, who have evinced a steady determination to break up the institution. And to accomplish this most effectually, no effort is spared to prevent students from attending it.

Of the four Professorships, the following have been fully occupied during the year, to wit: the chair of Exegetical and Didactic Theology; the chair of Church Government and Pastoral Theology; the chair of Biblical and Oriental Literature. The provision made by the last General Assembly for the occupancy of the chair of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History, (during the leave of absence granted to Dr. Humphrey,) not being found available, the three acting Professors divided the labour of occupying that chair among themselves, and thus succeeded in discharging the duties of it during the term. So that there has been no serious interruption of any part of the proper exercises of the Seminary during the term.

It affords the Board great pleasure to be able to state that the funds of the institution are safely invested, and have been well managed by the Board of Trustees, (to whose report they refer for details,) and are in as prosperous a condition as could be expected.

Mr. B. F. Auf der Heide, of Missouri, having been recommended by the Faculty, has sustained an examination before the Board, and received the certificate of the Seminary. He is a licentiate of the Church.

The character of the students, as received from the Faculty, is good, and their diligence and progress in their studies commendable.

The Librarian reports the following additions to the Library—all by donation:

From the Rev. Samuel B. Smith, of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, 125 volumes. Also, about thirty volumes of Magazines and Reviews, unbound. Some of these works, though not rare, are of real value, such as the Edinburgh Encyclopædia, 36 vols.; Ridgely's Divinity, 4 vols.; Henry's Commentary, 6 vols.; Hervey's Works, 5 vols.; Calvin's Institutes, 3 vols.; Marckii Medulla, &c.

From the widow of the late Rev. W. L. McCalla, 32 volumes. Some of these are rare works, and of great value. We instance Missale Romanum, a very fine copy; Bellarmine's Notes of the Church Examined and Refuted; Mendham's Literary Policy of the Church of Rome; Mendham's Council of Trent, and Life and Pontificate of Pius V.; Breviarium Monasticum; Colligium Universi Juris Canonici; Biblia Sacra Vulgata; Secreta Monita; Michelet on Auricular Confession; Catechismus ad Parochas of Pope Pius V.

From the Rev. W. R. Brown—The Presbyterian Treasury, years 1848—1849, unbound; Home and Foreign Record, 1850 to 1863, also unbound.

From the Presbyterian Board of Publication—The Hymnal, 1 vol.

The Board further reports, that the term of office of the following Directors expires with the sessions of the Assembly of 1866, to wit:

Ministers.	Ruling Elders.
N. C. Burt,	J. H. Hopkins,
J. S. Hays,	Ormond Beatty,
J. B. Condit,	William Prather,
G. R. Perkins,	Glass Marshall,
E. S. Wilson,	James Barbour,
R. W. Landis,	B. F. Avery,
W. L. Breckinridge.	T. T. Alexander,
	John G. Barret,
	W. P. Boyd.

They report, also, the following vacancy, in the same class, occasioned by death: R. C. Grundy, minister. And in the class whose term expires in 1867, the following, to wit: J. A. Lyle and G. W. Lewis, ruling elders.

The Board also reports, not without anxiety as to the effect upon the Seminary, the fact that the Professor of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History, associated with the Seminary from its foundation, and the Professor of Biblical and Oriental Literature, associated with the Seminary during nine years past, have tendered their resignations of these Professorships; which, being absolute, the Board felt it to be its duty to accept. And further, that the Professor of Church Government and Pastoral Theology has stated to the Board his full intention to resign his Professorship at the coming General Assembly. What the result of this procedure may be upon the Seminary, it is impossible to foresee; but the Board, while it cannot for a moment entertain the thought of ceasing its efforts to sustain an institution so much needed by the Church as the Danville Theological Seminary, and which has been already so blessed of God in its efforts to send forth able ministers of our Lord Jesus Christ, unitedly concur in referring the whole subject to the General Assembly; not doubting that God will, in his infinite goodness and wisdom, guide that body to such action therein as shall result in promoting the best interests of his blood-bought Church, and the glory of his great name.

Page 146. . . . Letters were read from Drs. Humphrey and Yerkes, tendering the resignations of their respective Professorships in terms as follows:

DANVILLE, KY., May 2, 1866.

To the Board of Directors of the Danville Theological Seminary:

Dear Brethren:

I hereby tender to you the resignation of my Professorship in the Seminary. This step seems necessary, as I propose, if it be the will of God, to go abroad for the more complete restoration of my health. I have thought, also, that I might in this way simplify somewhat the important business which, it is understood, will come before the Board at this time.

I acknowledge most gratefully the uniform kindness and consideration which my brethren of the Board have extended to me through these many years. And I humbly invoke the Divine favour upon the institution, so that it may be a rich and permanent blessing to our dear Church.

I remain, brethren, your servant in the gospel of Christ,

EDWARD P. HUMPHREY.

Page 147. To the Board of Directors of the Danville Theological Seminary:

Respected Brethren:

For nine years, by appointment of the General Assembly, and according to the measure of my ability and opportunities, I have endeavoured to discharge the duties of the Professorship of Biblical and Oriental Literature in this Seminary.

I now tender to you my resignation of this office, to take effect on the first day of September next.

At the same time I resign into your hands the office of Secretary of the Board, which I have held for nearly the same length of time as my Professorship; and request, if practicable, that my successor be immediately appointed.

Very respectfully, your servant in the gospel,

STEPHEN YERKES.

Danville, Ky., May 2, 1866.

Page 148. . . . It was moved and seconded that Dr. Humphrey's resignation be accepted, for the reasons offered by him. This motion was carried. It was then moved and seconded that the resignation of Dr. Yerkes be accepted, to take effect on the first day of September, 1866. This resolution was adopted.

It was also resolved by the Board that these letters of resignation be sent to the Assembly, and that they be entered of record on the Minutes of the Board.

Messrs. Beatty and Hogue were appointed a committee to prepare a minute expressive of the sentiments of the Board in view of the resignation of the two Professors above named.

. . . Minute . . of the Board in view of the resignation of Drs. Humphrey and Yerkes:

The Rev. Drs. Humphrey and Yerkes having tendered their resignations of the Chairs in the Theological Seminary (page 149) at Danville, which they now hold under the appointment of the General Assembly, and the Board of Directors having, under all the circumstances of the case, felt constrained to accept these resignations—desire now to express its high appreciation of the eminent ability and fidelity with which these servants of the Lord have discharged their duties to the Seminary, in whose service they have spent so many of the best years of their lives. The Board now desires to express, in distinct terms, its deep regret at the circumstances which appear to render it necessary for them to sever their connection with the institution which they have served so long, and with such acceptance alike to the young men who have enjoyed the benefits of their instructions, and to the Church whose servants they are. Nothing but the unfortunate circumstances which now surround the affairs of the Seminary—and in the production of which we attribute no fault to them, but which, we suppose, has arisen from the troubles in the country—would have induced the Board to act as it has done in this matter.

In parting from these brethren, they carry with them our fullest confidence, our sincerest sympathy, and our earnest prayers for their success in such stations of usefulness as God in his providence may appoint them in the future.

The following resolution, touching the suspension of the Seminary, was offered and adopted:

A resolution having been introduced recommending the suspension of the Seminary for the ensuing year, on motion, it was Resolved, That this whole subject be referred to the General Assembly for its decision.

(Attest,) Jacob Cooper, Secretary.

St. Louis, May 23, 1866.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

Fathers and Brethren:

I hereby execute a purpose formed several months since, and tender to the General Assembly my resignation of the Professorship of Church Government and Pastoral Theology, which I hold by appointment of the Assembly, in the Danville Theological Seminary; this resignation to take effect on the first day of September next.

Very respectfully, &c.,

R. L. Stanton.

The Trustees respectfully suggest to the General Assembly the desirableness of an early meeting of the General Assembly in the State of Kentucky, for the purpose of giving a more permanent organization to this Board of Trustees, of which only seven of its eighteen members are fully invested with the office of trustee—the remaining eleven holding office subject to the ratification of the General Assembly, which can be given, under the charter, only at a session of that body in the State of Kentucky.

R. A. Johnston, Secretary Board of Trustees.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE NORTHWEST.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS.

The Board respectfully report that the following students were received during the late session:

W. B. Chamberlin,	graduate of	Hanover College, Indiana.
L. Y. Hays,	"	Washington College, Pa.
S. A. Hummer,	"	Monmouth College, Illinois.
Augustine Breese,	"	Nassau Hall, New Jersey.
Edward Cornes,	"	Washington College, Pa.
Wm. M. Crozier,	"	Hanover College, Indiana.
Thomas Galt,	"	Jefferson College, Pa.
Heber Gill,	"	Miami University, Ohio.
D. B. Gordon,	"	Barrie Academy, C. W.
George M. Lodge,	"	Hanover College, Indiana.
Edward Savage,	"	Carroll College, Wisconsin.
M. V. Vanarsdale,	"	Hanover College, Indiana.
H. Van Buren, M. D.	"	Rush Med. College, Chicago, Illinois.
Joseph Wilson,	"	Miami University, Ohio.
James G. Bailey,	"	Westminster College, Mo.

Of these W. B. Chamberlin was received from Princeton Theological Seminary.

Four of the students having completed the full course of study, and sustained a satisfactory examination, have been awarded the usual certificate, viz., John McC. McDonald, of Pennsylvania; Harlan P. Peck, of Illinois; W. Louis Rabe, M. D., of Ohio; and C. F. Waldecker, of Missouri. All of these young brethren, the Board are happy to say, are already about to enter promising fields of usefulness in the growing Northwest.

To meet the demand for room, owing to the increase of students at the beginning of the term, our financial agent was obliged, at considerable cost, to furnish additional apartments in the Seminary building. The means were furnished chiefly by a few churches and individuals who had before contributed largely for the same general purpose.

The Library has, since last report, received additions as follows, as shown in the report of the Librarian, Prof. Elliott, viz.,

1. By Mrs. Phillips, the library of her late honoured husband, the Rev. W. W. Phillips, D. D., numbering . 854 vols., many quite valuable.
2. Purchased out of the cash donation of Hanson K. Corning, Esq. . . 88 vols., valuable.
3. By Mrs. Samuel Neel, St. Louis, per the agent, J. M. Faris, . . . 3 vols., valuable.
4. By Samuel Howe, Esq., Chicago, . . 1 vol.

Total, 958 vols.

The endowment remains as it was last year—$25,000 for each chair. The income at present reduced rates is therefore still inadequate to meet the salaries of the Professors. The deficit has to be made up by drafts on the General Fund. Through the exertions of our General Agent, Rev. J. M. Faris, the treasurer has been enabled out of this fund to remove entirely the accumulated deficits of former years to the Professors, and also to pay the salaries of the late year, that is, up to April, 1866, within a little over $800. In this fact there is certainly occasion for gratitude and encouragement.

To enlarge the endowment, and relieve the General Fund, as far as practicable, from further drafts of this nature, and also to secure additional scholarships, and moneys for other buildings greatly needed, the Board, at the late meeting, at the suggestion of the present Agent, made a year ago, appointed the Rev. I. N. Candee, D. D., an additional agent. He is expected to enter at once on his work.

At the late meeting the Board, by a vote of eleven against nine, resolved to ask the Assembly to transfer Dr. Lord to the "Cyrus H. McCormick Professorship of Didactic and Polemic Theology," and also to elect a fourth Professor. The Assembly should know that the opposition to both these resolutions is very firm, and is from members who generally have been longest in the Board, and who have borne, and yet bear, the burden of the support of the Seminary.

The Board of Trustees have made their usual lucid report concerning the finances. From their Treasurer's statement, and the Report of Mr. Faris, General Agent, the following summary is compiled.

I. Receipts.

1. From the McCormick Endowment, . . .	$6,823 15
2. From Scholarships, ...	397 21
3. From Miscellaneous, ...	422 46
4. From Collections of Rev. J. M. Faris, Agent, which are not included in above, . . .	9,662 11
5. Balance on hand from last year, . . .	1,839 23
		$19,144 16

II. Disbursements.

1. Paid Professors—Dr. Lord, ...	5,115 72
Dr. Halsey, . . .	3,920 54
Dr. Elliott, ...	3,033 33
Balance to estate of Dr. Scott, . . .	157 82
		12,227 41
2. To support of students, ...	3,301 21
3. To Miscellaneous, including furnishing of ten rooms, additional on dining-room, kitchen, grounds, taxes, insurance, repairs, Agent's salary and expenses, and all incidentals, ...	3,590 54
4. Balance on hand, ...	25 00
		6,816 75
		$19,144 16

There are yet six students' rooms to be furnished, and some considerable outlay will be required in enlarging Refectory accommodations.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1865—6.

God having granted us peace and relief from our internecine strife, has a claim on our gratitude, and our thanks are best expressed by renewed energies in the great cause of Home Missions. Two of our members have ceased from their labours and entered on their everlasting rest—Rev. Dr. Magie, of New Jersey, and James Couper, M. D., of Delaware. Four of our missionaries have left the scene of active labours and been gathered into the church above—Rev. H. E. Crawford, of Indiana, Rev. John Wylie, of Oregon, Rev. Thomas Gordon, of Indiana, and Rev. James G. McCartney, of Maryland. We miss them much in this day of our need, and when the field grows white for the harvest. The whole number in commission was 599—an excess of 36 above the year previous—and they supplied in whole or part 797 stations and churches.

2,330 were added to the church on examination, and 1,602 by certificate—the entire roll of communicants in these missionary churches number 22,506; Sabbath-schools 379, with 3,203 teachers, and 23,602 scholars.

We have missionaries in 25 States, and 4 Territories—Massachusetts 1, New York 33, New Jersey 25, Pennsylvania 78, Delaware 3, Maryland 14, West Virginia 13, Virginia 2, Ohio 54, Indiana 35, Illinois 76, Michigan 9, Wisconsin 28, Minnesota 23, Iowa 65, Missouri 25, Kansas 12, Nebraska 6, Colorado 1, Kentucky 4, Tennessee 7, Oregon 3, Washington and Utah 1, California 9, Louisiana 2, Texas 1, District of Columbia 3, Nevada 1, North Carolina 3, Florida 2; all, we believe, men in whom the Church can repose confidence, and who are laying the foundation of religion and of empire.

The entire receipts from all sources were $144,291.34, which, added to the balance at the end of the last year, made a sum of $168,241.50, a greater amount by $20,915.16 than in any year previous, even when the whole land was with us, and the South and the Border States gave us their contributions.

Our expenses, including $18,000 paid for house 907 Arch Street, were $144,597.28, leaving us a working balance of $23,644.28. With this we meet the maturing salaries of the missionaries during the months of light receipts. The appropriations have been largely increased in this day of enhanced prices. Could our normal condition be that of increased and increasing income, we could adventure salaries in some measure equal to the wants of God's servants, and save them from perplexity and care. We might devise more liberal things—but eras in our past history remind us of debt incurred by ill-advised expansion, recoiling sadly in diminished appropriations. We fear debt because of its unhappy results.

The pecuniary resources of our Church need to be fully developed, and the fields of our Home Missions be more completely explored and occupied.

The times in which we live are eventful and big with promise. We have happily passed the throes of a civil war, and seen more marvellous results than from any other civil war which the world has ever known. God's wonder-working providence has accomplished, by the hands of men in rebellion, the overthrow of slavery and a solution of a problem which has agitated and disturbed every Christian heart. We find our country settling down after these oscillations at once. There may be difficulties, real or imaginary, to perplex us—honest differences of opinion on the subject of reconstruction: but it were to doubt God, if we hesitated to believe that the revolution will not be complete, and the retributions of his providence not entire: all these considerations and others too, which will offer themselves to the minds of thoughtful and Christian patriots, imply a fearful increase of responsibility. The Church must gird up her loins and ignore the efforts of the past, wonderfully blessed as they have been, and go forward to occupy the land in the full service of her Lord and Master. True, we have emerged from war burdened with an enormous debt, charged with taxes beyond precedent. Our households have yielded treasures beyond the gold of Ophir, in defence of our endangered liberties. But what are facts? Such prosperity has never been known—the huge mass of the national debt actually and steadily decreasing, and in all likelihood to be swept away in a single generation. The loyal States have become richer by the war, industry has been stimulated and resources evoked; and they have advanced with strides to a prosperity unexampled. Labour commands a higher premium. Plenty reigns everywhere. Internal improvements appear on every side; and the iron road is pressing to the shores of the Pacific. The mineral wealth of the United States surpasses fable—all that man prizes on the surface of the earth, or in its damp, dark bosom, we have—the metals in huge abundance, making us independent of other nations. We could live and prosper, if non-intercourse with other countries was decreed. A population of strong hands and active industry pours in upon us in one continuous stream. The down-trodden of Europe, and the men who aspire to better homes for their children, stretch out their hands and anxiously wait their turn to come to this land of freedom. Immigration swells year by year; and, however in some aspects it may alarm us, at all events it will greatly increase the riches of the nation—we have now thirty-seven States, and possibly before this Report is presented, thirty-nine, and nine territories, and a population in spite of the drain of the war, of forty millions.

Have the resources of the Church been developed? We may assume that two-thirds of our members do contribute, because they are connected with contributing churches. But what are the actual facts? How many whose names are on the roll of the Church, decline and leave to others outside of the pale the honour which is their spiritual birthright? What painful deductions would we be compelled to make? What numbers professing Christ do nothing for His great cause? Our books, carefully kept and strictly audited, reveal the fact, that of the whole amount we are permitted to report this year, only $68,034.20 came from church collections; that is to say, abating from the entire sum, legacies and the gifts of large-hearted individuals, $76,257.14, we can discover only $68,034 20 from the churches, or an increase of less than $8,000 from churches. It is these individual or miscellaneous contributions and legacies which have enabled us to carry on our work heretofore on the scale which we have reached.

There are points to be occupied in the newer territories, which fuller means would allow us to seize and to hold. Missionaries are held back from devising liberal things, from exploring new fields, and overtaking newly discovered desolations by this uncertainty. Could they feel themselves the missionaries of the Church, and by the Church sustained, they would lat our with no uncertain effort, until sustained and adequately supported by their flocks, they could join the army of the advance as it occupies the regions beyond.

Can we escape this responsibility? Necessity is laid upon us—yea, woe to us, if we preach not the gospel in person or by substitute. What is it to convert a continent, with its three millions and a half of square miles? It is to leave on the now plastic mass an impression, ere it harden into stone—it is to subdue to Christ the land, as a part of his promised possession. All of effort and of contribution are to be given to the establishment and extension of this kingdom. Millions are given freely to uphold the manifold form of sin and crime. The world pours out its treasures like water to ruin souls. The Church deals out scantily her treasures to countervail these fearful efforts. And though the odds seem frightful, yet in the faith of Him who died and rose again, may we move on to a sure and certain victory!

The condition of the South is not improved since our last Report. The division of the Church has been made as permanent as the leaders could accomplish. They have been permitted to rend our communion. How long this alienation shall continue, is known only to God. We rejoice over the death and burial of slavery. The amendment of the Constitution has secured what the military necessity began. That cannot separate us. However active heretofore that source of discontent and estrangement may have been, it is not so now. That poor excuse is gone. Nor can a separate nationality be pleaded. That has gone too. We are by God's decree one nation. That spiritual desolation exists, their own papers abundantly prove. That the supply of ministers, always inadequate, has been diminished by the events of the last five years, and for years to come not likely to be remedied, is their own admission. Churches have become extinct. Preachers have fallen in battle, or seek bread in other avocations. Church members have been slain by the sword or disease. But as far as their present leaders can continue it, the South is a sealed land to us.

Nor were we forgetful of the direction not to send any but loyal men to the country, and true to the deliverance of the Assembly. Few of the excepted class applied, and we were spared the pain of refusal. In a few cases we declined, as in duty bound, and great efforts were made to render the Board odious, and no small obloquy cast upon its officers. We have faith to believe the Assembly will justify our course. It may be sufficient to say the clamour came from men whose churches persistently, during the whole war, contributed not a dollar to our treasury—thus undertaking to control the management of funds in which they had no share, and to direct a Board whose efforts they had done their best to cripple.

The review presents the magnitude of the work of Home Missions—but after all it is only in its infancy;—a population now of forty millions, and ere this century is completed, one hundred millions. Our Church is in its minority, and though torn by an unjustifiable division, we have a goodly communion. May not these one hundred and eighty-five Presbyteries become five hundred, and our two hundred and thirty-two thousand four hundred and fifty members exceed a million? Who can measure the bounds of our enlargement, if faithful and true? We lay foundations to last while earth shall endure. We belong to a kingdom which is everlasting. It marches to an assured triumph, not only of this broad continent, so marvellously appointed, but of all the earth. The charter of this inheritance was given to Christ on his holy hill of Zion, and he must reign till all enemies be subdued beneath his triumphant feet. It is but infancy, yet it will progress and advance. The present generation will not see this—they shall rest from their labours, and their works shall follow them. But those who come after us shall witness it—other General Assemblies shall hear of the success, and rejoice in the triumph. The South shall give up, and the North shall not hold back. The West shall call to the East, and the hymn of praise, keeping company with the hours, shall roll across the continent in one continuous strain of holy music. Our land shall be Immanuel's. It will lighten the nations. Christ Jesus gathers his elect, and the joy of heaven increases. O, then and there, in the clear revealing light of that day, in the joy before the throne of God and of the Lamb, will this venerable and venerated Assembly comprehend more fully its present work of faith and labours of love! No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee, in judgment, thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord.

Clothing.—Eighty-one packages of clothing have been received during the year, valued at $18,005.66, an increase over last year of $1,354.86.

The Report is divided into the two parts, as usual, devoted to Ministerial and General Education.

The department of Ministerial Education is opened with the presentation of the reasons for believing that the present will be "an era" in "the work of an education by God's Church of a competent ministry of his glorious gospel." It shows, first, from a careful survey of the history of our country, and secondly, from the statistics of the Board since its beginning, in 1819, that periods of war, and of great national trial, have been regularly the Divine preparation for revivals of religion. It calls the Church to recognize the hand of the Lord Jesus in its late calamities; to repent of the various sins against him and his truth, which led to these judgments; to expect and pray confidently for a great revival of religion; adding a number of considerations, and a comparison of the Revolutionary war with the late civil war in various material items, to prove, that if the period after the former was "The Great Revival Era" of the past in our country, we have reason to believe that we are upon the eve of one "ten times as great in revivals of religion. The Report further calls on Christians to manifest their gratitude to God for his wonderful mercies to us as a nation, by planting monuments like the University of Leyden, which was founded by William, Prince of Orange, as a memorial of the deliverance of that city from its siege by the Spaniards; and like the Missionary College and Society of Basle, in Switzerland, which was established in 1815, as a thank-offering for the salvation of the city from destruction by armies of Russians and Hungarians, on the one side and on the other. And these shall be but steps towards the renovation of the Church and the nation; so "that the rising generation shall become a seed to serve him with a faith and zeal that shall take its pattern from the apostolic age;—that our religious institutions, and especially the formative ones of the school, for either sex, the college, the seminary of theological instruction, shall be furnished with all the means necessary to give them, in dependence upon the Divine Spirit, the greatest possible efficiency for their various ends;—and that our nation, a sanctified regenerated nation, shall become what the confederated republics of Israel were of old, a peculiar people, the Lord its everlasting light, and its sons a company of heralds to publish the glad news of salvation, until every human soul, of all the nations and kindreds and people, shall humbly bow to the kingdom of the Lord Jesus Christ."

The statistics of candidates and contributions, from the establishment of the Board in 1819 until now, are collated and grouped into tables, to show that revival periods have been those of its greatest prosperity; that those periods have been accompanied by peculiar judgments from God; that they require special care in the examination of candidates for the ministry; and that they are the times of the greatest energy in missionary and other holy enterprises, and of the most thorough consecration of the property of Christians to the Lord's service.

A very full summary of the statements of the Report of the Board as to the state of the Treasury; the statistics of candidates for the past year; the importance of a universal observance by our churches of the two appointments by the General Assembly in behalf of the objects of this Board ("the last Thursday of February," and "the first Sabbath of March"); the missionary work to be done for the young of the foreign populations of our country; and the claims of the present period upon the young, their parents and preceptors, and persons of property, &c.; is presented in the report of the Committee of the General Assembly upon this Board; which may be found upon pages 30 to 32 of the Minutes preceding. It is therefore not necessary to repeat them here.

A BRIEF ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT.

In presenting a summary of the Missionary operations of the Foreign Board for the year ending April 30th, 1866, a recognition of Jehovah's love and mercy is due, in permitting the Church to labour another year for the salvation of the perishing; for the displays of his favour to her different missions, and for the interest and sympathy awakened and sustained among not a few at home in the extension of the Redeemer's kingdom on the earth.

New Missionaries.—The number of missionaries and assistant missionaries sent out was nineteen, of whom seven were ministers, and one soon to be licensed. Two ordained missionaries, Messrs. Fullerton and Paull, were stricken down at their posts by death—the one a long-tried and faithful worker in India, the other suddenly removed almost at the outset of his missionary career, and in the midst of growing successes, in Africa. Mrs. Happer, of Canton, was also called from her earthly and useful toils. Besides these losses of direct personal labour for the heathen, others have had to leave the field for a time to recruit their wasted energies, and gather new strength for their much loved service.

Native Ministers.—Three native brethren have been ordained to the gospel ministry in India and one in China, another has been licensed, and several are soon to be.

Mission Fields.—Whilst no new fields have been occupied, none have been given up, and some have been strengthened. The different agencies in operation for bringing back this revolted world to the dominion of Christ have all been sustained. These have been amongst the Jews and the Indian tribes of this country; the Chinese in California; the Romanists in Brazil and the United States of Colombia; in China, Japan, Siam, and India; in Liberia and Corisco in Africa; in Italy, France, and Belgium.

Missionary Labourers.—Leaving out Europe, where money only is sent to sustain the labourers employed, there are in connection with the Board seventy-five ministers, seven licentiates, four physicians, and two hundred and thirty-two teachers, colporteurs, catechists, etc., including the wives of the missionaries—or in all, a force of 318. There are thirty-seven organized churches, with a membership of about 1,200, and, with scarcely an exception, there have been important accessions to them. The press, as in former years, has poured out its treasures of saving health, and more than 25,000,000 pages of tracts and of the word of God have been printed and largely scattered. The schools have been maintained with increasing efficiency, and in them have been gathered 7,000 youths, who have, in one form or another, been made acquainted with the doctrines of the gospel. This is a larger number than has ever before been reported, and embraces boarding and day scholars—boys and girls, from the primary department to the college.

State of the Treasury.—The receipts of the Board from all sources have been $207,526.65—the expenditures $210,376 38, leaving a balance against the treasury of $2,849.73. This is a serious falling off when compared with the preceding year, but its receipts were then enlarged by the response of the Church to the special appeal of the Executive Committee for the unusually high rates of exchange. These rates, if lower, have yet absorbed $40,000, which are embraced in the expenditures of the current year—an amount not sufficiently taken into consideration by the friends of the cause. Retrenchment on the part of the Board, or an enlarged liberality on the part of the Church, must take place the coming year.

Greater Efforts Needed.—The missions are in a healthy state. God's smiles are resting upon them—a door wide and widening is before them—never were they more capable of making advances into the kingdom of darkness, or better prepared for decided action. Calls multiply for men and means. God has given ability to the Church to meet all such demands. Her wealth has increased, and to her cries, "Awake, awake, O arm of the Lord," the Most High is saying, "Awake, awake, put on thy strength, O Jerusalem."

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT, 1866.

The work of this year has been attended by not a few anxieties and difficulties, especially in its commercial aspects. Yet by the good hand of our God upon us, it has been, upon the whole, a year of successful effort. A goodly number of new publications have been issued, adapted, as we humbly trust, to meet the wants of the Church, and to spread abroad a knowledge of Divine truth. Our sales have been considerably in advance of those of the preceding year. By a variety of agencies, our books and tracts have been scattered far and wide over our land, and even into other countries. Our work has met with very general favour—we have reason to hope with increased favour—among our ministers and churches. And the truth, as disseminated by this Board, has been accompanied and blessed by the Holy Spirit to the souls of many.

The Board has issued during the year,

66 new books, of which have been printed	69,500	copies.
Of the Hymnal,	7,000	"
1 Question book,	1,000	"
1 18mo. tract,	1,000	"
1 French publication,	1,000	"
3 Sheet Hymns,	6,000	"
4 12mo. tracts,	6,000	"
Total copies of new publications,	91,500

The reprints of former publications during the year, have been

Of books,	139,000
Of tracts and catechisms,	206,900
Of packages of tracts,	1,000
Of sheet hymns,	120,000—466,900	"
Total number of publications during the year,	558,400

Total number of copies of books and tracts issued by the Board since its organization, 12,707,788.

In addition to the above, there have been printed during the year,

Of the Sabbath-School Visitor,	805,000	"
Of the Home and Foreign Record,	129,300	"
Of the Annual Report of the Board,	3,500	"
Of the Report on the Disabled Ministers' Fund,	2,500	"

During the past year a large and important addition has been made to the Sabbath-School Library of the Board, amounting to 52 new volumes, making the whole library to consist at present of 434 volumes. These new books have been selected as the best, from a very large number of manuscripts received, and of foreign publications imported. A very large number of manuscripts have, on various grounds, been rejected.

The Sabbath-school Visitor seems not only to maintain its hold upon the affections of our Sabbath-schools, but to become increasingly a favourite. Its circulation at the time of our last Annual Report was 62,000. It has now reached 68,000. Its aggregate circulation during that year was 662,000 copies. During the year just ended it has been 805,000.

1. Sales in the Depository.—In the Depository 221,022 volumes have been sold during the year, which is an increase of 27,400 volumes over the preceding year. Of tracts, 388,140 pages have been sold in the Depository.

The net value of these sales is $59,179.23, which is an increase of $17,523.17 upon those of the year before.

The sales by colporteurs are not included in this sum, but may be found stated elsewhere in this Report.

The value of the books sent to our Theological Seminaries by order of the General Assembly, and to authors and editors, is $763.43.

2. Distributions by the Executive Committee.—The amount contributed to the Distribution Fund during the past year has been $3167.27. This is considerably less than the sum reported last year, owing to the fact that last year considerable contributions were sent for special use in army distributions, which department of the Board's work since the return of peace has become comparatively small.

1. To mission and other needy Sabbath-schools,	9,905	volumes.
2. " Ships and naval and military stations,	2,100	"
3. " Humane institutions,	1,283	"
4. " Ministers,	477	"
5. " Feeble churches and literary institutions,	1,635	"
6. " Individuals, for gratuitous distribution,	6,076	"
Total of volumes granted,	21,476
Pages of tracts granted,	225,831

3. Distributions by Colportage.—The Board has had 129 commissioned colporteurs in its service during the year, who have performed 8238 days of labour, have sold 59,246 volumes, have distributed gratuitously 72,505 volumes and 1,892,102 pages of tracts, and have visited 392,550 persons, with a large proportion of whom they have prayed and had conversation in reference to their souls' concerns.

The great work in which the Board has been so largely engaged for the last four or five years, of supplying soldiers and prisoners, in camps and hospitals, with its publications, having, in the main, come to an end, the Board is now seeking to resume the colportage work in which it was so largely engaged before the interruption caused by the war. A considerable number of permanent colporteurs have recently been commissioned, and it is expected that a considerable number of theological students connected with our various seminaries will spend their long summer vacations in this service.

Total of Distribution.

Bringing together the various amounts which have been stated separately, we have the following as the total amount of the distributions of the year:

Volumes sold at the Depository,	221,022
Volumes sold by Colporteurs,	59,246
Volumes given by Colporteurs,	72,505
Volumes granted by the Executive Committee,	21,476
Total of volumes,	374,249

Being an increase of 17,244 volumes over the year preceding.

The pages of tracts distributed are as follows:

By sale at the Depository,	388,140
Gratuitously by Colporteurs,	1,892,102
Granted by the Executive Committee,	225,831
Total of pages of tracts,	2,506,073

Besides these, the Board has issued,

Copies of the Sabbath-school Visitor,	805,000
" of the Home and Foreign Record,	129,300
" of various Reports,	6,000

The net value of these issues has been,

Sales in the Depository,	$59,179.23
Sent to Seminaries, Authors, Editors, &c.,	763.43
Sales by Colporteurs,	39,335.34
Home and Foreign Record,	6,040.96
Sabbath-school Visitor,	7,655.28
Total,	$112,974.24

This is an increase of $22,706.76 over the issues reported last year.

The above total, comprehending credit sales and donations, of course, differs from the Treasurer's account, which credits only cash received.

The catalogue value of the above total would be $132,700.65, the difference being made up of discounts allowed to booksellers, ministers, theological students, and synodical depositories.

The Treasurer has received from all sources during the year, exclusive of the balance on hand at its beginning, $129,498 90, an increase of $4,464.83.

The aggregate expenditures of the year have been $146,211.16 an increase of $35,477.03. This increase is caused in part by the increased price of paper and other materials, and in part by the stereotyping and printing of an unusual number of new books during the year, some of which are not yet issued.

The amount of cash received from the sales of books, tracts, and periodicals has been $97,605.11, an increase of $13,715.81 upon the previous year.

The balance in the treasury at the end of the year was $4,770.21.

The Colportage Fund.—The receipts for Colportage have been $26,735.72, and the expenditures $27,813.39. During the preceding year the Colportage Fund received several considerable legacies, among them one of $5,000, also many special contributions for carrying on the work in the army. This year no legacy of any size has been received, and of course few contributions for army work. From these causes there is a decrease of $7,080.21. The regular contributions from the churches have been as large as in any former year.

The number of churches contributing to the Colportage Fund has been 688.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

President—Rev. S. J. Niccolls.

Corresponding Secretary—Rev. Henry I. Coe.

Treasurer—David Keith.

Office—No. 45 North Fifth street, St. Louis, Missouri.

ABSTRACT OF THE ELEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

By the favour of God we are able to report to the General Assembly, that the year recently closed was one of progress in the work of Church Extension. Though we cannot, as in our last annual statement, record a noble legacy of $10,000 from one who, in life, honoured the Lord with his substance, and departing to his regal inheritance, blessed the Church, through her different Boards, with princely gifts; and though, for this reason, we now report legacies of less than $600 instead of nearly $11,000; yet the increased receipts from other sources swelled the income of the year to within $3000 of its predecessor. In every other particular, advance may be inscribed upon our register. As compared with the preceding twelve months, the applications increased fifty-five per cent.; the appropriations forty-one per cent.; and the payments more than thirty per cent. The number of contributing churches rose from seven hundred and fifty-one to seven hundred and seventy-nine, while the field open to effort expanded southward over twelve degrees of latitude, enclosing Louisiana no less than Minnesota in its genial lines of aid.

Applications.—During the fiscal year ending April 2, 1866, ninety-six churches sought aid to the amount of $65,484.07. This gives an average of $682.12 to each church, an increase of nearly eighteen per cent. on the average of the preceding year.

Adding to these the applications on file, and undisposed of April 1, 1865, we find that there were before the Board, during the year, one hundred and thirty-two applications, calling for $100.773.07. Thus it appears that, although the cost of building has not materially diminished, the anticipations of increased applications expressed in our last report have been realized.

In the twelve months under review, thirteen applications calling for $12,800 were for the usual reason stricken from the register. There remained on file April 2, 1866, awaiting the receipt of the requisite information, thirty-seven applications asking for $30,550.

Appropriations.—Appropriations were made during the year to sixty-nine churches whose names and localities are given in the appendix. The amount granted to these churches was $34,121.33. This is an average of $494.51 to each, being nearly thirty per cent. above the average of last year, and nearly double the advance in the average of applications.

In addition to the above formal appropriations a number of informal pledges of aid were, as in some former years, made under peculiar circumstances. Thus the total liabilities incurred during the year were $8,217.71 in advance of the income.

In every case, allowed by the Assembly, where the necessary information was furnished, a grant was made either of the full amount asked by the Presbytery, or of a sum sufficient to complete the sanctuary free from debt. Combine this fact with the fact that for four years the average of appropriations has risen more rapidly than the average of applications; and with the further fact that formal grants have during that period been made to thirty-four churches more than the number reported as organized within that time in our connection, and there seems good ground to hope that the people of God will ere long enable the Board to overtake the necessities of the Church Extension work. These facts at least betoken something beyond the dawn of the day when all proper claims of our houseless flocks on the Church at large can be met without the great expense and terrible drudgery of personal indiscriminate appeals for aid by individual solicitors.

Appropriations amounting to $2,185.25, were during the year withdrawn from five churches for the usual reasons. Two of these however were subsequently aided by new grants, though the name of one of them had meanwhile been changed.

Fifty-four churches between April 1, 1865, and April 2, 1866, drew their appropriations, amounting to $25,439.43.

Receipts and Expenditures.—The balance appropriated and unappropriated on hand April 1, 1865, was $51,521.82. The receipts from April 1, 1865, to April 2, 1866, were $35,870.28. The entire available means of the year were therefore $87,392.10.

The Treasurer's Report in the Appendix shows expenditures to the amount of $28,390.89. The balance in the treasury April 2, 1866, was consequently $59,001.21. There were however unpaid at that date liabilities amounting to $37,628, leaving an unpledged balance of $21,373.21 to meet applications already filed, (and that may at any time be put in proper shape for final action) amounting to $30,550. Presented in tabular form the financial position of the Board would be properly exhibited thus, viz.,

The Work Done.—The Board of Church Extension has presented eleven Annual Reports to successive General Assemblies. A brief summary of these reports would show the sum of $288,237.17 raised for Church Extension; and six hundred and twelve different churches aided to complete their sanctuaries without debt by formal grants amounting to $237,437.80. At a low estimate of cost and capacity, these sanctuaries have furnished comfortable accommodations for one hundred and twenty-five thousand worshippers, and secured church properties of the value of at least one and three-quarter millions of dollars. Add to these results (which have been obtained without a cent of expense to the Church or to general contributors,) the three hundred and eighty-two churches aided, and the $68,544.06 received, during the previous eleven years by the then existing Church Extension Committee of the Board of Missions, and we arrive at the grand fact that our Church, through her organized agencies, has in the last twenty-two years quietly raised for this work $356,781.23. Therewith she has already aided nine hundred and ninety-four of her feeble flocks to provide sanctuaries for over two hundred thousand worshippers, and to secure unincumbered church properties worth over two millions of dollars. Thus, at an average cost to the Church at large of less than one dollar and fifty-three cents for each, has room been made in nearly one thousand sanctuaries for over two hundred thousand persons. While these external results may be crystalized into figures, what arithmetic can express the higher ends to which they have been the means. The Omniscient Eye alone can trace the established relation between this church erection and the hundreds of revivals and tens of thousands of conversions that have consecrated these "gardens enclosed," and thus lengthened the cords and extended the boundaries of Zion. Only the All-Recording Pen has registered the innumerable petitions born in these thousand houses of prayer, and noted the blessings with which they have returned fraught to earth. Is it too much to believe that God has seldom honoured the labours of the Church in any direction with richer fruit in proportion to the expenditure; and that our fathers did well when, looking beyond the mere process, they gave the work a name expressive of its results?

The Field.—While we rejoice in the work already done, let us not forget what remains unaccomplished.

Nearly four hundred houseless churches still need aid from their more favoured brethren.

With the return of peace, nearly a hundred new and needy organizations will in all probability annually be added to our church roll.

Sanctuaries desolated by war must be rebuilt or repaired. Within a few months we have cheerfully aided in restoring several such, and there yet remain not a few feeble flocks, scattered and peeled by intestine strife, that must have help in the same good work.

A great field, as yet scarcely touched, opens before the Church among the Freedmen, if she proves not recreant to her duty to these millions of semi-heathen at home. Already our brethren of the Freedmen's Committee, oppressed by the responsibilities thrown upon them, have, as they were authorized to do, appealed to us for help in securing houses of worship. Gladly have we responded to every such appeal, and shall continue to do so as long as the means are entrusted to us for distribution.

In view of these varied demands, is it unreasonable to ask the eighteen hundred and fifty churches that neglected this labour of love last year to lend a helping hand for the future, and the seven hundred and seventy-nine churches, with the generous individual donors, who remembered their destitute brethren, not to become weary in well-doing.

NOTICE TO APPLICANTS FOR AID.

Communications on the subject of Church Extension, should be addressed to the Corresponding Secretary, Rev. H. I. Coe, St. Louis, Mo.

No appropriation from the general fund is made without the recommendation of the Presbytery, or the Church Extension Committee of the Presbytery within whose bounds the church applying for aid is located, nor until certified answers from the Trustees to the usual questions, or equivalent information is received.

No appropriation is paid until the Board receives a certificate from the Trustees of the church aided, stating that the church lot is properly secured, and that the amount appropriated will complete their house of worship, and leave the whole property free from debt.

If any church to which an appropriation has been made, seeks aid abroad without the consent of the Board, the appropriation is regarded as forfeited.

Appropriations not called for within two years of the date thereof, are regarded as withdrawn.

All applications for aid, which remain on file two years, without the applicants furnishing the additional information asked for by the Board of Church Extension, are regarded as withdrawn.

FUND FOR DISABLED MINISTERS AND THE FAMILIES OF DECEASED MINISTERS.

ELEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THEIR TRUSTEES ON THE FUND FOR DISABLED MINISTERS, AND THE NEEDY WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF DECEASED MINISTERS.

The first effective measures of the General Assembly for the relief of disabled ministers, widows, and orphans in need, were adopted in 1849. For the first three years, the little money contributed for this object was disbursed by the Board of Publication. In 1852 this service, at the request of that Board, was transferred by the Assembly to their Trustees. During the first year after this change, the Trustees received applications for the relief of only eight persons, two ministers and six widows, among whom were divided six hundred and fifty dollars, on an average of about eighty-one dollars and seventy-five cents to each. In 1854, less than one thousand dollars were distributed, and only ten persons were recommended for aid.

For the first six years, too little was done to be deemed worthy of a formal statement to the Assembly, and the first report of the Trustees was not made until the year 1855. Hitherto no one had been specially charged with the duty of visiting the churches, and of procuring contributions. It was naturally presumed that a cause with such a design would be liberally sustained by their unsolicited coöperation, and for this reason it was thrown at first upon their conscience and heart, for their spontaneous support. The experiment of six years proved, by its limited success, the necessity for an active supervision in this department of Christian duty, but for the want of funds to sustain such an agency, no appointment was made. This lack of service was supplied, as far as practicable, by the Trustees, through the Chairman of their Committee for Distribution. The labour of this post was performed in connection with the duties of a pastor until 1861, when the former had so increased, that the two became incompatible, and the latter were resigned.

For five years, since the spring of 1861, the whole time and attention of the Chairman and Secretary of the Committee have been given to this cause. In the meanwhile, churches have been visited and collections made, from Peoria, Chicago, Buffalo, and Rochester, in the West and North, to Boston in the East, and the District of Columbia in the South. The amount contributed has increased every year, sufficiently to meet the increasing number of applicants for relief, giving a proportionably larger sum to each.

The cause is now so well systematized, so generally known and understood, it has such a hold on the affections and confidence of the churches, that it is not only well inaugurated, but may be regarded as firmly established as are the Boards.

Within the year ending April, 1866, the Trustees have granted assistance to forty-nine ministers, sixty-six widows, and to five families of orphans. The children and invalid adults connected with these one hundred and twenty families, will doubtless enlarge the number of recipients to more than four hundred. The amount asked by the Presbyteries has varied from fifty dollars to four hundred. Most of the ministers are aged, several of them more than four-score. A few have reached their second childhood, in mind and helplessness. Among them are cases of consumption, paralysis, and other incurable diseases. Two have died. Numerous letters have been received, which describe touching cases of suffering from ill health, the ravages of war, and manifold causes.

It would be less edifying than painful to publish the accounts of domestic necessities, and the severe straits, reported in many of the letters from Presbyteries. But they impress very deeply the conviction, on those who read them, that the fund to be disbursed by the Trustees was not provided too soon, and should be vigorously sustained. We have letters from orphans, widows, invalid ministers, and some of so great age and feebleness as to be almost incapable of using the pen. A short letter received from a minister at the West, now in his ninety second year, betraying the decrepit hand that wrote it, says, "I am now a lone man in the world, poor, and dependent for my support on the charity of friends. Nearly a year ago my wife died, leaving me in my present desolate condition, waiting the time of my departure. In such circumstances how much do I need friends and helpers, and I thank God that I have found them, even among distant strangers. The money you sent was seasonable, and much wanted, and I feel greatly obliged to those who have provided a fund for the aged and helpless, and dependent, like myself." A fac-simile of his letter, if published in our report, would furnish a curious and affecting sample of both composition and chirography.

A petition lately came from one of the most distant Presbyteries within our bounds, asking an appropriation for an aged missionary, who had spent a life in labouring among the Indians at the South. Having become too old and feeble to be continued on the fund of the Board, he was living in an humble way, within the area, alternately overrun by the militating armies of the late war, till obliged to escape for his life, while his house was in flames. A son, aged twenty-one, on whom he depended for his support, died of a disease contracted while he was a soldier. His wife is entirely blind, himself too old and infirm to travel or preach, and both are without property, and helpless.

A third writes: "With the deepest sense of obligation to God and the Church, I return thanks for the abundant and timely relief that I have received. Abundant, because this amount is far greater than I dared to hope. Timely, because all my resources were at an end. Having sold horse, buggy, cow, and most of our furniture, we have been living on the proceeds, while health and strength have been waning, but hoping that I might be able to resume my labours in the vineyard of the Lord. I tried to earn something by teaching a small school for the winter, but after six weeks I was obliged to desist. The name of the Lord be praised, that he has ever put it into the heart of his people to raise this most invaluable fund."

Quite a number on our list depend wholly on the fund for their maintenance. Others are supported by it in part, receiving only enough to supply the deficiency of their own earnings.

It is believed that the applicants are considerate and conscientious, and, as a general rule, ask for less than they need, rather than more. No instance is known to the Trustees in which assistance has been continued or requested any longer than it was made necessary by the receiver's exigencies. But to quote half the letters, to which the Assembly would listen with interest, would make this report too long. It is enough to remark in general, that they glow with high emotions of gratitude to God, whose special interposition they recognize in the creation of this fund, and only increase our surprise that it should have been overlooked by the Church or postponed so long. The poverty of superannuated, or invalid ministers, who have depended solely on their salary for support, is in most cases as certain as is any other result from an adequate cause.

What provision can a missionary, foreign or domestic, dying early or late in life, have made for his family? At the meeting of the Synod of Northern India, in November, 1865, it was resolved to send a memorial to the General Assembly in relation to the support of the returned widows of missionaries. Nothing more is needed than a small increase in the annual contributions of our churches to this fund, to furnish abundant means to provide, not only for the widows of deceased missionaries, but for the worn-out and invalid missionaries themselves. In this way several are sustained already, and it seems to be the legitimate and most feasible method of providing for them all. Letters from those labouring in foreign lands, and in the destitute regions of our own, express great gratification at the devising of this plan of relief for the disabled, and inquire with solicitude in regard to its success and permanency. They regard it as the only resort of the superannuated, or sick, so long as the average support of the ministry is so inadequate.

A very small proportion of the number can avail themselves of life insurance, or of any of those institutions which invite the attention of such as have a few surplus dollars to invest. All have been tried by the ministry of other denominations, as well as our own, but no other plan has been deemed hitherto so efficient and reliable as this of annual contributions. Whether such a method is as stable as the income from a permanent fund, is a question on which the Church has been, and is still divided. The General Assembly have therefore wisely left it undecided, by proposing a plan which meets the views of all.

In the Resolutions adopted in 1849, when the present method of providing for disabled ministers originated, it was recommended to the Church—First, to make collections every year, to answer the current applications for help. Secondly, to solicit large donations and bequests to be safely invested in a fund, the interest only of which shall be used for the relief of the suffering. The wisdom that devised this method is becoming more manifest every year: not only have the contributions of the churches increased annually in amount, but no year passes without either some donation for investment, or information of a bequest, by which the permanent fund is gradually increasing. How large a sum is already secured to the fund in this way, it is impossible for the Trustees to know, till the death of the testators. It is additional testimony to the excellency of this plan, that it has long been tried, and approved by several sister sects. At the last General Assembly of the other department of the Presbyterian Church, it was adopted in every essential feature, and has been pursued with encouraging success. No way can be less complicated, less expensive, and less liable to abuse. The Trustees of the Assembly perform every necessary function of a Board of the Church, without its machinery, occasional friction and expense.

The Committee on the fund, being annually appointed, are liable to be displaced for incompetency, neglect of duty, errors in judgment, or any malfeasance whatever. The annual account of their stewardship, given by the Trustees to the Assembly, affords opportunity for such counsel, suggestions, or animadversion, on the conduct of the Trustees, as their report may suggest. The disbursing of the fund only on the application of the Presbyteries, furnishes every safeguard needed to protect it from being misused, or squandered by injudicious appropriations. Nor has any other method of doing this good work been tried or suggested, which is liable to so few objections as this. The Trustees, however, deem it important to state, that while the number of churches that annually contribute to the fund is gradually increasing, it is to be regretted that there are many that do it irregularly, and not a few that give nothing at all. Several wealthy Presbyteries take from the fund more than they give, and not because of the indifference or opposition of their churches to the object, but because they know little or nothing about it. Although a copy of the Annual Report of the Trustees is sent by mail to each pastor, or session, as enjoined by the Assembly, in many cases it is neither read, nor are its facts communicated to the congregation. The Trustees are yet to be apprized of an instance in which the cause has failed of the generous support of the people, when the pastor has given them proof of his own sympathy and hearty approval.

Another serious delinquency, on which the Trustees have had repeated occasion to animadvert, is the remissness of Presbyteries to investigate and report at the proper time the cases within their bounds which call for aid. The most deserving are usually among the last to disclose their necessitous condition, and some would rather suffer in secret than volunteer in making their condition known. The result of this oversight on the part of Presbyteries is the failure of some to receive their appropriations at all, or not till several months after they were needed, and should have been asked. In view of a possible change during the year in the pecuniary condition of some of the recipients, the death of others, and various contingencies, it is wisely ordered by the Assembly that applications for aid, so long as needed, be repeated every year. To provide against a so frequent recurrence of this neglect, it is suggested that each Presbytery have a committee specially charged with this object, whose duty it shall be to bring to the notice of the Presbytery such cases as call for help, and to see that they are regularly presented to the Trustees, and at the proper time. It is believed that within the past year several of our aged and indigent ministers and widows have failed of their appropriations, on account of the forgetfulness and neglect of their brethren.

The Trustees would only add, in conclusion, that they have received so many letters during the year expressing a lively interest of the churches in this cause, that they cannot doubt, but with the blessing of God on proper exertions to have it kept before them, it will be cordially and liberally sustained.

THE CONTINGENT FUND AND THE MINUTES.

1. This fund is indispensable to the organization of the General Assembly. It pays the salaries and expenses of the Clerks, the Janitors, the Delegates to Corresponding Bodies; for printing, and for the Stationery used by the officers and members during the Sessions; besides the whole cost of printing and publishing the Minutes, annually.

2. To meet the increasing cost of the Minutes, the General Assembly, at Newark, in 1864, ordered that the price be seventy-five cents per copy; and previous regulations authorized the Stated Clerk to withhold the Minutes from any Presbytery that will not send in time the full price, including postage, and post-office address for each Minister and Licentiate on the list transmitted. When the sum transmitted is not sufficient, the Minutes will be sent only to the Stated Clerk, and others on the list, as far as the money will pay, according to the rate fixed by the Assembly. Any individual, officer, or member in the church, may obtain a copy of the Minutes by subscribing for the same, and paying before the 1st of June.

3. By act of the General Assembly at Pittsburgh, 1865, the Stated Clerk, the Treasurer, and the Secretary of the Board of Trustees, are made a Committee to assess the several Synods, in order to bring the Contingent Fund out of debt, and keep it out of debt, the assessment being subject to approval by each Synod.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of the Stated Clerks of their respective Synods to send up to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly an annual report, stating, in brief, the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates, and candidates, within their bounds, and particularly all changes which may have been made in the arrangement of Presbyteries. By the Assembly of 1841, (see p. 425,) it has been made their duty also to transmit to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly the time and place of meetings of their respective Synods.

STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES

ARE EARNESTLY REQUESTED

1. To make their Annual Reports to the Assembly. If they have no printed blanks, after the form on the next page. Blanks can always be obtained gratis, on application to the Stated Clerk.

2. To make their Reports in fair, distinct writing, especially the columns of figures.

3. To make them as accurate and full as possible. If, in any instance, churches do not report to Presbyteries, it is desirable that their number of communicants should be inserted from their last report.

4. To report no cents. The Assembly has so ordered. If, therefore, they are reported, the Stated Clerk of the Assembly is obliged to throw them out altogether, or to incorporate them with the dollars. This costs him a serious amount of labour, to which he ought not to be subjected.

5. To add up each column of figures with care. Many still neglect this, and thus oblige the Clerk of the Assembly to do what they should do themselves.

6. To append to the statistics of Presbyteries a brief account of the changes which have occurred during the year—such as the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dismissions of pastors, organization of new churches, and the names of ministers deceased.

7. To transmit their reports to the Stated Clerk, at the meeting of the Assembly, or to W. SARGENT, Esq., 821 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, not later than the first day of June, fully post paid.

N. B. The General Assembly, in its sessions at Nashville, Tennessee, directed that the Presbyterial Reports should be made out at, or before the Spring meetings of Presbyteries, and read in Presbytery, for ratification and sanction.

☞ Blank forms for Sessional Reports are not furnished by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, but are kept for sale by the Presbyterian Board of Publication, 821 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.
